

PERSONAL MENTION.

Somting and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

J. B. Heckman, of Spring Mills, favored our sanctum with a call.

Charley Weiser spent Sunday with his mother at Hartleton, Union county.

Mrs. Charles Meyers and little daughter Miriam, are visiting friends at Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Moyer, of Rebersburg, spent Tuesday night with friends in town.

Mrs. Joshua Potter and daughter Mary Delinda, spent a week visiting among friends at Milton.

Mrs. James Love, of Manhattan, Illinois, is visiting among friends in Centre Hall and vicinity.

Miss Emma Foster and niece, Miss Mary Barber, of Millinburg, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Odenkirk.

Rev. Daniel Mitterling, of Michigan, arrived here last Friday, the picture of health, to visit old home and friends.

John Van Pelt left last Thursday on a three weeks' visit to his grandfather and other relatives at Ithica, N. Y.

Miss Emilie B. Swartz departed for her home in Bethlehem, Pa., after a three weeks' visit to her friend Miss Grace Smith.

Prof. H. F. Bitner joined his family at Atlantic City last week, where they have been spending several weeks.

Jonathan Harter, of Millheim, and Mrs. Sarah Mensch, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday with relatives in Centre Hall.

Miss Breeze Benner is visiting at Clinton county, among the Taylor's, Mann's and Holloway's; she reports having a very pleasant time.

Miss May Rhone, a clerk under Dr. Warren, State Zoologist, at Harrisburg, is spending her vacation at home with her parents.

Mrs. Walton W. Bayard returned to her home in Philadelphia Tuesday after a three weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. W. A. Kerr, near Centre Hill.

Mrs. Sallie Cottle and daughter, Miss Jennie, of Brookville, Pa., are guests at the home of Miss Cottle's aunt, Mrs. John Moore, west of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frank and son Clarence, of Spring Mills, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Kreamer, on Church street.

Robert Dellett, one of Centre Hall's best behaved boys, is spending a short time visiting friends in Mifflin county where Robert is as much esteemed as in this burg.

Mrs. M. L. Roberts, nee Miss Amanda Krumbine, and little daughter, of Washington, D. C., arrived last week on an extended visit to her brother, John Krumbine.

Miss Kate Alexander arrived in Centre Hall on Tuesday and is visiting her brother, Dr. J. F. Alexander. Miss Kate has been making her home in California for several years, but will not return to the Pacific coast.

Dr. Gobble, president of the Central Pennsylvania College at New Berlin, is visiting his father in Gregg township and other friends in the valley. Last Thursday he was the guest of Rev. W. W. Rhoads, pastor of the United Evangelical church, who showed him around our beautiful town.

Col. J. L. Spangler and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his father in Centre Hall. The Col. is being strongly urged and pushed forward as the strongest candidate to represent this district in Congress. Although defeated last fall in the general landslide which struck this Democratic district, the Colonel may finally consent to allow his name to be used for a renomination. If he does, he will surely win, as the Republicans themselves are becoming disgusted with Congressman Arnold.

The Alaskan Gold Fields.

If the gold fields of Alaska were more accessible, a rush of prospectors would take place to the new El Dorado something like that which was attracted to California. As it is, with the difficulties of the journey fully known, there will be many to venture into the interior of that distant territory.

Adventurous spirits read about a ship taking a ton of gold into Port Townsend, brought away from the new fields by 68 miners as the reward of three months' work, and the gold fever rises in their veins. The steamer Portland took a million dollars' worth of gold into Seattle, and there are reports that individual miners have found as much as $100,000 worth of metal. It is very attractive to read that "every river in Alaska is filled with gold," and that while all the vicinity of Klondyke has been staked, there is room for hundreds of prospectors more.

The trip to Alaska is a long one, and it is very expensive traveling. The cost of living is very high after the fields are reached. The work of gold hunting is done in the winter, when the streams are frozen and the gold-bearing gravel can be gathered and stied up, ready to be washed out in the spring. Every prospector should have provisions to last eight months, and the labor and expense of transporting these supplies add to the difficulties of gold hunting in Alaska.

Nevertheless, it is certain that the influx of adventurers into the Klondyke region in the next few months will be very large. A great deal of gold will no doubt be discovered, but the men who go with stocks of food, clothes and other supplies, to sell to the gold hunters, will make more money than a great many of the prospectors.

LINDEN HALL.

A Pleasant Surprise at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Jr.

Frank Tharp and wife Sunday with friends at Boalsburg.

There has been a good crop of cherries this year, quite a number going to waste.

J. A. Gettig and brother John took a trip to Potters Mills Monday afternoon.

Mr. Burris and wife and son Charles spent Sunday with friends near Centre Hill.

Mrs. Henry Zeigler has been visiting friends at Pleasant Gap for the last week or two.

Mr. Reifs, of Millheim, is paying a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Wesley Tressler.

Tom Decker and wife, of State College, were guests at the home of Newt Yarnell Sunday.

The rains the beginning of the week freshened up the corn a little, but it is still longing for more.

W. E. Gettig and wife, of Altoona, were visiting at his old home on Saturday and Sunday of last week.

The United Evangelical congregation of this place contemplate holding a bush meeting in the near future.

Emma Yearick, one of Nittany Hall's fair young maidens, spent a few days last week with friends at this place.

Quite a number of our young people attended the Sprucetown festival on Saturday and had a very nice time.

The threshing season is here; the whistle of the engine and the hum of the machine can now be heard from all sides.

Miss Leah Grove, one of Bellefonte's successful seamstresses is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Rockey, south of town.

The banquet given by the I. O. O. F. of Boalsburg, on Saturday evening was well represented by their members of this place with their families.

Prosperity seems to be advancing as Joseph Page has left our quiet village and gone to the county seat where he has secured employment at the roller mill; success to you Joe.

On Sunday two of our young ladies were invited to "ground hog roast," which they enjoyed very greatly, but thought it had rather large bones. Go to Briggs' for good ground hog.

Wm. Rockey and family, accompanied by Mr. Rockey's sister, Miss Leah Grove, drove to Spring Mills on Sunday to visit friends and take in the beautiful scenery of that village.

One day last week while Clyde Weiland was driving two horses in the binder across the bridge leading from their home to the public road one of the planks broke letting the horses down into the water which was pretty deep at that place; help soon arrived and the horses were rescued from their perilous position.

On Saturday evening the 10th inst., Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Jr., were quite agreeably surprised; it was the birth-day anniversary of both, and from seven until eight o'clock the guests kept arriving with baskets full of good things; fifty or sixty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ross were the recipients of many pretty presents, and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. The wish of all is that they will live to see many happy birth-days.
