

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. —Andy Reesman spent Sunday down at Montandon. —Miss Mame Kreamer spent last week with friends in Spring Mills. —Mrs. W. W. Bayard, of Philadelphia, is visiting her father, Mr. M. Stroh, at Centre Hill. —Wagner Geiss, teaching school at Oak Hall, and Ed. Kerlin, a teacher at Lemont, spent Sunday with their parents here. —Recorder-elect Cal. Harper, of Bellefonte, was the guest of his brother-in-law, George Emerick, several days last week. —William Chandler, who has been employed at Boob's wheel shops the last several months, left this morning for his home at Lancaster. —Jared Kreamer is getting around again with a limp and cane, having abandoned his crutches. He received a bad sprain some time ago. —Jony Harter and Cy Brungard stopped a little spell with us while on their way to Bellefonte to do a little courting but not with women. —Our old friend and patron, Geo. Armbruster, of Gregg, gave us a call and moved his label far into '97; he is one of the staunchest Democrats and wonders when the new good times will begin. —Mr. George P. Rearick, of near Spring Mills, was in town this morning. He is one of Gregg township's valued and prominent citizens, and one of the REPORTER'S old friends and patrons. —George Benner left last Thursday for Boston, Mass., where he will make his future home. He was elected superintendent of a house manufacturing soft drinks and extracts, and is much taken with the position. His brother Frank accompanied him, and will work in this establishment. The store at the station will be looked after by his father and sisters. —Mrs. I. Y. Meyer, who with her daughter Ruth, has been visiting at the home of her father, Mr. George P. Rearick, near Spring Mills, the last three months, will leave on Saturday next for her home in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Meyer was not in the best of health when she came east, but returns to Ohio with her health fully restored.

Foster's Weather Predictions. The next serious disturbance will reach the Pacific coast about Nov. 10, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 11th, great central valleys 12, eastern states 15. The warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about Nov. 10, great central valleys 12, eastern states 14. The cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 13, great central valleys 15, eastern states 17. This cool wave will be the severest of the month, and will probably be called a cold wave. As the rainy period of November will extend from about the 6th to the 20th, this disturbance will cause rains in many parts of the middle latitudes. A great fall in temperature will occur between Nov. 1 and 18. This will come in two cold waves, one about the 9th and the other about the 15th.

Potters Mills Wheeling Bet. Next Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, John Strong, having lost his bet on Bryan, pays it by wheeling Wm. Smith on a barrow from the post office to the hotel, half a mile. It was agreed, when the bet was made, that the one having to do the wheeling could stop as often as he desired to take a rest. But the fellow on the barrow could call for a speech from the pusher every time he stopped for a rest. The band will enliven the trip with music, while the crowd expects to have lots of fun upon the occasion. If Strong stops often and makes long speeches Smith may find the seat of his pants worn out before getting to the end of his journey.

NATIONAL GRANGERS. The thirtieth annual session of the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry met in Washington on Tuesday, Master J. H. Brigham, of Ohio, called the meeting to order. General Secretary John Trimble and Master Brigham delivered addresses, which were followed by the reports of officers. Secretary Trimble says the year has been an exceedingly prosperous one for the grange, during which 109 subordinate granges have been organized, as against only 92 the previous year. The grange, however, he says, is not as strong now as twenty years ago, because the Farmers' Alliance hurt the association very much in the South. The latter association is political, he says, while the Grange is not. —The Philadelphia Branch leads in common sense clothing at common sense prices—hard time prices. They look for only a fair profit there. In many of the goods they sell they don't get any. —Robes and Horse blankets, at bottom prices, at Booger Bros. —Read new advertisement of Bellefonte's cheapest store, on page 6.
