DID YOU READ

Our last weeks offer? If not see it now, as follows:

Dress Gingham 6 Cents.

It is very unusual to cut prices this early in the season, but we are determined to give our friends every advantage possible, therefore have concluded to sell for a limited time

Dress Gingham at Domestic Gingham Prices.

Now is the time for you to profit by this cut. We cannot replace them at such prices, therefore we limit the time and the number of pieces.

This may not be worth reading, but it's worth investigating. This week we will add a lot of Lawns, Mulls, Challis, and other thin summer dress stuffs to the above lot, and sell them at remarkably low prices.

DON'T FORGET TO GIVE US A REST.

Store Will Be Closed July 5, All Day.

WOLF & CRAWFORD

Piscatorial.

The trout season is near its end—July 15 ends the persecution of the speckled by the sport seeking anglers; of course the illegal fisherman will keep up his ways irrespective of law.

Fishermen found this season better than in the two previous years. Editor Harter, of the Gazette, gets the premium for having caught the largest number, his shingle having a few over 500 notches up to last Saturday. The editor of the Reporter in former years standing up head, now steps down to third below. Chas. R. Kurtz, of the Democrat, takes the medal for large trout on average.

Rev. Eisenberg and Simon Harper have landed some beauties that made up in weight what may have lacked in numbers.

On Thursday and Friday of last week dominies Christine and Rhodes, Presbyterian and United Evangelical, cast their bunk at Pat Garrity's and fed worms to the speckled beauties in the streams of that vicinity, and lured some 130 onto their hooks and landed them in their baskets. Going through the thickets of such territory added to the tangle of lines in the brush, we opine would tempt swear words even from ministers if they carried any such with them.

The editors of the Gazette and the Reporter Friday and Saturday last put in two half days in the wildest wilds of the Seven mountains and succeeded in hooking 11 dozen of nice trout.

TEACHERS ELECTED.

The Directors Met on Monday Evening and Transacted Important Business.

The school directors met Monday evening, and elected the teachers for the coming year. All directors were present, owing to the important business to be transacted at this session of the board.

The directors decided upon a tax rate of six mills to raise sufficient money to run the schools for the year.

In the election of teachers, Prof. Thomas B. Shannon, of Turbotville, was unanimously elected principal. Prof. Shannon comes highly recommended, and he was selected from a list of seven applicants. He has been teaching for over fifteen years, and the directors are assured that he will give satisfaction. For the second grade school, W. A. Krise was elected, and Frank Foreman, who taught the second grade last year was assigned to the primary. Before balloting on teachers a resolution was adopted not to consider any applicant whose certificate was over 1.5 and this resolution debarred quite a number.

The term was fixed at eight months as before. On this question the board was divided for some time. Some favored only seven months, while others wanted eight, but the short terms finally gave in.

Mattern Family Reunion.

Two thousand people on Saturday attended the second reunion of the Mattern family at Warrior's Mark. The reunion celebrates the 171st year of the Mattern family in America. In the morning addresses were delivered by Prof. L. W. Mattern, of Baltimore; John W. Mattern, of Philadelphia; and Rev. John A. Mattern, of Newton Hamilton. The principal speaker in the afternoon was Bishop J. H. Vincent, D. D., LL. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church, who taught a country school forty-five years ago near the scene of the reunion, numbering among his pupils several of the Matterns.

Death of a Former Aaronsburg Lady.

Mrs. Leah Spyrker, widow of George Spyrker, many years a resident of Aaronsburg, died in Williamsport, on 18, aged 78 years, 9 months, and 7 days. Interment in the Millfinburg cemetery where her husband died some years ago and was laid to rest; the family moved from Aaronsburg to the latter town many years ago.

A son, Charles, once an apprentice in the Reporter office, survives and resides at Williamsport. A daughter, Mary E., was the first wife of C. F. Herlacher, formerly a citizen and merchant of Centre Hall; she died here.

Gone to Europe.

Mrs. Isaac Mitchell and Misses Caroline Orvis, Mary Thomas, Blanche Hayes and Mary Hendrickson, of Bellefonte, sailed for Europe Tuesday of last week. Their trip will last three months.

It may be fashionable to go to Europe, and we wish the ladies a pleasant time, but a trip to California, with its unsurpassed natural wonders and lovely scenery, gives one far more real enjoyment and value for your money than any trip to Europe.

An Aged Lady.

To the list of aged women in our valley, belongs the widow of Frederick Weaver, of near Aaronsburg, and being his second wife. She will be 88 years old next week, and has a comfortable home with her step-son, Israel Weaver, near Aaronsburg. She is in fair health yet for one of her age. Mr. Luckenbach, photographer of our town, is a brother of this lady, and on a recent visit, took a photograph of the family group, consisting of the widow, the sons, Israel, Aaron and Frank and their wives and children.

Fire in Union County.

About one o'clock, Tuesday morning of last week, fire totally destroyed the house occupied by David Vonada, at Turtle Creek, in East Buffalo twp. But very little was saved of the contents on which there was no insurance. The house was owned by Esther Vonada, of Lewisburg, and insured for $1100 in the Buffalo Val. Fire Ins. Co.—Journal.

Outside the County.

Joseph Hassinger, one of the oldest residents of Snyder county, died at his home in Adamsburg, on Tuesday of last week, aged 82 years.

Adam Smith, who left his home in Black Log, Juniata county, several weeks ago, has been found dead on one of the mountains of Perry county.

No Paper Next Week.

Next week being 4th of July week, no paper will be issued from this office, in accordance with a time-honored custom of the country. Our patrons will kindly indulge us in the omission.

Death at Loganton.

The wife of George Kleckner died at Loganton on Thursday of last week after a lingering illness, aged 77 years. Her husband and two children survive.

—For Sale.—A 15-horse power boiler and a 10-horse power engine, good as new. Price reasonable. W. W. Boob, Centre Hall.

MURDERED BY HER NEPIEW.

A Union County Boy Wanted by Philadelphia Officials.

On the 9th of June, Charles, alias Frank Adams, murdered his aunt, Mrs. Mary Rogers, at her home 816 Capital street, Philadelphia. He hid her body in the cellar of the house, and covered it with a pile of bricks, boards and wash tubs. He disappeared the next day taking with him his uncle's gold watch and about sixty dollars in money, says the Lewisburg Journal.

The body was not discovered until June 18 and was so badly decayed that they were afraid of touching it for fear it would fall apart, and all was left there until the coroner came to take possession.

Adams is a native of New Berlin. About ten years ago he was sentenced by Judge Bucher to the house of refuge. He was released from the Philadelphia county prison only on April 19, where he had been serving time for the theft of a bicycle, and had been living at his aunt's house since that time. He served four years in the House of Refuge for stealing money from his aunt and four years in the Eastern Penitentiary, for a serious charge preferred against him by a little girl.

Detectives from Philadelphia have been hunting for Adams over at New Berlin, but have found no clue to his whereabouts.

He is described as being 5 feet 8 or 9 inches in height, 140 or 150 pounds, light complexion, smooth face, dressed in a gray coat, and a dark pair of pants and a brown stiff hat."

It was rumored that Adams had been seen in the vicinity of Lewisburg a few days ago, but the story is likely without any foundation.

Scared His Wife to Death.

George Albright, of Altoona, was arrested on Monday on the charge of being responsible for the death of his wife. Mrs. Albright gave birth to a son a few days ago and her husband, to celebrate the event, went out and got drunk. When he came home, it is alleged he whipped his mother-in-law Mrs. Nellie Snow, and threatened to kill the mother and her child.

Mrs. Albright was scared into insanity by the conduct of her husband and sank steadily till death ensued next morning. Coroner McCartney held an inquest on the case and decided that Albright was guilty of murder. Mrs. Albright was but 16 years of age.

Took a Run-off.

On Monday while Potter's Mills popular merchant, Emanuel Smith, had his two horse team tied near the station, the horses took fright and ran off in the direction of home. This side of Old Fort a teamster with a load of hay spied the team tearing towards him and had the presence of mind to turn his wagon with hay square across the road, which brought the run-offs to a halt with no further damage than a broken spring.

Governor's Signature to Some Bills.

The Governor has approved the bill to prevent wearing of a badge or button of any labor or fraternal organization without right of membership under penalty of $100 fine. The Governor has also signed the bill to prohibit the adulteration or coloring of milk and cream by the addition of so called preservitives or coloring matter.

A Tax on Dagos.

Governor Hastings on Tuesday last signed the Campbell bill imposing a tax of three cents a day on all employed unaturalized foreigners. The tax is to be deducted from the wages of this class beginning July 1 next. The bill will put about $1,000,000 a year into the treasuries of the various counties of the state. One-half goes to the school fund on the basis of the number of schools and the balance for the general expenses of the counties.

Married.

At the Lutheran parsonage, Centre Hall, Pa., June 28th, by Rev. J. M. Reरिक, Mr. Edward J. Sweetwood, of Georges valley, and Miss Dora Weaver, of Tusseyville, were united in marriage.

Veteran of Two Wars Dead.

William Montgomery, a veteran of the late war, and who was also a soldier in the Mexican war, died last week at his home in Beech Creek borough, aged about 82 years.

Will Jubilate.

Phillipsburg will have a big 4th of July jube on Saturday, 3rd, about the only one in the county. So if you desire to jube, go to Phillipsburg, they are whole-souled there always.

A Remedy for Sunburn.

Water as hot as can be borne will take the sting from sunburn, and cold cream will heal it.

—Every young man wishes to look neatly and well dressed, and desires that his clothing shall be of the latest cut and material, and then the price is an important consideration. Lewins, Bellefonte, has a stock that is the very latest. Everything and a big assortment to select from, which gives that stand the enormous rush it is having. Popular prices does the business.

MAY BE LONG BURIED PLUNDER.

Centre County Farmer Digs Gold from Under a Pine Stump.

While farmer Small, living in the narrows leading from Union into Centre county, was digging stumps out of a piece of new ground he uncovered a purse of gold beneath the roots of a pine stump. It contained but a little over two hundred dollars in money, but the make of the purse and the date of the coin have caused comment.

The coins were of a date prior to 1820, while the purse, though badly decayed, could be made out to have been of cured buckskin, home-made, and of the kind carried three-quarters of a century ago. Farmer Small is reticent regarding his find, and for this reason some believe the purse larger than stated.

There is no doubt that this is some of the money hidden by the famous robbers, Lewis and Connelly, who roamed this section of the country 70 years ago. The narrows was one of their favorite haunts, and the finding of this money has given cause to believe there is more hidden in this section.

Centre Co. Dogs That Has Larnin'.

George D. Mechling, of Centre county, indulged himself in a peculiar idea in dog training yesterday, says the Pittsburg Times. He owns two beautiful pointer pups. They are perfectly trained. Before he left for home last night he exhibited the dogs at the Union depot. He had bought a few pieces of meat for them. There was a crowd gathered about owner and dogs when the show began. First Mechling placed the meat on the floor and released both dogs from their leash. Neither moved toward the meat, but trembled with anxiety to get at it. Then he gave a word of command and they moved to the meat. "Steady," and both pointed beautifully, with their noses within six inches of the tempting meat. "Down," and they lay down. Then he made them rise, run to the end of the platform and return; jump on a truck and sit up and beg; bring the meat to him in their mouths, and then carry it back again to the spot on which they got it. After they had done all this he bade them eat, and they swallowed the food. He said they were five months old, and not show dogs, just ordinary, well-bred, setter pups. He also stated that he brought them to the city with him just to see how they would behave in the noisy crowds. He was satisfied.

Not True.

The story in the city dailies that George Taylor, a farmer of near State College, was thrown from a mower on Saturday, and being caught by the knives, was cut to pieces, we are informed by telephone, is not true.

Why the city dailies permit their Bellefonte correspondents to send such outrageously false stuff from this county, as is so often printed in them, is a wonder. Let them oftener copy from the Centre Reporter and those dailies will have what is reliable.

Kicked by a Horse.

A hired man of farmer Ripka, near Linden Hall, was kicked in the face by a horse this morning, knocking out all but two of his upper teeth and badly fracturing his jaw. He called upon Dr. Emerick to have the injured parts dressed.

The injured man's name is Wagner, aged about 18 years. He received the kick in the stable while in the act of fixing the crupper in harnessing the horse.

From Pulpit to Law.

It is announced that Rev. Ralph Hlingsworth will shortly quit the pulpit for the practice of law, he having been admitted to practice at the bar of this county. Rev. Hlingsworth some years ago was pastor of the Centre Hall M. E. church and was popular and eloquent. His desire for the legal profession was co-existent with his entrance upon the ministry. He is at present stationed at Warrior's Mark as pastor of that charge.

Fourth of July Souvenir.

Trumbull's famous painting, "The Signing of the Declaration of Independence," which hangs in the Capitol at Washington, has been reproduced in colors for the first time, and will be given free to every reader of next Sunday's Philadelphia "Press" (July 4). It is a Fourth of July souvenir which is certain to be eagerly sought after. It deserves to be highly prized, not only because of its value as a work of art, but because of the lesson in patriotism which it teaches. Be sure to order a copy of next Sunday's "Press" from your new-dealer.

Improvements.

Neighbor Fleisher, down street, is having his residence repainted and a large new porch added to the front.

Robt. Foreman, at the south end of our town, is having his house painted in tasty style.

Mrs. Carson's new house at Potters bank is now under roof and when finished it will be one of the finest residences in that vicinity.

—Lewins, Bellefonte, can give you an up-to-date equipment of clothing for less money than any other store in the country. Try him and see.

A Car Load of MEN'S SPRING SHOES.

Spring Shoes galore. We're still harping on that one strain. A little better shoe for a little lower price than possibly obtainable elsewhere.
