-Clevan and Simon Dinges, formerly of this place, now two of Williamsport's active business men, while visisting here, didn't forget to favor our sanctum with a call.

-H. B. Herring, one of Penn Halls leading citizens, favored us with a pleasant call and put his label in line with the New Year; he reports the general health good down that way.

-Jacob Gephart, of near Rebersburg, gave us a call, and after a half an hour's pleasant chat, put on the cap sheaf by running his label out into '97. Health good down that way.

-Alfred Hosterman, of near Centre Hill, gave our sanctum a call, and was pleased to run his label up to '98, which is worthy of imitation. He reports health good over there.

-Mr. C. B. Poulson has removed his family to Centre Hall from Howard and now occupies his new home down street. He will make a good citizen and is the stripe that makes a town hum.

-In the REPORTER's article in the issue of Dec. 24th, quoting the number of teachers this vicinity has turned out, and are doing satisfactory work throughout the county, we omitted the names of Thomas Moore and John A. Heckman. Both young men are of the right stripe and will be heard from in later years.

-On Monday there was an outflow of students from Centre Hall who are taking courses at various institutions throughout several states. Sumner Hosterman, John Meyer and John Keller, went back to Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster; Miss Agnes Murray to the Buffalo school of Pharmacy, and Miss Romie Van Pelt to Wilson College at Chambersburg. They were all home to spend the holiday vacation.
