

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Mrs. Flora Bairfoot left Wednesday morning for Philadelphia, where she will spend several weeks among friends.

Frank Crawford went down to Lewisburg Tuesday to attend court, being interested in a case pending there.

Mr. Dougherty, one of College township's active citizens and one of its efficient school directors, favored us with a call.

On Monday evening, at a meeting of the Varsity foot ball team, at Franklin & Marshall College, Sumner V. Hosterman was unanimously elected captain of next year's team.

Mr. L. E. Rossman, of Penn Hall, was in town Tuesday morning, and did not forget to make a short call at this office. He's one of the solid Democrats in his district and is always found on the right side.

D. G. Barr, of Manhattan, Ill., gave us a call, being here on a visit and intending to remain until spring, over at Colyer, his native home; he reports Centre county people in Illinois, doing well.

Were pleased to see Ira C. Mitchell, esq., after a serious illness, able to be about again and attend to his law practice, and in better health than for years. His hard work during the late campaign in behalf of the masses did much to prostrate him.

Philip Mersinger writes us from Joliet, Ill., Nov. 30: We are having quite cold weather the past 3 or 4 days. I am feeling very good; have just sold a piano, this made five in two weeks, also two organs, six sewing machines, myself without any of my men who did well too. All well.

CENTRE CO. HISTORY.—1819.

Singular Robbery.—Dale's the Victim. On Friday night, March 17, 1819, Henry Dale's house was robbed in a singular manner, the particulars of which we take from depositions taken before Judge Hasson.

Mr. Dale says, On that evening some person came near my house and hallooed. We were in bed, and got up and went to the door and asked what was the matter. He answered, Your son killed himself. I asked, How? He said he had his powder-horn, and it caught fire and tore him amazingly all to pieces; if you do not hurry, you will not see him alive. I put on my clothes and told him to come in, but he said he was in a great hurry. I told my son to come and we would ride over, and told my wife to come with the lantern to let us get the horses out. We rode over, saw no light, and my son Samuel said nothing was the matter. I was afraid some injury was intended, and we turned to go home. At the end of the lane I met my wife, my youngest son, and a girl that lives with me, and Lewis Longwell, coming with the lantern. They said they were going to see Samuel before he could die. I said nothing was the matter, but our house could be robbed. Longwell began to halloo, and we went around by the lane, and Longwell and the women went across the fields. I went into my room and found my chest broken open and the papers on the floor; searched but found no one, but found a window broken in. I took my rifle, put the dogs on the track which they took, and I fired my gun in that direction. Next morning I found a box and two pocket-books and about eighty dollars in money. There were four pocket-books taken. One had a ring in it and silver sleeve-buttons; another belonging to my son, had four silver dollars in it. There were 3 silver purses, one with $8 dollars in silver; another with small silver, seven or eight dollars; another with seven dollars in silver. The prisoner has been at my house twice, once with a horse and cart selling goods, staying from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Philona Dale testified. After my husband and son had started the person hallooed again. I went to the door, and the man was standing near the porch. He said he had met my husband, and he told him to come for the rest of the family; my son was just dying,—his arm blown off. I said I could not go away. He said he understood we had a girl in the house. I asked his name; he said it was Reynolds. I asked him in; he said he was in a hurry. I awakened up the girl, Longwell, and my youngest son, and we locked the house and started. I could not see the person's face well, but I thought on reflection it was the Yankee who stayed over night with us.

Cornelius Dale testified that Lewis Longwell, Leonard Stevens, and himself took the prisoner about two miles this side of Aaronsburg, at a smithshop opposite Keen's place. Longwell rode past him. He was walking inside of the fence. I told him I would shoot him if he did not give up, and he asked me if my name was Dale. He was wet up to the waistband. We took him to Esquire Beuck, who examined him. He gave his name as Nehemiah Higbee. He was committed, William McMinn, constable taking him to jail at Bellefonte, but he broke jail and never was heard of again.

terward, Lewis Longwell was a school teacher who boarded at Mr. Dale's.—Linn's history.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy, to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given entire satisfaction.—Olagah, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for colds and la grippe, we have never yet heard of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, J. H. For the most valuable contribution to the literature of the world since the production of the Great Work of the Great Thinkers, Famous Orators, Heroic and Scholarly, Wise Writers and INVESTIGATORS of the 19th Century. In all the ranges of literature there is not another book like

THE PEOPLE'S BIBLE HISTORY. In this book alone can be found the information sought by every Bible reader, whether old or young, scholarly or unlettered. It is, indeed, a great work. Recent discoveries in archeology have brought the world of today face to face with the men who lived, and acted, and wrote during the early periods covered by Biblical History. These discoveries have resulted in a triumphant vindication of the sacred volume from the charges brought against it by open foes and pretended friends. Every intelligent person will order the book, as the matter contained in it is of vital importance and cannot be found in any other book on earth. Write for descriptive and beautifully illustrated pamphlet circular. Address THE HENRY O. SHEPARD CO. 212-214 Monroe St. CHICAGO.

Weekly THE Monthly Outlook. Published every Saturday. 13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day, has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful talk about men and things; and in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment. Beginning with the fifty-sixth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturday—fifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures. The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day. Send for a specimen copy and illustrated prospectus to The Outlook, 13 Astor Place, New York City.
