CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. April 15

The Mississippi's overflow is not yet abating.

In the House at Harrisburg the anti Quay Republicans are giving the Boss some trouble and defeating some of his pet measures.

The Mississippi is still in a rage of overflow. Tallulah, La., reports levee at Davis Island, that county, broke last evening, opposite Ashwood. 2500 people live on the island.

Even in Rhode Island there was a resulted in a Republican plurality less than half of McKinley's, which was 10,000.

Dr. Swallow is being proposed as the prohibition candidate for state treasurer, and is likely to be the nominee. The fellows who are suspected of pilfering the state will swallow a different kind of liquor, however.

Schenectady county, N. Y., has swung over bodily into the Democratic fold. Last fall every town was carried by the Republicans. Tuesday every town in that county, except two, was carried by the Democrats!

Carter Harrison, Democart, carried Chicago by 77,756 majority over the Republican nominee. The Democrats elected 23 Aldermen, the Republicans 7. McKinley carried the city by an overwhelming majority last fall.

Fighting has begun on the Turkish frontier between Greek and Turkish soldiers, which is looked upon as the beginning of the war. The Turkish army is strongly intrenched and the Greeks are also ready.

An ugly story is sent from Harrisnow in the state legislature prohibitnot in that boodle ring.

the profits of the Standard Oil Com- versal. pany were 27 million dollars on a capital of 90 millions. Poor thing! Why not repeal another pipe-line bill for its benefit?

John Wanamaker, in his letter declining to be a candidate for state treasurer, uses a rough rasp upon the Republican machine as run by boss Quay & Co. He lays bare the great wrongs and appeals to honest Republicans to the Republican bosses for the credit of the party.

appointing township constables fire wardens, and providing that they shall report all forest fires to the court and assist in the extinction of all such fires. We hope our Centre county constables will make a note of this and do some good work in bringing to justice the fellows who start the disastrous mountain fires in this county.

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, replying to Senator Chandler's warning that the Tariff bill may fail because of its excessive rapacity, says:

"If it be decided that one section of the country must take buzzard while another demands turkey in order to reform the tariff, then the reformation had better be delayed." This may be the delicate Wyoming way of letting Mr. Dingley know that his Tariff bill is sectional, and that the West won't stand it; but it is neatly effective and very much to the point.

McKINLEY'S SILVER MONEY.

Under the law that passed congress at its late session by a practically unanimous vote of both houses, and which provides for the appointment, at the discretion of the president, of a commission to promote an international agreement for the free coinage of silver. President McKinley has named as the commissioners Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, who introduced the bill in the senate, ex-Vice-President Stevenson, of Illinois, and Mr. C. J. Paine, of Boston, the latter principally known as an American yachtman. The two first-named are pronounced advocates of free coinage by or fish in any waters for three years in international agreement if attainable, and if not, by the independent action of the United States. Senator Wol- lic notice of said planting has been givcott declined to join the Republican slump last week, the election having is convention on the adoption of the silver senators who bolted the St. Lougold standard platform, and supported Major McKinley, claiming that was 21,000, and this has dwindled down to the best way to achieve free coinage. Mr. Stevenson accepted the Chicago platform and was an earnest advocate of Mr. Bryan's election, with all that it implied on the silver question. Not much is known of Mr. Paine's position save that he is supposed to sympathize with international bimetallism, and that he accompanied Senrtor Wolcott on his voluntary mission to Europe. The commission is smaller than most persons supposed it would be, but this will add to and not impair its effectiveness. It is surmised it will not go abroad until May or June, when the new diplomatic appointees of the administration will be at their places whose co-operation will be of importance in furthering the object of the commission. Two plans may be pursued: Independent negotiations may be opened with the different governments on the silver question, and an agreement sought in that way, or an international conference may be called. It is well enough to have another trial, and if there is a prospect of international bimetallism no Democrat or silverite will throw any impediments in the way. The three nations whose co-operation will be determining are Great Britain, France and Germany: burg to a New York paper, to the ef- but it seems to be the general judgfect that $50,000 was demanded from ment that the solution rests with Great the Metropolitan Life Insurance com- Britain. ### Pushing the Road Bill.

A dispatch from Harrisburg says: A new element has come to the front in the legislative lobby at the State capitol. It is the bicyclist, and he has become a potent factor for good in shaping legislation. His efforts are directed through the League of American Wheelmen, whose greatest aim is committed by the rulers of the party, to secure better roads. The league is the indications are that it will become a law in spite of the farming interests. The bill has gone through the Senate The governor has approved the bill by a vote of 41 to 6, and its most bitter foes concede that it will go through the House. The League is fighting the Spatz and Tipton bills, taxing bicycles $1 a year for road purroses. Both have been referred to a sub-com-
