What Our Correspondent from the Adjoining Town Gives Us.

The talk is that Rebersburg will have a Boston shoe store in the near future.

Abner Wolfe and wife, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting her parents, William Bairs, at Rebersburg.

We understand that our butcher, Abe Nearhood, expects to place a stave saw mill above Rockville.

The Esher side of the Ev. church at Rebersburg is having protracted meet ing, but no seekers at this writing, George Brungard and wife, of Rote, Clinton county, spent Saturday and Sunday with their Rebersburg friends. Burglars visited Klines store, at Madisonburg, on Sunday night and took about one hundred dollars worth of goods.

the wedding prophet related the other day when he traveled through Brush valley. "I always like to say something which interests the boys, since I always have been a great friend to all the boys who are not younger than sixteen. Now I have something that will especially interest the Brush val-ley boys, however, it might not meet the approbation of a few, but it will be very inspiring to all the rest. I only the boys who are not younger than very inspiring to all the rest. I only wish to inform the boys of a few wed-dings which will take place when the Christmas bells are almost ready to ring. If it would not be out of place, I would very cheerfully give the boys a few dates and names for fun, but since there is one among the number by the name of George, who can utilize the telephone very well on such occasions, I do not fear at all that they will be left in the dark too long, be-cause George has had considerable experience in this kind of work."
