CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. May 6

Senator McQuown, of this district, read a bill in place making an appropriation of $5000 for the erection of a monument or statue to the memory of the late Andrew G. Curtin, at Bellefonte, providing the citizens of Centre county raise by subscription a like sum.

The colored people of Williamsport, Altoona, Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Bellefonte, Tyrone, Muncy, Reading, Lewisburg, Elmira, Harrisburg and other points are arranging to hold a big convention in Williamsport in July in celebration of the 34th anniversary of the signing of the emancipation proclamation.

Among the bills signed by the governor a few days ago was the Lennon bill, to place Snell's handbook in the public schools, and authorizing constables and other peace officers, without procuring warrants, to arrest persons reasonably suspected of offending against the laws protecting timber lands, and to protect the American flag from "insult and degradation."

A MAN has just been discharged from the Lancaster county prison, where he had been confined ninety six days without any charge resting against him, through the carelessness of the Court and jail officials. Has the poor fellow no redress? The tables should be turned against such officials, and they made to taste considerably of their own medicine. The unfortunate man should have no less than $5000 damages from the officials at fault.

THE legislative trip to the Grant exercises in New York will cost the state $6000 although the legislators rode free. Representative Spitz, of Berks, says: "Of course we didn't see much of the parade, or hear any of the speeches, but that mattered little to the solons, so long as they were well provided with all that's good to eat, drink and smoke. There was certainly an abundance of all that, and the Senators and Assemblymen knew just how to put it away."

NOTHING FOR THE FARMER.

THE state legislature has been in session over four months and what has it done to benefit the farmer? Not as much as will buy a peck of oats. Representatives of the farmers of Pennsylvania have been there to present their wants and plead for justice to the industrious but shamefully neglected farmer, but it was as useless as pleading with wild billows of the ocean!

What has become of the many promises so freely made the farmers? Ask the winds, and the reply you get is a howl and wailing whistle. Has the farmer no power and no influence that will insure him justice? Yes, but not at Harrisburg, unless he changes his tactics and makes his power felt at the ballot boxes by voting for known friends of the cause of the agriculturist and paying no heed to the lavish promises of the mere office seeker, who won't associate with a farmer unless when he wants that farmer's vote.

When has the farmer's tax burden been lightened a single nickel by this "reform legislature"? Go on the farm and ask the hardfisted toiler, and with his tax notice he will prove to you that it is tax! tax! tax! without any let-up or reduction.

The farmer put those frauds into the legislature for the last decade in the face of a systematic violation of sacred promises, and now the REPORTER asks the reasonable question, how long will the farmer continue to vote for men who do the bidding of trusts, monopolists, and public plunderers?

Farmers, you have been deceived too long; change your tactics and make the great power you wield felt at the ballot box and you won't need go to Harrisburg to plead for your rights before time-servers and conscienceless demagogues.

GRACE CHURCH AS A SALOON.

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Pittsburg Telegraph says the legislature may be asked to vacate its present quarters in the Grace Church, on account of liquors being kept in some of the rooms.

For a number of weeks there have been rumors that the church people were not satisfied with the actions of the State law-makers, and that in a short time there would be an outbreak. It was learned from a reliable source that one day last week the board of trustees of the church held a meeting at which it was charged that liquor was brought into the church and was given out in the committee rooms freely, and that several of the rooms resembled a well stocked saloon. Some of the trustees were of the opinion that since they had rented the church to the Legislature they had no right to interfere, but the majority of the board thought otherwise, and it is said that a committee was appointed to investigate the report.

It is now alleged that the committee did investigate, and that at the meeting this week they will report that liquor is used in the building, and will ask that the Legislature find other quarters or stop the use of liquor in the building.
