Turkey wants $25,000,000 of Greece, to defray her war expenses.

The mayor and city council of Auburn, Neb., were put to jail on Monday, for an unlawful proceeding in regard to streets.

Greece admits her defeat and sues for peace. The match was an unequal one—a big, burly man against a tiny boy.

The Senate committee made over 800 changes in the Dingley tariff bill. It must have been a very badly cooked broth and deserving all the censure it got from the Democrats.

It is said positively that if the European Powers insist on the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete as a condition of mediation, Greece will re-ly that she prefers war even to extermination.

The Illinois people feel like hanging a number of their legislators and bankers. Yet the gentlemen engaged in these two professions were working hand in hand last year to preserve the honesty of the currency, and Chicago turned out in enormous numbers to encourage them in it.

A United States Judge has decided that the directors of a Michigan bank, who failed to direct, and thus enabled a trusted official to make way with its funds, must stand trial for their failure to protect the interests of their depositors.

There is danger of a big explosion in the Pennsylvania Republican camp, and when it comes it is predicted Quay will be knocked out. There is trouble brewing in the G. O. P.

In Ohio things look just as stormy for Hanna, and an explosion is sure which will knock out Hanna and result in the election of a U. S. Senator to take Hanna's place.

LET the farmer sit down some evening, take up his pencil, reach for a piece of blank paper, and begin to calculate what the present congress and state legislature have done to benefit him. He will figure in vain to find any benefit to him even to the extent of a nickel.

At the meeting of the Democratic Standing Committee at Bellefonte, the other day, the apportionment of delegates for the various districts in the county was made.

The Democrats of Centre Hall have 2 delegates again instead of 1, having lost a delegate two years ago, by the treachery of a few who worked up a secret trade with the Republicans.

Lancaster constables are not having a holiday of it. As a result of Judge Brubaker's prodding, Constables in eight or nine wards of the city have returned nearly 100 persons for keeping disorderly houses and speak-easies, which were run in the guise of clubs.

Sheriff Myers has put on an extra force of deputies to make arrests of the many defendants returned on Saturday by the Constables.

In referring to the reception of the Jones-Aldrich Tariff bill by the public, "Holland," the trustworthy New York correspondent of The Philadelphia Press, quotes a prominent Republican's indorsement of a Democratic sentiment to the effect that if Congress "is not wise enough to give us an expedient tariff, not all the gold Democrats nor all the force of the Republican organization can prevent Republican defeat."

This opinion was expressed in presence of Secretaries Sherman and Alger, upon whom it is said to have made much impression. There are several weighty considerations in favor of this view of the political future, assuming that neither the Dingley bill nor the Aldrich bill, nor any other that this Congress is likely to pass, can be regarded as "an expedient tariff."

A COLD RECEPTION. The senate tariff bill gets a very chilling reception. Republicans criticize it because of its confession that protective duties are no longer available for revenue in the needed quantity. This forces the adoption of the Democratic revenue principle by increasing the tax on beer, putting a tax on tea and an abandonment of the much-lauded reciprocity nostrum.

The Democrats and tariff reformers, while admitting that the beer and tea taxes of the senate bill are all right for revenue purposes, object to the increased tax on wool and woolsens, the tax on hides, lumber, coal and other necessities, and a lot of minor protectionist jobbery worked into the bill.

The senate bill will undoubtedly provoke interesting and excited discussion in the senate for the next two months. Party lines will be broken, in conflict between the interests of sections, producers, manufacturers and consumers. Threats are heard in many quarters that the house will never consent to the senate bill, but the house is manacled to Speaker Reed's will, and judging by its recent action will probably do what he ordains must be done.
