DESIRABLE HOMESTEAD FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers a desirable homestead for sale, situated about one mile from Centre Hall, Pa., known as the Henry Whimer homestead; thereon erected a good dwelling, large barn, and all suitable out-buildings, large gardens, and fine orchard, fruit of all kinds; said barn and gardens on separate lots. Also five acres of land adjoining said homestead which can be laid out in desirable town lots; all in good cultivation. ISAAC SMITH, Centre Hall.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—LETTERS of Administration cum Testamento annexo upon the estate of Elias I. Curtin, late of the borough of Bellefonte, Centre County, Pennsylvania, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and those having claims or demands will present the same for settlement without delay. JOHN M. DALE, Adm'r, c. t. c. Bellefonte.

The streets of Rebersburg have been improved by a new pike, something the burg needed very badly.

Our people have been deeply interested, and are yet slightly so, in the popular mule question.

Cyrus Rumberger, of Wilkesbarre, was in our valley last week buying up potatoes; he offered eighteen cents a bushel.

The talk is that Brush valley will have two campmeetings this summer, the one to be conducted by white people and the other by colored people; no doubt the latter will be most attractive.

Rev. Muma and wife, of Rebersburg, are visiting at Selinsgrove University, Snyder county.

Mrs. Charles Woodring, of Brooklyn, is visiting relatives and friends at Rebersburg.

On Monday Thomas Wolf removed his engine from Willis Weber's wagon shop at Rebersburg to Madisonburg.

Last week while Mrs. Annie Zeigler of near Rebersburg, was ringing their dinner bell for the men to come in from the field, the bell fell from its old place and just passing Mrs. Zeigler's head fell upon a large stone, breaking the stone and cracking the bell.

Farmers are talking about making hay next week; better let the grass grow at least one week yet.

SPRING MILLS.

Interesting Items from the Busy Town Down the Valley.

W. H. Smith and wife left for a week's visit to Pine Grove Mills, Tyrono, and Martha. May they have a pleasant time.

Ben Kenley is exhibiting a fine radish; call and see it.

Wells Evans reports his hay crop to be one of the best he ever had. All his crops are good this season.

William Moyer and his two sisters, Mary and Myra, and Jacob Royer, of Colyer, visited at the home of James McCool.

Master John and Seyward Rossman went to Penn cave to spend the week with their grand-father, John Rossman; the boys have studied hard and will enjoy a week's vacation.

The Union Sunday school held their Children's day service on Sunday; the church was handsomely decorated with ferns and flowers. The recitations were well rendered, especially those by the infant class.

The Georges valley Sunday school held their Children's service on Sunday evening; the church was crowded to its utmost, and many went away, not being able to get in at all. The church was handsomely decorated with beautiful plants and flowers, and it was a credit to the ladies; the program under the management of Squire Royer, with Mrs. Ezra Harter as organist, was a perfect success, especially the piece rendered by Jerry Zettle and several five and seven year old girls, was appreciated by all.

Our new postmaster, J. D. Long, could do no better than to move the postoffice in the vicinity of Grange Hall. The people on that side of the town are entitled to such a move, and it would be favoring the community at large, instead of one or two individuals. There are three men to one who get their mail on the south side, and why should they not have the postoffice.

Since writing the above we noticed a few stakes near the foot log, and on inquiry learned it was the location for the new postoffice building. We surely thought after such a long hard fight we would have justice, and put the postoffice where it belongs, but it appears one or two individuals are favored, while the interests of the community in general are neglected.

—One of the largest stocks of Spring and Summer clothing ever received in this part of the state, was received recently by Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. It is a tremendous stock and the prices are as low in comparison, and will move it.

RULE ON HEIRS.

Pennsylvania, Centre County, ss: I, George W. Rumberger, Clerk of the Orphans' Court of said county of Centre, do hereby certify that at an Orphans' Court held at Bellefonte the 7th day of May, A. D. 1897, before the Honorable Judges of said Court, on motion a rule was granted upon the heirs and legal representatives of Joseph Rishel, deceased, to come into Court on the fourth Monday of August, next to accept or refuse to accept of the valuation, or to show cause why the real estate of said deceased should not be sold. Same notice to be given as in requisition. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court at Bellefonte the 10th day of May, A. D. 1897. GEO. W. RUMBERGER, C. O. C.

W. M. CRONISTER, Sheriff, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Miss Grace Alexander is home from State College for her summer vacation.

—Mrs. Sarah Tressler, of near Centre Hill, while in town Saturday favored us with a call.

—Mr. Joseph Carson, one of Pottery Mills good citizens was a pleasant caller at this office last week.

—William Goodhart, of Farmers Mills, made a business trip to town on Monday.

—Rev. Rhoads and daughter, Miss Ida, returned last week from New Berlin, where they had been attending commencement.

—Miss Edna Love, of Lock Haven, arrived last week, and will spend some time visiting among friends in Centre Hall and vicinity.

—Frank Ross, who graduated this spring from a College of Pharmacy, at Ada, Ohio, is now assisting in J. D. Murray's drug store.

—Dr. Bright and little daughter Mary, of Rebersburg, and Miss Bessie Weber, of Boalsburg, were guests at the home of Mr. Jared Kreamer over Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford and daughter Grace spent the past week among friends at Hartleton, Lamar, Lock Haven and Williamsport.

—Mr. William McClellan who is preparing for the ministry, is spending part of his summer vacation with his mother at Tusseyville.

—Simon Harper returned last week from Chicago, where he had spent a week, and was much pleased with his trip.

Clevan Dinges, one of Williamsport's leading insurance men, was here on a visit and gave our sanctum a pleasant call.

—Frank Bowersox, always jolly, gave the Reporter a call. He informs us a worm is doing harm to the corn in the vicinity of Rock Springs.

—Mr. Andrew Smith, one of Salona's most respected and enterprising citizens while in town Tuesday made a short call at this office.

—Mr. J. P. Heckman, one of Spring Mills good citizens was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday.

—J. C. Vonada and wife, of Centre Hill, were pleasant callers in our sanctum, and before leaving another label was changed into the star column.

—Our esteemed friend, Wm. Rishel, of Tusseyville, favored our sanctum with a call, and put his label into the '98 ranks. He tells us crops over there look fine only the corn being back.

—Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, of Washington, D. C., is on an extended visit to friends in Harrisburg, Milton and Bellefonte, and spent a day with the family of the editor of the Reporter.

—Mrs. W. W. Boob entertained Miss Rose Armbruster, of Nittany valley, last Saturday, and on Monday Mrs. Steininger, of Hartleton, was her guest.

—Cyrus Brungart, one of Millheim's leading business men, gave us a pleasant call and reports health good down that way. His label now shines in class '98.

—J. W. Runkle and wife, of Middleburg, last week took a carriage trip to their former home in this vicinity, to visit friends. They informed us crops look considerably finer in our valley than in Snyder county. They were accompanied by Mr. W. H. Smith and wife of the same place.

—Mr. Luther Wagoner, of Selinsgrove, spent Monday in Centre Hall. Mr. Wagoner is an applicant for the grammar school at this place and comes well recommended.

—Mrs. Philip Meyer and daughter, of Boalsburg, were entertained at the home of Jared Kreamer on Church street this week.

—Clem Deininger accompanied by his mother, left last Saturday for New Bloomfield. Mrs. Deininger will remain some time with her daughter, Mrs. James E. Stewart.

—John and Andrew Gregg departed Tuesday for New Mexico, where they have an uncle residing. They will make that their future home.

BRUSH VALLEY

Interesting Items from Our Correspondent Down the Valley.

Miss Kate McKibbens, of Parvin, is visiting her relatives at Hebersburg.

Mrs. Harvey Miller, of Rebersburg, is seriously ill.

Miss Sarah Moyer, of Centre Mills, left on Saturday morning for a few weeks' visit with her many old friends at Bloomsburg Normal school, and her relatives at Orangeville.

On Sunday the corner stone of the United Evangelical church was laid at Wolf's Store.

Our farmers have now plenty of rain for their corn, and the crop will be good, providing the army worm will not destroy it.

Superintendent C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, who was appointed one of the examiners at the State Normal school at Lock Haven last year, left for East Stroudsburg Normal, where he will be examiner of physics, higher algebra, etc.
