PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

——Ed. Kerlin says he will be able to take charge of his school at Lemont in a week or two.

——Fergus Potter, one of Harris township's representative citizens, was in town Monday.

——Mrs. Stein, of Bellefonte, was the guest at the home of J. B. Kreamer several days this week.

——Miss Stump, from near Plumgrove, was a pleasant caller and set her mother's Reporter label out into '97.

—Supt. Gramley and Mrs. Gramley, of Rebersburg, were visiting at the home of Mr. Simon Harper on Monday and Tuesday.

——Will Curry, of near Centre Hill, was in to see us a few days ago. He will leave the D. L. Kerr farm and move on the Osman farm west of town.

——B. F. Yearick, for a number of years tenant on Kurtz's farm near this place, this spring will move on a farm three miles beyond Salona. He is an excellent citizen.

——Miss Mame Kreamer leaves today for Hartleton, where she will be a bridesmaid for her friend Miss Mazie Pellman, whose wedding to a Mr Glover occurs tonight.

——Ex-landlord Bartges is making extensive preparations for farming in the spring. He is sporting a big heavy team of blacks, a recent purchase, and they are dandies.

——Ira C. Korman, of Oak Hall, was down to Centre Hall yesterday on a business trip. Mr. Korman is quite an extensive dealer in farm implements, and along with it has been in charge of the grain house at that place. He is a live young man and does a big buisness.

——Howard Homan, our former townsman, now located in Williamsport, came up on Monday on a visit among his old friends. He says he likes the Lumber City and for the present has no intention of locating elsewhere.

——Chas. Long, Spring Mills' hustling merchant, was in town on Monday. He has opened a large store at Northumbsrland, and in connection with his store at Spring Mills and State College has enough to keep him out of mischief.

——Mr. Ira Sigler, of Mifflin county, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Samuel Crotzer, east of town. An important event is billed to take place in Mr. Crotzer's family in a week or two in which Mr. Sigler will figure prominently. The REPORTER will give particulars later.

——Henry Moyer and son William, of Tusseyville, were pleasant callers at this office a few days ago. Mr. Moyer will have a large sale of his farm stock and implements on March 19, and intends quitting farming for once. He has occupied the farm of Daniel Fleisher for about eighteen years. Such tenants as he are exceedingly rare these days.

COBURN.

A Breezy Letter from Our Correspondent Down the Valley.

Reuben Royer transacted business at Laurelton Monday.

A. J. Campbell came home on Saturday and remained over the election.

K. H. Stover and lady friend attended the concert at Madisonburg last Friday evening.

Mrs. Hulda Ripka, of Linden Hall, spent a few days last week visiting friends at this place.

Emanuel Garbrick and daughter Olie, of Zion, were visiting friends at this place on Sunday.

E. H. Musser and family, of Woodward, were visiting at the home of T. W. Hosterman on Sunday.

Ed. Bower and wife, of Haines township, were royally entertained by the family of J. H. Bowersox, on last Sunday.

The protracted meeting in the Evangelical church continues with unabated interest; the church is crowded every evening with worshipers and spectators.

A. F. Harter, of Millheim, has his shingle mill in operation, on the old saw mill owned by the Kerstetter estate at this place. M. M. Harback does the sawing, and knows how to handle it; he is an old veteran at the business.

W. H. Meyer, of this place, expects to become a citizen of Centre Hall after April 1st, he having purchased a property at that place, near the station; we are all sorry to see him go, but what will be our loss will be Centre Hall's gain.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—Geo. E. Wolfe, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla. Sold by S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, J. H. Ross, Linden Hall, Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.

The Fence Law.

The opinion handed down one day last week by Judge Savidge, of Sunbury, interpreting the fence law, is of interest to every farmer in the state. A woman had brought suit against a neighbor for damage to her corn by his cattle. Judge Savidge charged that the law formerly required a man to fence against his neighbor's cattle but now under the statute every man must fence against his own cattle, and this he must do at all hazards, no matter if it takes a fence ten feet high. If one's cattle get out and do damage to his neighbor the owner of the cattle is liable for the damage done, unless it can be shown the cattle were let out by a tresspasser, in which case the party damaged would proceed against the wrong-doer.

Fighting Tuberculosis.

Dr. Walter, veterinary surgeon, has held a consultation with State Veternarian Pearson as to the best means to stamp out tuberculosis in cattle. To examine all the cattle in the State with the tuberculosis test would cost over five millions of dollars, and another plan was devised by which an outward test will be made at a total cost of about $60,000. A bill, however, will be presented to the present Legislature providing that no cattle diseased in any way shall be imported in this State.

Ask Your Patronage.

Frank Arney and Ollie Stover wish to inform the public that they have received a sample book of wall paper from a Chicago Wall Paper mill, from which they expect to sell paper at such prices that will surprise their patrons; further, that they intend carrying on the painting business as last season, doing all kinds of work in painting and paper hanging.

For Sale.

The Harpster property now occupied by D. J. Meyer, will be offered at private sale. It is desirably located, and has good dwelling house, stable, and other necessary outbuildings, along with a large building now occupied by A. J. Reesman's stove and tin store. The property will be offered at a bargain. Address

JOHN S. HARPSTER,

—Lewins, Bellefonte, can give you an up-to-date equipment of clothing for less money than any other store in the country. Try him and see.

How Is It Possible?

You can't see how mince meat, as good as any made at home, can be sold for 10 cents a package (enough for 2 large pies)?

The Reason's Plain.

Many carloads of the materials for None Such Mince Meat are bought at one time, at first hands. All the paring, chopping, seeding, stemming and cleaning are done by perfected machinery. Such immense quantities are sold that a mite of profit on each package of is enough. All grocers sell it. Be sure and get the genuine.

Send your name and address and mention this paper, and we will mail you free a book, "Mrs. Popkins' Thanksgiving," by one of the most popular humorous authors of the day.
