THE NEW RACKET No. 9-11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte.

Bellefonte's Big Department Store, Easily the Largest and the Best.

1250 Yards...

And that will be all of it, Cotton Plush, worth 10c., Racket price, 7½c.

China Annex Special.

10 and 12 in. Meat Plates, 9 in. ted, choice, 10c.

A Car Load of Clean-Cut Bargains En Route. Particulars Later.

Corsets.

We guarantee a fit. A good thing, ship was as follows: John Spangler, Ask to C'em.

Umbrellas

Re-covered and repaired while U wait. We can make an Umbrella for U. Have all the parts.

When U come to Bellefonte, put The Racket on the list.

> G. R. SPIGELMYER, SHEM SPIGELMYER, Jr.
> Bellefonte, Pa.

Local Notes of Interest.

The freeze and thaw has not been any too good for the wheat fields.

The grangers put the cash value of their Centre Hall pic-nic ground at from father to son.

Please remit on dues, as evidence of Clintick, of Clearfield. times getting better, or as a lift for times not improving.

The mill at the Millheim narrows, which was burned last week, we are informed will not be rebuilt.

No one dies of Pulmonary disease, the result of Cold, who takes "77" in time; for sale by all druggists, 25 cts.

the Reformed classes in the Sabbath young lady as a help-meet. school room, next Saturday evening.

Doctors Jacobs and Emerick inform us there is considerable sickness in this section of the valley from colds, grip and other complaints.

value in Centre Hall and rents go up. frail for a year or more. Her age was money in solid enterprizes.

regular advertisers, will close out his gone to meet on the other shore. She a defective fire plug in his Winchester. death. She had her hands crossed on store at Bellefonte, and move to Aa- was a domestic woman and retired in ronsburg. Bellefonte will be sorry to her habits. A member of the Luthersee him leave.

a sketch and picture of W. H. Walker, Sabbath services when health permit- by Israel Weaver for $1216. Esq., the law partner of D. F. Fortney, ted. With her neighbors she ever got Esq. Mr. Walker is a very promising along pleasantly. young lawyer, a native of Salona.

the burning of Kurtz's large roller mill Rearick, officiating, interment in the with 7000 bushels of grain, and other cemetery of this place. mill goods. Loss $21,000, insurance $5000, the largest individual loss by any fire in this county. tholmew's, in this place, had leased report. J. A. McKee and H. J. Culthe mill at the Millheim narrows, de- bertson, Jr., Mifflin county attorneys, stroyed by fire last week, and was to take possession next month, but the fire leaves him a disappointed man.

obliged to erect a storage reservoir, village of Allenville, a portion of the shortly; also an electric light plant in richest territory in that section of the lasted one day, on the Reporter's exthe near future a probability with the state. The matter will be argued be-Company. Centre Hall must be made fore Judge Bailey April 15. keep up with the times even if the Reporter must do it alone, as oft in the past. Mark that an git out o' the way, crank and fod-nix.

If any one wants a fine location for a manufacturing plant, Centre Hall can Easter may come as early as March 22 the opportunity. Healthy, lots of good, pure water, good schools and churches, good morals mainly predominate, and good, enterprising citizens who want more to come here and aid them in solid improvements.

Was 109 Years Old.

Nancy McCloskey, perhaps the oldest person in Pennsylvania, died on 5, at her home in Farmington twp., Clarion county. She was born at court house at Bellefonte on Monday County Derrey, Ireland, in 1788, and morning, with Judges Love and was therefore 109 years of age. She Faulkner on the bench. The morncame to America in 1831, shortly af- ing was taken up with the disposing heart trouble. She was in her seventerward settling on the farm where of the license applications left over enty-third year, and was the widow of of 81 years on Monday. He is in feeble she died. She was the mother of nine from last week. William R. Charles, children. She had 54 grand-children, Frank Mosebarger, John A. Erb, and great-grandchildren.

Married.

On Sunday evening, March 7, at the Lutheran parsonage, Centre Hall, Howard O. Confer and Miss Mary Breon, both of Georges valley, were united in marriage by Rev. J. M.

HOTEL CHANGES HANDS.

Landlord Ruhl Will Be Succeeded by Wm. H. Runkle.

Our townsman, Wm. H. Runkle, who resides near the station will take charge of the hotel in this place, next month. Will is a hustling fellow, and widely known, will show that he can or two previous. run a hotel. Other applicants for the and Robt. Bartges, of Penn Hall.

Will Runkle purchased the stand for The funeral took place on Monday $7000 of Boozer Bros. & Ruhl, and his morning at ten o'clock, and interment residence at the south end of town val- was made in the Union cemetery.

the purchase. Milhelm, returned in '68' and again county. A son preceded the mother became its landlord; D. J. Meyer, Da- in death Made to order, prices, $2.00 up. vid Bartges, and Edw. Ruhl. Ownerone half owner; Dav. J. Meyer, purchased the Witmer and Spangler in-now sold to Will Runkle. WEDDING LAST EVENING.

Miss Henrietta Jane Crotzer and Mr. Ira H. Sigler United in Marriage.

Crotzer, a short distance east of Cenunited in the bonds of matrimony.

Rev. White, of Milroy, and about sev- got home. Miles is one of the best enty-five guests were present. At and most respected young men of this about half-past seven the wedding town. march was struck up by Miss Mc-Clintick, of Milroy, and the wedding party filed into the room and took The Musser hotel at Millheim has their places before the officiating min- open April 12th. There will be three Koontz; Warrensville, W. H. Douty; carried the family name for fifty years ister. The couple were attended by bride's brother, Samuel and Miss Mc- mal. The school will be in charge of H. A. Stoke; Lycoming, G. D. Stover.

the recipient of many useful and handsome presents.

Deatn of Mrs. Dr. Smith. Mrs. Mary Smith, widow of Dr. P. Smith, died on last Saturday at 2 a. m. at the home of her son Wesley Smith, Property bids fair to appreciate in of pneumonia. Her health had oeen near this place, after a week's illness Thanks to those who have spent their 75 years. Her husband died some 15 years ago. She was the mother of an church, she was regular in attend-The Bellefonte Democrat publishes ance at the Lord's Supper and at

Funeral services at the house on Tuesday 8 was the 8th anniversary of Monday afternoon, her pastor, Rev.

Huntingdon and Mifflin Dispute,

The commission appointed to locate the line between Huntingdon and W. D. Stover, head miller at Bar- Mifflin counties on Tuesday filed the filed exceptions to the report. Their objection is that according to the new line, Huntingdon county comes into The town water company will be possession of Menno township and the

About Easter.

Easter will be late this year. Ash and Easter Sunday will be April 18th, and as late as April 25. It depends as every one knows, on the phaze of the moon, but just the rule of commutation is not always known. Easter lows the full moon immediately following the spring equinox (March 21.) the Sunday next following.

More Licenses Granted.

Argument court convened in the 84 great-grandchildren and 6 great Emma S. Leister, of Philipsburg, Monday afternoon at three o'clock. were granted. M. M. Robinson, of Philipsburg, was refused, and O. J. Stover, of Eagleville, is still being held under consideration.

House Burned at Coleville.

Tuesday evening the dwelling occupied by Samuel Sprankle, at Coleville, near Bellefonte, was totally destroyed by fire. The family were at supper

DIED AT SPRING MILLS.

and Dies on Friday,

The death of Mrs. Isaac Strunk oc-health. Her death was sudden and York and Carlisle districts. Ed. Ruhl, present landlord, will va- unexpected. On Wednesday she was cate the hotel; he was an obliging stricken, and soon lost consciousness, which she never regained.

ued at $2400 goes as first payment on Rev. Faus, of the Methodist church, of which Mrs. Strunk was a life long Hall, W. W. Rhoads; Spring Mills, The hotel is a well known one, and member, officiated in the services. Dinner, 10 in. Cake Plates, 7 and 8 a few facts may be of interest: It was The funeral was very largely attended. in. Nappies, Cups and Saucers, erected by the late Henry Witmer, in Deceased leaves a husband and three Pitchers, Oat Meal Bowls, White 1847, and on its completion he occu- surviving children. The three daugh-China, Gold Stipple, neatly decora- pied the hotel a number of years, when ters surviving the mother are, Mrs. it changed to the following landlords: George S. Clements and Mrs. Samuel Capt. Yeager, Samuel Reesman, D. C. | Crotzer, both of Centre Hall; and Mrs. Keller, John Spangler who went to John Collumbine, in Huntingdon

Fall from a Giddy Spell,

On Monday evening as Miles, son of B. H. Arney, of this place, teacher of terests; Boozer Bro's & Ruhl, who the Earlystown school, left the post denly overcome by an attack of giddiscious, causing a bruise on the right Columbia, W. J. Campbell; Berwick, side of his face. He was discovered a A wedding took place last evening few moments later, picked up, and ta- son; Nanticoke, S. S. Mummey; Ranat the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel ken to his home where he remained som, F. F. Mayer; Susquehanna, F. unconscious several hours caused by tre Hall, at which their daughter, the shock from the fall. On Tuesday Henrietta Jane and Ira H. Sigler were morning he was able to be up again, in his almost usual health, but did not J. O. Biggs; West Clifford, F. H. The ceremony was performed by know what had happened or how he Foss.

Will Open April 12th

courses, English, Classical and Nor- Hughesville, C. L. Sones; White Deer, Prof. W. D. Maynard, a graduate of Jersey Shore, W. N. Wallis; Lock Ha-After the ceremony the guests were Pennsylvania College and a teacher of ven circuit, J. B. Fox; East Point, D. served an excellent supper. Guests several years' experience. The Eng- W. Miller; Liberty, L. M. Dice; Growere present from Centre Hall, Mil- lish department will be in charge of ver, J. M. Price; Wayland, J. M. King; roy and other parts. The bride was an experienced Normal school gradu- Steuben, G. W. Guinter. ate. Millheim has one of the finest school buildings in the county; it is Mr. Sigler lives at Milroy, and is an beautifully located, well equipped and up-to-date farmer by occupation. They so arranged as to make it both cheerwill reside on his farm in Mifflin Co., ful and comfortable to the students. A literary entertainment by one of and he has done well in chosing this The success of this school is attested by the patrons of last year.

County Notes.

king hard to get their saw mill in op- day. In compliance to his mother's eration, it will be located in the gap wishes Mr. Lutz drove to her house on on the same site where the Bilgers Wednesday morning but found everyoperated a mill a few years ago.

ago, George Rossman of near Pleasant dow and on going up-stairs found his Wm. T. Meyer, one of the Reporter's nine children, eight of whom she has Gap, met with a painful accident thro mother in bed in the cold embrace of He will lose his one eye, and his face her breast and seemingly died without is very badly burnt by the powder.

Now is the Time

An expert says that any time from but by hosts of friends.-Gazette. now till spring grape vines can be trimmed. If they are neglected until spring they sometimes bleed, that is, ming too late and thus injure your Spring Mills circuits as one charge we still owned by the pike company, was this side of the mountain will be as something like $400, which lasted two follows: Lauvertown, Saturday evenyears. The fool bridge cost $25, and ing 13th inst; Linden- Hall, Sunday pose. The work last summer cost ing, 21st; Mountains, Sunday afterbonding to amount of $1000, and the all of the same date. Everybody in-amount of last year's tax spent in advited. J. H. Erdman, Pastor. Wednesday will come on March 3rd dition. The fellows that own no property are on the safe side.

The Boro Road Expense.

Here's a Pointer.

A young man recently bargained with a Meadville merchant for a suit of clothes, and was permitted to take the suit home to try it on. He sent Sunday is always the Sunday that fol- the clothes back the next day with a note stating that they did not fit, and about a week later the merchant dis-If the moon falls on Sunday, Easter is covered that the enterprising young man had simply borrowed the clothes to get married in.

Death at Boalsburg.

Mrs. Naucy Markle died at her home about two miles from Boalsburg, Friday afternoon at five o'clock from the late Jesse Stover who died about five years ago. The funeral took place

Broke Her Collar Bone.

One day last week, Miss Elsie, eldest daughter of Frank Foreman, at the upper end of town, was walking through the yard when she fell on Georges valley church at 2 p. m. some ice and broke her collar bone. The fracture is quite painful, but the young lady bears it heroically.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Isaac Strunk Stricken with Paralysis, Appointments Made for Their Preachers It is

The Central Pennsylvania confercurred last Friday, at her home at ence of the United Evangelical church Very Odd Spring Mills, from a paralytic convened in the annual session at Carstroke, which she received a day lisle last week, and continued until Tuesday, when Bishop Stanford an-Mrs. Strunk was aged about 63 nounced the appointments of the hotel were D. C. Keller of Bellefonte years, and had always enjoyed good preachers for the year. We omit the CENTRE DISTRICT.

A. Stapleton, P. E.-Bellefonte, C. H. Goodling; Bellefonte circuit, G. W. Heiny; Altoona, W. M. Sanner; Howard, J. R. Zechrist; Nittany, E. W. Koontz; Sugar Valley, C. E. Garrett; Brush Valley W. H. Stover; Centre W. H. Brown; Centre, J. J. Lohr; Millmont, D. P. Shaeffer; Buffalo, J. Schumbach; New Berlin, J. F. Shultz; Penns Creek, A. D. Gramley; Middleburg, J. Hertz; McClure, L. Dice; Port Treverton, W. H. Hoch; Lewistown, George Joseph; Patterson, J. D. Short-

LEWISBURG DISTRICT.

H. W. Buck, P. E.-Lewisburg, J. F. Dunlap; Milton, J. W. Messinger; Milton circuit, E. B. Dunn; Muncy Valley, G. L. Mace; Dushore, D. L. BELLEFONTE, Kepner; Bernice and Lopez, I. E. office to start for home, he was sud- Spangler; Danville, J. G. Witmire; Bloomsburg, G. W. Currin; Light ness, he dropped to the walk, uncon- Street, H. Minske; Waller, S. Smith; J. C. Reeser; Nescopeck, M. J. Jami-Seitz; Scranton, Zion, C. D. Moore; Scranton and Sibley, J. Womeldorf: Zion's Grove, E. E. Schaffer; Luzerne, WILLIAMSPORT DISTRICT.

W. E. Detwiler, P. E.-Williamsport, First church, H. A. Penfer; Williamsport, St. Paul's, J. A. Hollenbaugh; Williamsport, Newberry, W. The Millheim Grammar school will B. Cox; Williamsport circuit, S. E.

Found Dead in Bed.

Mrs. Daniel Lutz was a lady who lived about one mile above Zion. She lived alone, but her son, Richard Lutz, lives only about twenty rods away. On Tuesday Mrs. Lutz was in her usual good health and went to the home of her son and made arrangements with Telephone 1302. Gettig Bros., Pleasant Gap, are wor- him to visit friends in Zion on Wednesthing locked up. He finally succeeded While hunting foxes, some ten days in gaining an entrance through a wina struggle. Dr. P. S. Fisher stated The house and lot of the late Thos. that her death was caused by paralysis Yearick, at Aaronsburg, was purchased of the heart. She was 66 years of age and one of the best women in that sec-

Again Appointed.

the sap runs from the ends of the canes ference has again appointed me to the where they have been cut, and that Centre Hall circuit. The boundaries of weakens the vines and they are not as our circuit have again been changed; productive. Do not delay your trim- instead of serving Centre Hall and now include McClure circuit, and will be supplied with two preachers. The new man is Rev. L. H. Yerger, from The first expense when the road was Elizabthville. Our appointments on a sum that required to prepare for noon; Spring Mills, Sunday evening,

Recent Mifflin Co. Deaths.

At Atkinson's Mills, wife of Samuel Farner. In Lewistown, James B. Kelley, age

In Decatur twp., Melvin S. Shearer, aged 22 years.

Death of Hardman Philips,

Hardman Philips, died at Yeagertown, about ten days ago. He was kuown to many in this county. He was a coach and wagon maker by trade and carried on quite an extensive business in Yeagertown.

A Good Old Man Near his End.

Joseph Daup, one of the patriarchs of near Potters Mills, reached the age health and near his end. He was born in Germany and came to America when a boy, and his long life was that of an upright man in all things.

Rev. Rearick's Appointments.

Sunday, March 14, at Centre Hall, at 10 a. m.; at St. Johns, at 7 p. m.; at -A larger and better line of storm coats no store in Centre county ever carried than do Lewins, at Bellefonte. -All sizes, prices and kinds of bicy-when the flames started, it is supposed cles at L. C. Wetzel's, No. 7 High from a defective flue. The loss will be only complete bicycle repair shop in ly rate the next few weeks. Prices will be left them go

That any one should puzzle This Newspaper, their head over the question as to where shoes can be bought best and cheapest. We think we have an established reputation for selling good footwaar. We know we sell on close margins. These facts being self-evident, why need you pomder At 25 Cents. longer?

Men's Fine Dress Shoes, genuine Calf, in all the new toes, - $2.00 Ladies' Button and Lace, fine

HERE YOU ARE.

ONLY

MINCLE'S SHOE STORE,

Always Up To Date.

at this sale

Seersuckers.

If We

Could Pin a

Dress Goods to

Our store would be too small to hold the crowds eager to seize the opportunities now offered to liven February business. Perfect goods without hurt or flaw. For a starter.

A number of patterns never offered for less than 50c, to go

New patterns in Percales and

Sample of Bellefonte.

ANNUAL _ Clearance Sale

Of Furniture at W. R. Brachbill's.

Previous to taking account of stock, we offer great bargains.

W. R. BRACHBILL,

BELLEFONTE

GLOBE

Dry Goods, Clothing and Millinery.

tion of the county, and her sudden death is not only mourned by relatives but by hosts of friends.—Gazette.

With pleasure I announce that Con- All the New Styles for Spring Wear will be Seen This Season at Bellefonte's Famous Bargain Store--The Clobe.

> Our Corset Department is now complete with all the best brands. We carry the well known C. B. Thompson's Glove Fitting-American Lady-McGraw's Platinum Bone-Model Form Heilner & Hertzop Leather Tipped, and all the leading brands.

We are daily receiving new Serges, Henriettas and all wool novelties the latest that are being shown in the Eastern markets.

All winter goods go now at prices without regard to cost, we are slaughtering prices without fear of competition.

Our Millinery Department this season will be one of the best attractions in the store. Although we have always been first to advance the seasons styles, yet this year it will be more attractive than ever.

THE GLOBE, The Only True Live Bargain Makers.

KATZ & CO.,