CHRISTMAS.

To-morrow will be Christmas. Of all the holidays throughout the Christian world, whether on continent or isles of the sea, Christmas, the day of birth of the Savior, is looked forward to with greater interest and enjoyable expectation, than any other, or all holidays put together.

Christmas commemorates the greatest event since the Creation-an event so great, magnificent and triumphant that its equal will not be seen until the last Great Day when the departed will be summoned to arise from their sleep, and the King of Glory shall lead the Redeemed to the New Jerusalem, to abide with Him forever, where joy and happiness will endure forever, and pain and sorrow and sin shall not be known.

What is our 4th of July, our Washington's birth day, our Decoration day, compared with Christmas? Great and dear as these are to us, they are as nothing compared with the day we celebrate for the birth of the child Je-

Let this day be properly celebrated -with christian merriment, thankfulness for the greatest Gift that can be offered to man.

A Merry Christmas to all.

The Dingley tariff bill is dead, for this session at least. The Republicans have a majority but have no harmony.

IT seems now that the Cameron resolution recognizing the independence of Cuba will be defeated in the Senate.

IT will only be something over a week until Quay will try to elect his U. S. Senator. The people are to have SEVERAL Minnesota banks shut up shop this week. McKinley must have become tired of preventing this kind of disaster.

It is gratifying for us, with the closing of the year, to have letters from many patrons with kind words for the REPORTER. Thanks.

Mark Hanna is a new figure of six months standing on the Republican chess board, yet is a bigger boss than Quay, Platt and all the rest.

THE other day, when Chicago's biggest bank, with three or four smaller concerns, went under, McKinley was in the city at the time. Now why didn't "the advance agent" 'tend to his business and stop these banks from busting?

ALL are on tip-toe to see who will win in the red-hot Republican fight for U. S. Senator. Penrose is Quay's man; Wanamaker is the choice of the anti-combine Republicans and business men. At this hour it looks like a close race, and if Quay fails to land his man then the power of the boss is broken.

THE senate committee on foreign relations has unanimously agreed to report Cameron's resolution to recognize the independence of the Republic of Cuba. No action will be taken in the senate until after the holidays. It seems certain of passing the senate by an almost unanimous vote. It may not find so easy a passage in the house. If the resolution passes both houses and is signed by the President it may cause a war between our country and Spain. The administration is not very favorable, just now, to the resolution, and the President may veto it if it passes.

Don't Forget Him.

A comparatively new scheme for swindling farmers has turned up. The agent of a fictitious grocery house offers to exchange groceries for eggs. The farmer gives his note for whatever groceries he wants, agreeing verbally to pay for them in nice fresh hen fruit. The schemer in turn gives his note. The farmer's paper turns up at the local bank. He is compelled to pay for it but no groceries ever appear.

Will Baild

Perry Luse, who joined the ranks of the benedicts last week, will erect a handsome dwelling at the station just outside the boro limits. He has pnrchased a lot and just as soon as the winter breaks will start his house.
