Growth of the Tourist System

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company through the personally-conducted tourist system and the unexcelled enviable record for itself. These tours have grown to be thorouggly appreciated in this age of luxurious travel, and the series announced for the season of '96 and '97 admirably illustrates the progress of the times.

First comes a series to the Golden Gate, starting from New York, Philadelphia, and Harrisburg, January 27, February 24, and March 27. Tourists will travel by superbly-appointed special trains of Pullman compartment, drawing-room sleeping, dining, smoking, and observation cars under the supervision of a Tourist Agent and Wheat Chaperon.

Next in importance comes a series of four to Florida-January 26, February Buckwhead 9 and 23, and March 9. The first three admit of two weeks in the sunny South, while tickets for the fourth tour are good to return by regular Lard. trains until May 31.

A series of short tours to Washington from New York, Philadelphia, and adjacent points will be run on December 29, 1896, January 21, February 11, March 11, April 1 and 22, and May

Old Point Comfort, Richmond, and Washington tours will leave New York and Philadelphia December 26, 1896, January 28, February 20, March 08, and April 12, 1897.

Handsome illustrated itineraries will be issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, containing full information as to how these tours may be pleasantly and profitably made. These itineraries may be procured on personal application or by addressing Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York; 860 Fulton Street, Brooklyn; 789 Broad Street, Newark, N. J., or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Potters Mills.

Everything is quiet in this place since the elecsion.

Miss Bertha Armstrong left Wednesday morning for Williamsport, where she expects to enter the Home Mission.

P. P. Long left town Wednesday morning on a business trip; his brother Frank, of Spring Mills is in charge of his store.

Miss Vonada came to town this week to keep house for the Zettle

The farmers of this community are through with their corn crop, which was a long and tedious job, owing to the large crop.

The Potters Mills band was down to Millheim on Saturday to a political meeting and came home well pleased with their trip, and they brought a good collection with them.

The young people of this vicinity met on Tuesday evening in the school house with the purpose of organizing a debating society.

Mrs. Allison is visiting with her son Archibald, in Bellefonte.
