NOTHING was done in court on Saturday on the sheriff's contest. It is making fast headway slowly.

IT is not at all creditable to the commonwealth that the two quarrelling Republican factions have detectives at Harrisburg to watch each other in disputable methods.

WELL, how do you like it? Congressman Arnold, Rep., of this district the other day voted to give away 100 million dollars to the Pacific R. R. Co. The bill, however, didn't pass. Col. Spangler would have voted against it.

THERE is a cry being raised among the American people, "No more millionaires for the United States Senate." The Senate is filled with millionaires—men of dollars without brains—who buy their seats and enrich themselves by plundering the government, and legislating to foster trusts and monopolies. The cry is a good one.

At the Republican primaries in Lewisburg, last Thursday, a voter was required to have been straight the year before and make oath to it, otherwise not have been permitted to vote at the primaries. If the Democrats of our county were as strict as that—and should be—some could not vote for having been bolters and traders.

Senator Grady, of Philadelphia, an original Quay man, and who has a son named Matthew Stanley Quay Grady, is going to resign his seat in the State Senate because Quay opposed the appointment of a friend of Grady to a position at Harrisburg which made Grady mad. Now let Quay get mad too and resign his seat in the U. S. Senate and get even with his old friend Grady.

MORE shad are to be looked for the coming season, owing to the break in the Columbia dam, which permits the shad to go up the river, hence there will be a revival in shad fishing at upper points this spring. Shad in paying quantities have not been caught above the Columbia dam for 50 years. Now, the outlook is so promising that efforts to catch shad will be made at all favorable points, from Columbia to the Juniata.

Two Williamsport lawyers, Strieby and Edwards, while trying a case one day last week got into a regular knock down fist fight, on account of abusive words that passed between them. Attorneys that know little law often use abuse of witnesses and clients to make up for it, all of which they have no right to do. If, every time an ungentlemanly lawyer is guilty of such low conduct, he would get his eyes blackened, it would serve the brute right.

THE ministers of New York in the past two Sundays have been preaching against the extravagance and display of wealth made by the rich in balls and at feasting entertainments. These exhibitions of wealth are likely to call up in the poorer classes jealousies and enmities against those who seem to be getting all while the large majority get barely enough to live. This evil may yet prove the downfall of the Republic. Rome's downfall was from similar causes.

In order to ascertain where a shortage of $200 is to be found the government has already expended upwards of one hundred thousand dollars. There are one hundred men whose line of duty falls in the way of the money's mysterious disappearance. A few years ago more than two hundred dollars was spent to find a five cent piece, that was found at last in a crevice on the floor of the Treasury building. But Uncle Sam is exact, and if a piece of money disappears it is certainly the best policy to trace it, regardless of the expense that may be incurred. To misapply Uncle Sam's funds is a dangerous business, as detection is almost a certainty.

The board of health of New York has formally declared tuberculosis, or consumption to be an infectious or communicable disease, a danger to the public health, and physicians in private practice and heads of hospitals and other such institutions, whether private or public, are required hereafter to report all cases of this disease, and violation to do so will be punished as a misdemeanor. Under the sanitary code provision must be made for the treatment of the disease among the poor in hospitals. Medical science declares that the disease, being communicable, is therefore preventable. It is set forth that the mortality from consumption in New York has decreased in the past 25 years 50 per cent.

but it still has a strong hold, and it is time to take more radical measures in the way of prevention.

THERE is great suffering among the poor of the great cities, but especially in Chicago. The poor in Centre county, and of the rural districts, live well compared with the poor of the cities. It is reported that in Chicago about 10,000 families are in a starving condition. Many are huddled in attics and their sufferings have been increased by the freezing temperature that has marked the advent of the terrific blizzard. Thousands of persons are appealing for food and fuel, and many are dying from actual want.

Chicago is filled with barefooted children, that skilled workmen are getting desperate for coal and that the physicians in the poor sections are signing certificates of death from starvation. The preachers were called upon to keep open their churches six days in a week, that the philanthropists and Christians may stop the scourge of hunger.

In New York an effort will be made to pass a law for a graded tax upon the millionaires, so as to lessen the burdens upon the masses from whom the millionaires filch their millions. This would seem right, and it would not burden the millionaires, they would not feel an extra tax at all, while the millions of toilers would feel the relief it brot them. The immensely wealthy are not bearing their fair share of taxation, yet have more property protected for less money than the masses comparatively. Legislation in the past fifteen years has been in the direction of making millions for the few and oppressing the toilers. It is time to cry a halt, otherwise the day will come when endurance of wrong will cease to be a virtue. Now is the time to begin legislating for the millions of toiling masses—the 300 millionaires are in shape to take care of themselves. Let New York start the ball to reach the millionaires.

EDITORIAL NOTES. President elect McKinley has told members of congress that he would call an extra session of congress to convene March 15. The new President has not yet for a certainty got his cabinet made up, except Sherman for the State Dept.

Ohio Republicans are on the eve of busting over a successor for Sherman's seat in the senate. Boss Hanna wants it and is backed by McKinley. Senator Foraker and Gov. Bushnell swear Hanna shall not have it; they want Charles L. Kurtz or Bushnell. The hot blood is running out into other states and is giving "the advance agent of prosperity" sleepless nights.

When full reports of the late blizzard are obtained from the north west, it is feared the account will be awful of lives lost and cattle frozen.

When men constantly plot to defeat regular nominees for local offices to elect Republicans, it is a move full of harm to the Democratic organization and such schemers should not expect to have their party to support them when they have the impudence to ask for an office, after having proven to be nothing else than assistant Republicans. Republicans are not to blame—they may well feel glad to reap the benefits of such treachery as it serves to build up their party.

Oldest Lutheran Minister Dead. Rev. Nicholas J. Stroh, who ministered among Lutherans in Mifflin county back in the early Twenties, and became pastor in Lewistown in 1825 or '24, being the first resident pastor of this charge, during whose pastorate the first church was dedicated, died Jan. 1st at his home in Mt. Morris, Ill., where he had resided since 1845.

Father Stroh was born at Halifax, in Dauphin county, Pa., May 5, 1798, and had his life been prolonged until the coming May would have reached the remarkable age of 99 years. His wife died two years ago. His life was a long and useful one and ended with the blessed word "rest."—Free Press.

Proving Interesting. The short courses in agriculture at the State College have opened very successfully, fifty two students being in attendance, thirty nine of them in the creamery course and thirteen in the horticulture.

BRUSH VALLEY.

The Caucus for Nominating Officers Was Well Attended.

It seems all our Brush valley people are taking advantage of the snow by taking sleigh rides; the saying which makes itself most prominent for the last four days is "golly, but that is cold."

Last Saturday quite a number were at the caucus, the people at least some, could not be kept out of town in spite of the unfavorable weather, the word "election" seems to have a peculiar magnetism.

Charles Smull, of Smithtown, was at Rebersburg Saturday. James Gramley, of Rebersburg, was in Nittany last Friday on business.

We understand there will be another hotel in Rebersburg by next spring; we hope this is a real fact.

John Smull, of Rebersburg, who was in Union county with his daughter Alice for three weeks, came home last Wednesday with a pleasant smile.

Prof. H. E. Bierly, who is teaching the Hublersburg grammar school, was at home over Sunday.

Miss Ida Smull, of Chicago, is visiting her old friends at Rebersburg; she will spend part of the winter at her native home.

Albert Steininger, of near Laurelton, Union county, moved his family to Rebersburg, into Wm. Walker's house last Thursday.

Stewart Weber and family, of near Milesburg, were home over Sunday.

Most of our people have filled their ice houses.

COBURN.

Result of the Caucus for Nominating Officers for Penn Twp.

Miss Blanche Bowersox, who is making her home with Dr. Frank, at Millheim, was at home on Sunday on a visit to her parents.

Miss Mamie Garthoff visited friends at Rebersburg over Sunday.

Forest Harter, of Farmers Mills, and a lady friend spent part of Sunday under the parental roof.

N. F. Braucht our obliging clerk at the station wears a broad smile, and says it's a boy.

P. H. Stover has so far recovered that he was able to come down stairs last Saturday and sit on a chair.

Samuel Ard and James E. Harter are among the sick at this place.

The coal dealers are happy in consequence of the continued cold snap.

Persons having ice houses to fill are taking advantage of the ice on the dam which is of superior quality.

Dr. Baker's chimney was burning the other morning at 2 o'clock a. m. some one was passing that way and cried out "fire," which caused quite an excitement for some time among the residents of that portion of the town, until they discovered that there was no danger.

The caucus for nominating officers for Penn township, was held in the school building on Saturday afternoon and resulted as follows:

Judge of Election, C. Alexander; Inspector, John Hoffa, Jr.; School Directors, G. M. Bower, B. Wingard; Supervisors, A. W. Ulrich, Jacob Sanders; Overseer of Poor, B. F. Frankenberg; Tax Collector, James E. Harter; Justice of the Peace, J. F. Garthoff; Auditor, W. E. Braucht; Town Clerk, A. L. Auman.

Result of the Republican caucus held Friday evening, Jan. 22, at the office of Luther Gusewite: Judge of Election, T. B. Motz; Inspector, Isaiah Walter; School Directors, Henry Wingard, Henry C. Kling; Supervisors, John Martin, R. H. Hackenberg; Overseer of Poor, T. W. Hosterman; Tax Collector, Levi Spigelmyer; Justice of the Peace, R. F. Vonada; Auditor, J. E. Kooney; Town Clerk, James A. Kooney.

OAK HALL.

Items of Interest From Our Neighboring Town.

The weather here was four degrees below zero on Monday morning and on Tuesday about two degrees below.

Prof. Philip Meyer returned home on Wednesday from over the mountains where he was holding a musical convention.

Mr. J. G. Irvni and E. B. Peters of this place were jurors at this session of court.

The young folks of the Lemont school, made a call on our school, last Friday to hear the recitations. The Friday before they came too late. Come again boys and girls.

Mr. Wm. Sellers is loading another car of paper wood, call on him for a solid bob sled.

There was a sled load of young people from this place left on Wednesday evening to make a call on the family of James Searson at Linden Hall, they reported a pleasant time.

The ice teams are busy hauling ice from the dam of John Rupp, the ice is no less than eight or nine inches thick.

Our end of the township is well blest with candidates for spring election, there are five from this end, Jho. A. Rupp for treasurer, W. H. Close for Justice, C. J. Stamm and Jacob Klingler for Inspector and E. B. Peters for Supervisor. We hope they may all be elected.

Ira Korman made a business trip to Centre Hall on Wednesday.

INCOME ACCOUNT OF RAILWAYS.

Interesting Figures Furnished by the Interstate Commerce Commission Report.

CHICAGO, January 25.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued its report on the income account of the railways of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1896. The total gross earnings of the roads of the country were $1,126,646,562. This was at the rate of $6,519 per mile, and was a better showing than in 1895 or 1894, although it falls below the record for the two years preceding 1894. Operating expenses were $754,791,515, or $4,380 per mile. Of the amount of gross earnings, $323,468,891 was by the passenger departments, $772,071,574 by freight, $280,129 other earnings from operation and the balance unclassified earnings. Dividends paid were $54,983,732, against $54,332,356 the preceding year.

The net earnings of the roads were not in any degree confined to any particular section of the country, but were fairly well distributed all over the United States.

THE GREAT BLIZZARD.

The great blizzard has caused much suffering in the west among persons and live stock.

The thermometer at various points registered as follows: In Iowa 13 below zero; in Nebraska 12 below; in North Dakota 32 below; in Cleveland 4 below; in Altoona 4 below.

In Chicago it was the coldest day in twenty-five years, and 53 persons were listed as overcome by the bitter cold in that city, who were rescued in a fairly frozen condition.

In the region around St. Paul 25 degrees below zero was reported, and in some sections traffic by railroad has been blocked.

AN AWFUL PLUNGE TO DEATH.

Sad Fate of An Engaged Couple While Driving on Sunday.

Sunday, Fred Graeber and Miss Maud Gotlie, of Shamokin, drove over to Numidia to visit friends. On their way home about 7 o'clock in the evening and within a mile and a half from the limits of Shamokin, the road suddenly caved in and the parties with the team dropped into an old mine working to the depth of about twenty-five or thirty feet. Miss Gotlie not reaching home by 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, her mother became alarmed and feeling convinced that an accident had happened, called her son, Joseph and he with a companion with a team to search for the missing couple. Driving up Sunbury street they started on what is called the new road toward Numidia. About a mile and one half from the borough line the team stopped suddenly. The men jumped out and found a hole about forty feet in diameter in the road. Graber heard them and calling to them told that he and Miss Gotlie were in the hole, badly hurt and the lady and team dead. They were directed to go for ropes and assistance. This they did and about 5 o'clock Graeber was taken out. One leg was broken and he was so badly hurt it is possible that he will not recover. About 8 o'clock Miss Gotlie was found dead under about fifteen inches of dirt. The parties were to have been married some time next month and were among the best people in Shamokin. Miss Gotlie is a sister of Mrs. E. E. Smink, of Sixth street, this city.
