Lost in the Mountains—Insane from Hunger.

George Hartman, of New York, was found roaming about the mountains, three miles from Altoona, one day last week, by a posse of constables who have been searching the woods for him for the two days previous, thinking him to be a wild man. When captured he was found to be insane from hunger and exposure. His hands and feet were swollen to twice their natural size from cold. He was taken to the alms house and given medical attention. Regaining his reason, he told how he had been sand-bagged and robbed of his watch and a sum of money in Pittsburg several days ago, while on a visit to his sister at that place. The blow left him insane, and since then he has been roaming about the mountains between Pittsburg and Altoona. The authorities sent him home.

Council Again Takes Up the Water Subject

Our esteemed borough fathers have again had the water question before them and resolved that a tax of four mills be laid and collected to pay the interest on $5000 to be borrowed for the erection of water works.

A resolution was also passed to issue ten bonds amounting to $5000—$500 each—to bond the town for the proposed water works.

The water for this purpose is to be procured from Bible's spring as mentioned in the minutes.

The different phases are these:

- 1. Run opposition with the Bible water, which was dropped.
2. Take the water company's plant. "Tabled indefinitely."
3. Fall onto the Bible water again. Can't do that.
4. Take the water company plant. The council means all right; only in organizing the light it seems went out and the tail got fixed where the head should be—now things keep mixed.

William Horner Found Dead.

William Horner, a well-known citizen of near this place, aged about 60 years, on Wednesday afternoon was found dead in an outbuilding at his home. Heart failure likely was the cause of his unexpected death.

His occupation was huckstering and berry farming. A wife and several children survive. We have no further particulars.

Mr. Horner was a veteran of the late war, and a member of the G. A. R. Post of this place.

There was more or less apprehension that he had been a victim of foul work, and to dispel all doubt an inquest was held last night. An examination of his remains showed that he was subject to heart trouble and the jury rendered a verdict accordingly.

A WATER TRUST.

A Syndicate to Control the Springs Near Centre Hall.

A few of our shrewd, far-seeing business men, struck a happy idea some weeks ago, of which we had an inkling but refrained to allude to for fear that plans might be frustrated, of getting control of the springs east and west of Centre Hall. Some ten days ago, however, a party to the enterprise, gave intimation of it to a prominent party in Bellefonte, who now is our authority, and proves that we were not far wrong in our surmising several weeks ago, and that we are not the one first to make public the plan.

The syndicate claim to have secured control of about all the springs east and west of this town; this is a sharp, shrewd idea of some of our capitalists, that may bring them 100 to 200 per cent. profit in the near future, and all will be pleased to learn of such good luck to some of our enterprising citizens. The springs and waters that the lucky syndicate have not yet secured are those on the lands of B. H. Arney adjoining this town on the east side.

The syndicate, it would appear, are in hopes that the water company will be necessitated to buy the springs and at the terms of the trust, and it will realize something like 100 per cent. In the event the borough comes in possession of water works, the syndicate hopes to have easier sailing and be able to realize upwards of 200 per cent. in selling out.

Death in Nittany Valley.

On Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Joseph Shafer died at her residence, at the toll-gate, a few miles east of the Junction, after an illness of about four weeks from dropsy, aged 73 years. Mrs. Shafer, whose maiden name was Kate Grimm, was born in Snyder county, and was one of a family of thirteen. She was a sister to Reuben Grimm and Mrs. Nestlerode, of Madisonburg. A bereaved husband and two daughters, Mrs. E. Bartholomew, of Coburn, and Mrs. Sloat, of Aaronsburg, are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. The remains were taken to Madisonburg for burial on Friday, services being held in the Lutheran church.

What Presbytery Did.

At the recent meeting of Huntingdon Presbytery in Millintown, Rev. Christine was received from Northumberland Presbytery and accepted calls from Sinking Creek and Spring Mills.

Rev. W. O. Wright, of Milesburg, was elected one of the alternate ministerial commissioners to the general assembly.

A committee consisting of Elders Beaver, Harris and Rev. Jones visited the field at Hubbersburg and decided upon the advisability of disbanding the church. The church at Hindman was dissolved. The Fall meeting of Presbytery will be held at Bellwood.

The New Road Bill.

The Hamilton road bill has only to pass third reading in the House before going to the Governor. Representative Teas, one of its champions in the House, says, "Along with this bill we should enact the bill which, in order to make it constitutional, has been amended so as to tax not only bicycles but all other vehicles one dollar each." Farmers would not be pleased with the latter as their vehicles are already taxed as personal property.

New Millport Nearly Destroyed by Fire.

The village of New Millport, in Clearfield county was almost destroyed by fire on morning of 29 ult., which broke out in the store of Peter Erhart. Smith's dwelling house, store room and barn, the Methodist church and a house belonging to Mrs. Markle, all of which were reduced to ashes.
