

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Subscribe for the REPORTER, $1.50 —"Skip" Smith went to Madisonburg Monday to remain some time.

—Miss Sallie McClenahan is home after about two months absence in Bellefonte.

—Miss Amanda Haines, of Woodward, was the guest of her friend Miss Mame Kremer last week.

—Henry Stoner, one of Tusseyville's good citizens and sound Democrats, was a caller at this office a few days ago.

—Mrs. Samuel Rowe and children were visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stump, at Tusseyville, the last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Krader, from Gregg twp., gave our sanctum a call while in town transacting business a few days ago.

—Samuel K. Foust, the Spring Bank carriage maker, was in town Saturday last, returning home from a trip selling sleighs.

—Mrs. Amanda Fisher and son Charley, and Miss Sallie Keller, of Boalsburg, visited at the home of J. B. Kremer on Monday.

—Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hill, was down on Friday evening the cold. He is an occasional visitor down here, and his friends are plenty.

—Will Bitner, of Tusseyville, one of the REPORTER'S good and prompt patrons, was in town a few days ago, and made his usual call at this office.

—Sam'l Ertel, of Gregg, gave us a call along with some stamps. He believes if the Trusts were blotted out farmers would get higher prices for all their products.

—Henry Moyer and Jacob F. Royer, of near Tusseyville, gave us a call during last Thursday's blizzard; they didn't have "a brick in their hats" as some do when it cold but they had a warm brick under their feet.

—E. M. Huyett, now of Wernersville, Pa., came up yesterday morning for a day, transacting some business. He has a big lumber deal under way and it is probable he will move back to Centre Hall again this spring. He is looking the picture of health.

—John Garver came back east a few days ago, and is now making his home with his brother Anthony, west of town. John went to Nebraska about a year or so ago, but finds the climate of Penns valley more congenial to him, and he proposes to stay here.

—Ed. Kerlin, who broke his thigh bone at Lemont about two months ago where he was teaching school, is out and around. The bone healed rapidly and he is locomoting with the aid of crutches. It will be some time before he recovers the full use of his limb.

—Wm. Lohr and daughter Annie have returned from a four week's visit to relatives in Clinton county. He will make sale of his household effects and with his daughter make their future home with his son-in-law, Joseph Lutz, at Lewisburg. Mr. Lohr was an estimable citizen and we regret to lose him.

—Ex-commissioner Geo. L. Goodhart favored our sanctum with a call, a few days ago, and feels like a bird free of its cage. George goes back to active life on the farm with cheerfulness and a consciousness that he served six years as commissioner with fidelity to the interests of the county.

TRIED TO BLOW UP A BANK.

Depositors Wreak Vengeance on One of Holidaysburg's Broken Institutions.

Holidaysburg, Feb. 1.—A terrific explosion occurred here last night in an attempt to destroy with dynamite the banking house of Gardner, Morrow & Co. The bank was soon surrounded by a crowd of excited men and women. The bank door had been torn from its fastenings and hurled to the rear of the room, the flooring had been partially destroyed, bricks loosened and not a whole pane of glass was left. No damage was done to the vault. The glass in all the stores and residences on the square were completely shattered. The buildings that sustained the greatest damage were the First national bank, Frank Glessner's general merchandise store, and the residence of Charles Vowkel, Major S. S. Barr and Dr. J. R. Humes, H. M. Henshey and Edward Nickodemus, who roomed next door to the bank, were shaken out of their beds by the force of the explosion.

The crime was committed by tearing out the framework about the bank door and inserting dynamite. There is no clue to the perpetrators. It is believed that the crime is due to the revengeful conduct of depositors. Last September the bank failed, and the statement of its condition made a few weeks ago in court indicates that it was in an insolvent condition for many years. Its assets are only sufficient to pay between fifteen and twenty cents on the dollar.

HENRY EMERICK.

AWAY BACK.

Interesting Local Incidents of Co. History.

1818. A mail-stage ran between Northumberland and Bellefonte; fare four dollars and fifty cents. It left Northumberland every Friday at 5 a. m. Passengers breakfasted at L. B. Stoughton's, at Lewisburg, and arrived at Jacob Maize's, in Millinburg, for dinner; at Henry Roush's (Narrows) about four, and at W. Brown's, at Aaronsburg, at 6 p. m. Left Aaronsburg at seven o'clock Saturday morning, got to Earleystown for dinner, and arrived at John Rankin's, at Bellefonte, at 4 p. m. Left Bellefonte every Monday morning at five, breakfasted at Earleystown, and arrived at Aaronsburg for dinner, etc.

The inconveniences of travel in 1834 will appear by statement of schedule of Colders & Wilson, mail contractors. Passengers left Bellefonte at 10 o'clock in the evening, traveling all night over the Seven Mountains, reached Lewistown at seven o'clock in the morning, where they remained until twelve o'clock, waiting the Huntingdon stage.

1833. On Wednesday morning, November 13th, about five o'clock, occurred the "rain of fire," or phenomenon of "shooting stars." The most brilliant coruscations spread over every quarter of the heavens. From the zenith to the horizon all was bespangled with shooting stars or meteors. The phenomenon was attended at first with a crepitating or hurdling sound, which ceased at the approach of dawn, and the spectacle exhibited its splendors in silence. People imagined their houses on fire, and rushed out only to behold the heavens sprinkled with glories,—thousands of shooting stars going in a northwest direction, leaving brilliant tracks behind.

1847. In December occurred the failure of James and John Potter, and on the 7th and 8th of December they confessed judgments upon their individual liabilities alone for $107,435, and on firm liabilities with John Sterrett judgments were entered to the amount of $155,000.

The judgments, with the exception of William Allison's of $15,421, and Gen. Simon Cameron's, $4769, were confessed with a stay of execution of one year. The personal property was sold upon Mr. Allison's execution, December 20th. The real estate, consisting of stone grist-mill, Old Fort property, etc., woolen factory, houses, store, tavern, etc., at Potters Mills, the red mill, Irvin stone grist-mill, Old Fort property, etc., came under the hammer of the sheriff April 23, 1849.

THE FIRST FLOW OF GAS.

A Pocket Struck in Gallagher Township at a Depth of 1,300 Feet.

Mr. Callahan drove in from Gallagher township this forenoon and brought encouraging news from the oil and gas well. The drill yesterday, he states, had reached the depth of over 1,300 feet and some time during the day a pocket of gas was struck. One of the men employed at the well was up in the derrick adjusting some of the machinery at the time. He descended hastily and the lights and fire about the place were all extinguished as speedily as possible. In a short time the flow ceased and drilling was resumed.—Lock Haven Express, 28th.
