Hall on Tuesday.

-Mrs. Miller, wife of Dr. Ed. Miller, of Johnstown, Pa., was the guest of friends in Centre Hall Tuesday.

-Wagner Geiss and Photographer Lukenbach were up to Oak Hall Monday taking some views in that section. -W. B. Rankin and Grant Hoover, two of Bellefonte's leading insurance men were in Centre Hall Monday doing business. -Miss Rachael Harris and Miss Emma Holliday, of Bellefonte, were the guests of Mrs. Annie Van Pelt on Tuesday.

among their old friends. esteemed patron of the Reporter, gave our sanctum a call, and put his label in the ranks of the elect. -Wm. Dreisbach and T. Newton Reber, both of Lewisburg, and mighty popular here, called on their customers in Centre Hall on Monday.

-W. W. McCormick and little son, of Potters Mills, dropped in at the REPORTER office on Saturday, while in town transacting business.

-Julian Fleming, who is general salesman for a large implement house, through the western part of the state, is spending a short time in town.

-James Gregg was over from Milesburg several days the latter part of the week attending the sale of the personal property at the homestead.

-James B. Strohm moved from

-F. P. Duck, of near Madisonburg, was a caller, and put his label into the '97 regiment with pleasure, and is anxious to see the coming of the promised good times.

-James H. Lohr, in the Auditors' Department of the Penna. R. R., at Philadelphia, came up last week to asflit to Lewisburg.

-Frank Emerick, of Penn Hall, tre Hall, and took a few minutes off and dropped in.

-Our friend, James Hannah, of Gregg, was a pleasant caller, and reports health generally good in his section, but roads bad; he didn't leave without first setting his label into '97.

---Edward Kerlin closed his school at Lemont last week and is now at home. He was very unfortunate during the term, having broken his thigh and was unable to teach three months swad: "Cum on! Shlok druff, Mike!" out of the six.

-Our old Democratic friend, farmer John Shafer, of Madisonburg, favored us with a call, and reports crops looking fair and little sickness down lacht. Es letcht war er's ladich un that way; his label he has been keeping ahead for the last twenty-five years.

-Postmaster W. W. Spangler, of Potters Mills, was doing business in Centre Hall Tuesday morning. There are several applicants for his position, and all the boys seem to think the appointment will drop only the right

-Our old friend, John B. Royer, of near Bellefonte, gave us a call and set his label far out into '98. He has been a tenant on same farm now for sixteen years. There is an honest record at the bottom of this that he may well Ravers Sthettle, Martz der Zwantzicht feel proud of.

--- Charles Musser and William Tate, both of near Fillmore, and good and substantial citizens in every way, were guests at the home of J. J. Arney a few days ago. They came in to Penns valley to attend some sales, looking after some good stock. -Squire Houseman filled the pulpit in the United Evangelical church last Sunday evening, in the absence of Rev. Rhoads, who was unable to be here. The 'Squire handled his subject in a masterly manner, and had a good audience.

-Rev. M. S. Derstine, who has been visiting his mother with his family, has been assigned by the M. E. Conference to the East Waterford, Juniata county charge. He left yesterday morning for Juniata county, and the family will follow later.

-Wm. Lohr and daughter Miss Annie left Tuesday morning for Lewisburg, which town they expect to make their home for the present at least. Part of their household goods were disposed of at sale on Saturday and the balance were shipped Monday by rail to Lewisburg. There will be many who will regret Mr. Lohr's leaving town; he was a good citizen and the friend of all.

-John Heckman moves on the Gregg homestead west of town this week. The Gregg family, Miss Annie, Andrew and John intend locating in Philadelphia and expect to remove -County Commissioner Daniel there in a short time. They will make a short visit among relatives in the -D. C. Keller and wife, of Belle- county before taking their departure.

household goods today to Bellefonte, -Jerry Condo, of Spring Mills, to which charge he was assigned by was a prominent visitor in Centre the last conference. The Rev. will occupy a fine dwelling opposite his church on Willow Bank street, and he seems very well pleased with the change. He has been with us quite a number of years, being assigned to the Centre Hall charge for the full conference term. He has done considerable work in building up his church, and the members are very much attached to him.
