

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town Tuesday.

—Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in his native valley.

—Miss Elsie Foreman is spending the week with friends at Pine Grove Mills.

—Mrs. E. J. Ward, of Bellefonte, visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Stiver, last week.

—Mrs. Homer Barr, of Boalsburg, visited her sister, Mrs. Jerry Miller last week.

—Miss Jennie Odenkirk is visiting friends in Millinburg and Lewisburg this week.

—Mrs. Polly Moyer, of Rebersburg is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jared Kremer.

—Misses Katie and Lizzie Zeigler, of Linden Hall, spent Tuesday with their friend Miss Ida Rhoads.

—Miss Sallie McClenahan and Mrs. Maude Yearick attended a missionary convention at Millheim Wednesday.

—Our old friend, A. J. Stiffer, of Centre Hill, was a caller, and with his usual smile fixed his label where it does him credit.

—A. F. Heckman, one of Tusseyville's leading citizens, gave our sanction a call, and placed his label in advance into '98.

—Our esteemed townsman, Oley Mader, favored our sanction with a call accompanied by his father who resides in Millinburg.

—Miss Sarah Kline, of Aaronsburg, spent several days in this place and vicinity, visiting her many friends and acquaintances.

—C. U. Hoffer and family, of Phillipsburg, and W. J. Conley and family of Bellefonte, were among those who attended the funeral of Henry Boozer Tuesday morning.

—Miss Ida Rhoads left yesterday to attend the commencement exercises at New Berlin. She will visit at Sunbury and Northumberland and will remain several weeks.

—W. W. Spangler, one of our esteemed patrons of near Pottery Mills, favored our sanction with a call. He informs us the cool weather has given the corn and other crops a back-set.

—Postmaster Meyer went to Lancaster Monday to attend the commencement exercises at Franklin and Marshall College. B. D. Brisbin had charge of the postoffice during his absence.

—Nich. Graden, of Gregg, favored us with a call, and related some of his interesting experiences in farming. Mrs. Graden was a caller soon after, being her first visit to a printing office to see the art preservative.

—Those two ever jolly Centre Hillers, Peter Smith and Sam'l McClintock, called at our office. Mr. Smith informed us that his venerable father, Dr. Charles Smith, living at Lamar, now 87 years of age, has lost his sight and is in feeble health. The Doctor, years ago, was a physician with large practice at Penn Hall.

—Harvey Vonada, one of Georges valley's prominent farmers, gave the Reporter a call, and set his label in the roll of honor. He informs us that his neighbor, Emanuel Zettler, long in feeble health, is somewhat better. The crops, in Mr. Vonada's opinion, are likely to suffer some from the cool weather.

—Danny Snyder, the genial salesman from Shamokin, gave us a warm handshake the other day. Danny is fond of visiting our trout streams and occasionally sends in trout fry for stocking. In Shamokin, he tells us, his water tax per year for family use is $15, if he had a pavewash it would be $3 extra, for a lawn sprinkler $6 extra, for four horses $5 extra—total $29. In Centre Hall this would not be one third as much in average.

—Adam R. Bierley, of Penn Cave, was in Centre Hall last Thursday, and found time to drop in at the Reporter's office. Mr. Bierley is an extensive lumber operator, and will soon move his mill from the tract near Penn Cave to the one he recently purchased from Wm. Yearick, west of Madisonburg. There are 212 acres of white pine and oak lumber on the Yearick tract and Mr. Bierley expects to cut about a half-million feet from it.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in his all-wise providence to remove from our midst Mr. Henry Boozer, who died on June 4th, 1897; therefore be it

Resolved, That we the members of Trinity Reformed Sunday school of Centre Hall, Pa., while reverently bowing to His Divine will, record our high appreciation of the character of our deceased brother, recognizing in him the genuine spirit of true manly worth, and cherish his memory with the assurance that our loss is his gain, and that the bonds of true fellowship endure beyond the grave. And be it further

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved household, and that in commemoration of our loss, these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of the Sunday school, and published in the CENTRE REPORTER. G. W. HOSTERMANN, F. A. FOREMAN, H. W. KREMER.

SPRING MILLS.

Our Correspondent Reports the Events of the Past Week.

Supt. Gramley held his levee here last week. In the examination of nineteen applicants only five failed.

D. H. Ruhl, our popular landlord, has been improving his surroundings by the free use of a white wash brush.

Last week Miss Mattie Goodhart, a very accomplished young lady of Centre Hall, was visiting her many friends in our village.

Commercial agents traveling through this valley report no improvement in business; orders very small and few in number.

The new portico for the M. E. parsonage is about being commenced; this will add greatly to the appearance of the residence.

Charles Miller, the well-known wool dealer of our village, has been shipping considerable wool from this station; he reports no improved quotations.

John Weaver, of our village, in addition to repairing jewelry, watches and clocks, has turned his attention to repairing bicycles; he is a thorough mechanic.

Howard Rossman, the very efficient clerk of C. P. Long, took a day off on Tuesday last and attended the Democratic convention in Bellefonte; he is a very sound (silver) Democrat.

On Wednesday last C. L. Moyer, one of our leading merchants, received the latest improved Wing piano, with an orchestral attachment, and requested Mr. Newcomer, of the Normal Institute, to test it; after playing several fine pieces of music in a very charming manner, he pronounced it a very superior instrument.

On Saturday last the Junior base ball club of our village, had another contest with the farmers team, also of our village, but with no better success than they had two weeks ago, then the score stood 4 to 8 in favor of what they style their opponents, the "potato club," on Saturday last the game was again in their favor 14 to 15. The juniors however went into the contest with a short compliment of "soldiers" having at times only seven or eight players—but there was too many runs, rather poor playing on both sides. The junior club can do better; what is the matter with you?

The Musical Institute now established at Spring Mills, under the instruction of Newcomer and Zeigler is strictly a musical academy, where the latest advanced methods of voice culture and harmony are taught and the principles thoroughly explained by Mr. Newcomer, who has charge of this department, which consists of piano, voice culture and harmony. Mr. Newcomer is an accomplished pianist and a teacher of very pronounced abilities, having had a wide experience in the east and west and is well-known throughout this section; he is a noted musician of the highest order. Mr. Zeigler has charge of the instrumental department, consisting of the organ and all stringed instruments. Mr. Zeigler is well-known in these valleys as a finished musician and a teacher of very superior abilities.

In July the Normal will be permanently located at Spring Mills, Pa., a town noted for its romantic and beautiful scenery, only a short distance from the celebrated Penn Cave, healthful, refined society, and an ideal town for parents to place their sons and daughters, where they can enjoy all the pleasures and comforts of a home.

OAK HALL.

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Jacob Kaup spent Sunday at this place with his parents and sister Annie.

Jared Kremer, of Centre Hall, was noticed in our town one day last week. Wm. Meyer and wife, of Walnut Grove, were visiting at this place last Thursday.

Cora Sellers, of this place, spent Sunday with friends at Houserville.

Fred Meyer and wife and little daughter Mabel, of Pine Grove, were the guests of W. H. Close and family Sunday.

Jennie Stamm left on Wednesday for Altoona, where she will stay for some time.

Henry Potter and Jas. Ross, both of Linden Hall, transacted business at this place Wednesday.

A car load of hay was shipped from this station this week.

Mrs. Fye has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Homan, at this place.

Some of our people from this place attended the funeral of Henry Boozer, at Centre Hall Tuesday.

"For three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house," says A. H. Patter, with E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., "and my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this Remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure—not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is all right, and any one who tries it will find it so." For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, and R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.
