ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. NOV. 28

By his will, the late James McMillan, of Johnstown, the college at Gettysburg, gets $10,000 to its endowment fund.

NEXT month congress will meet and the victorious Republicans will then have a little hair pulling among themselves on the tariff question.

Matt. Savage advertises Oregon timberlands for sale. How much of Oregon do you own Matt? If you own it all we may open negotiations.

In payment of an election bet Geo. Woolson, democrat, attended church on Sunday for the first time in ten years, at New Castle, Del., sang a hymn and put a coin in the contribution plate.

Illinois and Ohio cast very nearly the same vote at the late election, the total of the former state being 1,055,331 while that of Ohio was 1,060,000.

The McKinley campaign fund is said to have amounted to 16 million dollars. This fabulous sum of money was contributed by the trusts, banks, corporations and railroads, to defeat Bryan, the champion of the people yet he came near being elected.

At Huntingdon, in this State, at a recent Teachers' Institute, a resolution was adopted praying for a curfew law, or some legal enactment prohibiting children under 14 years of age from running the streets at large after 9 o'clock at night; also for a law restraining the cigarette evil.

Mark Hanna is reported to have announced that his McKinley administration will put its two feet down on trusts and corporations. But, what of the inducements he held out to the trusts and monopolies to win them to the support of his candidate?

THERE is one county where the people must be happy, since they held no election for President, having forgotten all about it. No election was held in Charlton county, Georgia, because the people there did not know a presidential election was to be held.

THE largest carpet mills in the world, located at Yonkers, N. Y., have shut down. The reason for this action, which throws 7,000 people out of employment, is declared to be that the revival of trade which was expected to result from a Republican victory has not materialized.

SOME reports have it that Gov. Hastings will be a member of the new cabinet as secretary of agriculture.

The latest cabinet slate as reported from Canton, reads thus: Secretary of state, Chauncey M. Depew, of New York.

Secretary of the treasury, Mark Hanna, of Ohio.

Secretary of war, Nelson A. Miles, of Ohio, or H. Clay Evans, of Tenn.

Secretary of the interior, ex-Chief Justice Williams.

Secretary of agriculture, Governor Hastings.

THE MAKE-UP OF THE CABINET.

Cabinet rumors are assuming a somewhat tangible shape, but of course have no authority to rest on save the guesser's estimate of probabilities and what he would be likely to do were he in the place of the president-elect.

which will have much to do with the success or marbling of the new administration. If Mr. Hanna wants the office no one questions he will get it. It is more a matter for his decision than Major McKinley's.

New England will naturally get a member of the cabinet, and either Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, or Proctor, of Vermont, are named, the latter for the State department, and Boutelle for the navy, by virtue of long years of experience on the naval committee of the house.

He would prefer, Senator Quay willing, to be a dearly-beloved colleague in the senate. It is somewhat mixed whether Pennsylvania will get a cabinet place. That smart politician, Paine, of Wisconsin, who was Hanna's great standby on the national committee, is said to be booked for postmaster-general.

The Gettysburg Compiler says that a prominent Republican of York, a man who is conversant with the questions of the day, has written a friend in Gettysburg the following since the election: "I am not a prophet, but unless relief is given to the country by a larger supply of money in the next four years the election in 1900 will deluge the Republican party."

There will be more idle labor the next four years than during the past four years. The single gold standard as it now exists is inhumanitarian, cold, cruel and selfish and illy adapted to our form of government.

"The only ones that will be benefited by its continuance are the holders of gold bearing bonds and investors of like securities."

This is a beautiful Thanksgiving. Weather quite mild again since beginning of the week.

Penn Hall is one of the few places that will not apply for a change of post-masters, as Fisher's suits all.

This being Thanksgiving, thanks to the Supreme Ruler for all his blessings—thanks to those who paid dues on Reporter upon our appeal.

Turkeys are bringing 8 cents per lb. live weight; dressed pork $4 per 100; choice apples 25 per bu.; select potatoes 20c per bu.; corn 25c per bu.

Down in Gregg some favor putting the post-office to C. P. Long's, of the City-on-the-Hill. Others will tug to keep it in the flat.

Thomas Evans, of Peale, attempted to commit suicide last Wednesday while stopping in Philipsburg.

Miss Burris, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with friends in this place.

Misses Annie and Elvie McClennahan, of Centre Hall, are spending a few days with their uncle, J. McClennahan.

BRUSH VALLEY.

Breezy News Items Gathered by Our Correspondent. Our constable, George Winters, was to Bellefonte last week.

Messrs. Perry Winters and Wash Frank came home last Saturday.

Squire Henry Moyer, of Rebersburg, left for Bellefonte Tuesday morning to attend court.

Mr. and Mrs. Womelsdorf, three miles east of Loganton, were the guests of Joseph Bierly near Rebersburg.

Mr. Breen, of Tyersville, is taking Corman's place at Rockville, in Superintendent Gramley's steam grist mill.

Prof. H. E. Bierly, of Rebersburg, left for Hubersburg last Monday morning, where he will teach the grammar school.

Mrs. Zeigler and Norman Muma, both of Dover, came to Rev. Muma's last Saturday evening, where they expect to spend part of the winter.

The golden saying which so magnetically clings to the tongues of our people is, "we are not in it, if we are not in the swim with the Millheim people."

We understand that about four persons are anxious to have the mail route between Rebersburg and Coburn. We are afraid if Charles will not continue to drive we will not soon get one who will fill his place and always be ready to do a favor; we are obliged to say that Charles has been, thus far, liked by all the people, and we would be sorry to lose him.

WOODWARD.

Peculiar Find Made by a Fishing Party that Created a Sensation.

J. C. Motz had business at Coburn on Tuesday.

The commercial travelers are plenty since the election. Daniel Bingham, of Middleburg, was in town on Tuesday evening.

Motz Bro's have their new steam saw mill nearly ready for operation.

Photographer J. E. Fiedler is very busy at his gallery; he turns out good work.

The water was drained out of the dam on Thursday and thousands of fish were caught.

John Snyder, formerly of this place, but now of Goway City, Pa., is here on a visit with friends and relatives.

L. D. Orndorf will remodel the old store room on the property he lately purchased, and will then move his store into it.

On Saturday the town people will put down a stone crossing between Wolfe's store and the hotel; a necessary improvement.

Robert Miller, who had been on the sick list is again up and around; Harper Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, attended to the mill during his sickness.

Dr. Mohr's flitting passed through here on his way from Centreville to Millheim, where he will become a practicing physician.

Knobloch and lever-wurst are plenty now as nearly every one is through with their butchering; Geo. Miller is the boss judge on porkers in this section.

Blacksmith Wm. Throstle was thrown from his horse on Friday evening and hurt his shoulder so that he is unable to do his work.

On Monday evening Philip S. Dale came to town on his pony, but when he was ready to return home his pony was missing, having broken his bridle.

One day last week as several men were fishing at a place known as the sink hole, below the dam, their lines caught on something heavy, and on drawing their lines there was attached to them a bundle containing five pair of pantaloons, several shirts, and stockings.

The hunters came home Saturday empty handed.

The people on our side of the valley are busy butchering; W. W. McCormick has promised every day for three weeks.

Mr. Cummings is shredding fodder for Ed. Allison; he has a good machine.

J. W. Smith has all his lumber out and expects to re-build this fall.

Miss Burris, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with friends in this place.

Miss Anna Moyer, of Tusseyville, was visiting in this place last week.
