The Sheriff Contest.

Sheriff Cronister is still Sheriff Cronister; and Abe Miller isn't Sheriff Miller but still Abe Miller. The contest turned out to be a farce built upon swearing to charges that were utterly unfounded, and for which Mr. Miller was not responsible, but he was led into on the deceptive salted gold mine plan. The idea did not originate with him, but the job was set up by fellows out of a job, who dazzled his vision by affidavits founded on very bad wind.

There are 124 disputed ballots upon which Judge Love will have to pass an opinion as to their legality; this is likely to come before him in a few weeks; upon each of these ballots the lawyers may mean to argue before His Honor, and this may take weeks. Then either party can carry it to the Supreme Court. But, we think the end is nigh with all the odds in favor of Cronister.

Gallant Soldier Dead.

Col. John Irvin died suddenly on 22 at his home in Curwinstown. He was in the mercantile business a number of years.

Col. Irvin organized Co. B. 149 P. V. Infantry, and was elected its captain. He became major of his regiment in 1863. He was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg and for a short time was a prisoner; he afterwards became lieutenant colonel, and then colonel.

His regiment was known as the "New Bucktails" to distinguish it from the 42 reg., or "Old Bucktails." He was never married, but left to survive him a sister. He was an uncle of the wife of Judge George B. Orlady.

The Sick List.

Our esteemed farmer friend, Joshua T. Potter, was seriously ill some two weeks but is able to be about again; over-exertion was the cause of his being laid up.

Mrs. George Reish, living a short distance west of here, was quite ill recently.

Mrs. Houser, west of this place, is ill and confined to her bed.

After Spring Styles.

Miss Ida Lamer, head trimmer in the Millinery department of the Globe, Bellefonte, left Monday for New York City to get the latest styles in Hats and Bonnets for Spring.

Lewins, Bellefonte, can give you an up-to-date equipment of clothing for less money than any other store in the country. Try him and see.

A RESPECTED CITIZEN DEAD.

Mr. George P. Rearick Succumbs on Last Friday Morning.

Mr. George P. Rearick, one of Gregg township's most highly respected and estimable citizens, died last Friday morning at his residence on the farm about one mile west of Spring Mills, at the age of 66 years, 11 months and 11 days.

Mr. Rearick's illness was of about four months' duration, and the cause of his death was an ulceration or catarrh of the stomach. In its early stages there was little apprehension on the part of the family that the ailment would prove serious, and they were in hopes that medical skill would finally triumph. Mr. Rearick's condition gradually grew worse instead of better. During all his suffering he bore it bravely.

He was able to be about, and it was only about ten or twelve days before his death that he was compelled to take to his bed. He was fully aware of his approaching end and arranged his affairs as he desired them conducted after he had departed from this world of cares. Consciousness did not desert him until near the end, and his death was calm and peaceful.

The funeral took place on Monday morning from his late residence. Interment was made in the cemetery at Centre Hill. Rev. Christine, of the Presbyterian church, officiated in the services. The funeral was very largely attended, and a large concourse of friends paid their last tribute to one who was true and always honored among them.

Mr. Rearick was a member of the Presbyterian church, uniting with that body about forty years ago. For about fifteen years he was an elder in the church, and always contributed liberally to its maintenance. Politically he was of the Republican faith, but his views were never offensive to those of opposite parties.

Mr. Rearick was the father of eleven children, seven of whom with the mother survive him. The surviving ones are, W. O. Rearick, Centre Hall; David H. Rearick, Farmers Mills; Mrs. Ida Moyer, Cleveland, Ohio; John, Jesse, Le Roy, and Savilla, being at home on the farm with the parents. A daughter, Miss Mollie, died in Cleveland, Ohio, over a year ago, where she was visiting her sister.

Hogus Coins in Bellefonte

For several days Bellefonte has been flooded with counterfeit money. All attempts to trace the origin of the spurious coins have proven futile, and many of the merchants have been swindled out of considerable money. The counterfeits are mainly 5, 10 and 50 cent pieces. The latter are the most numerous and are also the best made. They are of the date of "1894," and are so perfectly made that they can be detected. It is thought that the coins are manufactured by a gang of counterfeiters who are located somewhere in that locality.

Has a Big Petition.

Korman Spicher, who is setting a fast pace for the postmastership of the boro, has secured a large number of signers to his petition and is of the opinion that if signers count for anything, he's got the plum. The young man resides outside the boro, and his list includes nearly all the patrons outside the limits. Meanwhile Andy Reesman and Burgess Brisbin are lying quiet and sawing wood, doubtless thinking that when the time is ripe for plucking they will be right under it.

His Farewell.

Next Sunday Rev. Goodling, pastor of the United Evangelical church, will preach his farewell sermon. He will leave for conference next week, and having served the full time allowed any minister of his church at one place, he will be appointed to another charge. To what point he will be assigned he has not the faintest idea.

A Large Sale.

The public sale of March 18, of Samuel Durst, one mile west of the Old Fort, will be one of the largest in the valley this season. He has a very large stock of horses, cattle, and farm implements, and the property is all in first-class condition. The sale begins at nine o'clock in the morning.

A New Dress.

The semi-weekly Phillipsburg Ledger came out in its last issue with a new dress and its natty appearance is commendatory. The Ledger is one of our most interesting exchanges and is edited in a bright and spicy manner.

Larger Than Ever.

Mr. A. Katz, of the Globe Store, Bellefonte, left Monday for the Eastern markets. Mr. Katz tells us he intends to carry a larger stock and a better selection than ever for the coming season.

Rev. Rearick's Appointments.

Sunday, Feb. 28, at Centre Hall, 10 a. m.; at St. John's, 2 p. m.; at Georgetown, 7 p. m.

—When you can buy good qualities at the same prices others ask for shoddy clothing, you will be quick to take advantage of the opportunity. Lewins, Bellefonte, can prove this to you.

CHURCH RE-DEDICATION.

Impressive Ceremonies in the Lutheran Edifice at Rebersburg.

The Lutheran church at Rebersburg was re-dedicated last Sunday morning, and the services were very largely attended from all parts of both Brush and Penna valleys.

The building is of brick and is a handsome and substantial structure. It was erected in 1876, and of late it became necessary that repairs should be made. An architect submitted designs and the proposed changes met with the approval of the congregation. The repairs cost nearly $2000. Of this sum about $200 remained unpaid on last Sunday morning. The amount was easily raised and about $100 besides. The edifice is very beautiful. Its interior received many changes and touches that are pleasing to the eye. There is one large stained glass memorial window that was recently placed. It was the gift of Mr. Henry Gast, of Millinburg.

Rev. E. J. Wolf, of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, delivered the dedicatory sermon. It was an impressive discourse.

The choir under the leadership of Co. Supt. Gramley rendered delightful music during the services. There were present a number of ministers of the different denominations in both valleys, who nearly all participated in the services. Rev. Muma is the pastor of the congregation and his labors were for the good of the congregation. In the afternoon a children's meeting was held, and in the evening Rev. Wolf again filled the pulpit.

Death of Mrs. Rishel.

Catherine, widow of Col. John Rishel, died at the old homestead, now occupied by her son, M. L. Rishel, Esq., near Farmers Mills, on Thursday morning, 18th. A good old mother has thus gone to her long home, and a mansion there awaited her coming. Her life in this world gave her a title clear to a mansion "in my Father's house."

Her life was well spent in devotion to the cause of Christ, to her family and in deeds of kindness and good will to her neighbors. Faith and hope ever abided within her, and such always die happy.

Funeral on Saturday morning was very largely attended. Her age was 80 years.

"Till the day break,
Here let her be;
Then shall she wake
Glorious and free,
For Thy dear sake,
Like unto Thee!
She shall do well!"

Will be Attractive.

Druggist Murray has started his aquarium in the south window of his drug store, and the entire window will be taken up with this attractive feature. He will erect a large glass tank about four feet long and two feet wide, in which will be placed gold fish, trout and other pretty species of the finny tribe. The window will be built up with moss covered stone, with growing fern and plants found along a mountain stream, and a more interesting exhibit will be hard to find. A small fountain will be constantly playing in the aquarium to keep fresh water for the fish.

An Increase of One.

Twenty-nine persons in this county have filed their applications for "tavern licenses." This is one more than was filed last year, the new applicant being O. G. Stover of Eagleville, who has been keeping a temperance hotel in that place for several years past. Applications for two distilleries, one brewery, and eight wholesale beer houses have been filed.

Death of Mrs. Larimer.

Mrs. Rachel Larimer, of Bellefonte, died at the home of her son Rush in that place Tuesday 16th, in her 79th year. Her husband, late associate judge J. G. Larimer, died fifteen years since on the same day of the year and within fifteen minutes of the same hour at which his wife breathed her last.

An Approaching Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Croizer, a short distance east of town have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Henrietta Jane to Mr. Ira H. Sigler, of Milroy. The wedding will take place on Wednesday evening, March 10th, and a large number of guests are expected to be present.

Increase in Membership.

The holy sacrament was administered in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning. Rev. Christine has concluded a two weeks course of services in the church here and his discourses were strong and emphatic. He received five new members into the church on Sunday.

Must Notify the Prothonotary.

All justices of the peace in the county elected last Tuesday must file with the Prothonotary within thirty days after the election their intention of lifting their commission.

—You certainly need a new equipment of underwear or a good dress suit. Call at Lewins, Bellefonte, and you will appreciate what he has in that line.

MILL BURNED.

The Campbell, now Weaver Grist Mill, at Millheim, Burned.

The roller mill at the Millheim narrows, known as Campbell's mill, now owned by W. H. Weaver, was burned last night.

The fire started between 12 and 1 o'clock. Origin of fire not known.

The loss is estimated at $3000, on which there is $1500 insurance in the Penn's Valley Company.

The mill with all its contents was destroyed; it stood right on the banks of Elk creek.

It was an old landmark, and in early years known as Hubler's Clover mill. After Elisha Campbell bought the property he converted it into a burr flouring mill. In the spring of the Johnstown flood, when the lower end of Millheim was washed away, this mill was twisted from its foundations by the flood and almost wrecked. Mr. Campbell had it fixed on its proper place again, and subsequently changed to the roller system. It was run by water power.

Buildings to go Up.

George Ocker recently purchased a corner lot near the station from D. Fleisher, and it is likely he will erect a dwelling on it during the coming year. George recently sold his handsome residence and is not inclined to leave town. Perry Luse is at work putting up his new home just outside the boro line. He will put it up as fast as he can.

Clem Luse is hustling his new dwelling up as fast as possible, that he will have a roof over his head after April 1st.

The rear addition to the M. E. church will be occupied by a family for the next year. The town is so much in need of dwellings that even the churches are pressed into service.

The large hall above Kremer & Son's store will be converted into rooms for the occupancy of Sam Kremer's family. The Lohr house in which Samuel resides will be occupied by J. B. Kremer, and this good citizen will stay with us for another year.

The Grange will likely start their new hall, which they propose erecting some time this year. They have purchased a lot below Kerlin's, and intend putting up a building that will be a credit to the town.

Wm. Colyer intends erecting another dwelling on Hoffer street. He has not enough room to accommodate his employees.

Charley Arney will remodel the building now occupied by Swarm's wagon shop, and arrange it for a dwelling. He will also put a stable on the lot.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued the past week:

Samuel Homan, of Phillipsburg, and Almada Moore, of Port Matilda. Joseph W. Meyers, of Huston, and R. J. Williamson, of Blue Ball.

Wallace J. Walker, of Wolf's Store, and Getura Long, of Rebersburg. Daniel J. Benner and Annie R. Orndorf, both of Woodlawn.

J. Edward Rider and E. C. Strayer, both of Ferguson Township. Luther Baker and Iona White, both of Phillipsburg.

William Jones, of Phillipsburg, and Eliza Harvey, of Morris Township. Harvey M. Denning, of Phillipsburg, and Grace E. White, of Kylertown.

Robert Edmiston and Hannah G. Woomer, both of State College.

A Bottle of Prosperity.

An old and esteemed patron of the Reporter, Daniel Bower, of Akron, O., a native of Haines twp., writes us as follows:

"If you want a large bottle of Prosperity, I can accommodate you, it is all bottled up in Canton—can get it cheap."

Yes, Dan, that Canton "prosperity" when a bottle of it is opened turns out like a Pandora's box—it's full of mischief.

Crash in a Church.

A few evenings ago just as the congregation was leaving the M. E. church at Milesburg, one of the chandeliers, holding six coal oil lamps fell to the floor with a crash. A few men who were still in the building gathered up the broken lamps and threw them out, thus averting a fire. Had it fallen ten minutes sooner when the aisle was full of people many would have been hurt and the result much more disastrous.

Through Sleepers to Washington.

For the accommodation of Washington travel on account of Inauguration March 4th, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged to run through Sleepers to Washington on train 4, Erie Mail East, leaving Erie 3.25 p. m. March 1st, 2nd and 3rd. This no doubt will be greatly appreciated by Washington visitors.

Recent Millin Co. Deaths.

In Lewistown, the widow of Wm. Chestnut, aged 68 years. In Bratton tp., Stephen Harshbarger, a war veteran, aged 65 years.

—A larger and better line of storm coats no store in Centre county ever carried than do Lewins, at Bellefonte. The stock will be pushed out at a lively rate the next few weeks. Prices will make them go.

The Shoe Should be Good.

No matter what the price. There are good low-priced shoes as well as poor high-priced ones. There are swindles in every grade. There is no protection in price, though a good many people seem to think by paying dearly they are sure to get a good shoe. Your only protection lies with and in the dealer. He should know the shoes he buys and sells. Then he should guarantee them.

We guarantee every pair of shoes you buy to be worth every cent you pay. If they're not be buy them back.
