

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. —Arthur Kerlin was up in Tyrone last week on a business trip. —The Misses Krise entertained at their guest yesterday, Miss Brisbin, of Lemont. —C. F. Deiningger went to Atlantic City on Saturday afternoon on a short vacation. —Miss Roxanna Brisbane is spending the week in Bellefonte visiting friends. —Miss Emilie and Grace Alexander spent Tuesday at Lemont visiting at the Dale home. —Wagner Geiss has been reelected to the school at Oak Hall which he taught last year. —Squire Wm. M. Grove, of near Centre Hill, was doing some surveying in town Monday. —Miss Mabel Zeigler, of Millheim, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Benj. Arney, on Church street. —Miss Blanche Boal returned home a few days ago after a month's visit among friends in Lock Haven. —Miss Mary Swartz, of Duncannon, Pa., is the guest of her friend, Miss Grace Smith since last Thursday. —Mrs. Glover, wife of Dr. Glover, of Altoona, was the guest of her friend Miss Mame Kreamer on Friday and Saturday. —Wm. Goheen, of Boalsburg, the popular auctioneer and general all-around good fellow, was in town on Monday. —Will Conley and family, of Bellefonte, spent yesterday at the Conley home east of town and took in the picnic. —Mr. John Bitner returned home last week, after making a short visit to his daughter, Mrs. Eugene Shadle, at Williamsport. —M. L. Roberts, of Washington, D. C., joined his wife, nee Miss Amanda Krumbine, in her visit to her brother, John Krumbine. —Miss Alda Sankey is at Milesburg at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Gregg, who is quite ill and has been for several weeks. —Sumner Hosterman returned home Friday evening from a visit of several weeks with College chums at Hanover and other places. —David Dale, of Lemont, and his friend Frank Leisinger, of Chambersburg, spent Saturday at Penn Cave and with friends in this town. —Claire and Lizzie Kennedy, daughters of J. Q. A. Kennedy, of Johnstown, are visiting at the home of Chas. Arney, on Church street. —Mrs. Smith, wife of Dr. Smith, of Freeburg, Snyder county, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heckman, west of town the past week. —Cal. Weaver, deputy under sheriff Condo, was in town Monday interviewing our merchants. He is traveling for a large house through the district. —Miss Laura Schwab, of Philadelphia, and Miss Emma Cook, of Lewisburg, two very charming and vivacious young ladies are spending the week as guests of Miss Jennie Odenkirk. —We were pleased to have a call from Rev. J. W. Boal, of Port Carbon, formerly the highly esteemed pastor of the Presbyterian congregation of this place, and who has many warm friends here. —Prothonotary W. F. Smith and wife, of Bellefonte, took supper on Monday evening at Runkle's hotel. They had been visiting friends down the valley and were on their way home. —D. F. Luse went to Altoona last Thursday in which locality he was taking orders for his hydrants. Mrs. Luse accompanied him to Tyrone where she visited relatives. They returned again Saturday. —Jacob Winkelblech, one of the Reporter's old and promptly paying subscribers, of Coburn, gave our sanction a call and put his label into the ranks of the 98's. He reports crops good in that section. —H. S. Grove, one of our valley's young men, left on Monday for Palestine, Texas, where he expects to locate permanently. We hope he will succeed in this far off state and return with shekels galore to his old home again. —Mrs. H. F. Bitner and three sons, of Millersville, Pa., arrived last week on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murray. They had been spending several weeks enjoying the sea breezes at Atlantic City. —Misses Anna and Ada Goodhart, daughters of ex-commissioner George Goodhart, of Centre Hill, started yesterday for an extended trip to Illinois and Wisconsin. They expect to remain in the west visiting their friends and relatives for about three months. —One of the largest stocks of Spring and Summer clothing ever received in this part of the state, was received recently by Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. It is a tremendous stock and the prices are as low in comparison, and "move it."

Hadn't Washed for 16 Years. The Sunbury Democrat says: A few days ago Poor Director Koble was notified that there was a very sick man in a box car in the upper yard, and knowing that a little medicine would be cheaper than a funeral, he investigated the case. The charge was removed to the Farm below town and the necessary medicine administered. A bath heads the list of the unalterable rules of the place, to which proposition the stranger demurred most radically, but the evidence for the necessity of the job was overwhelming. The patient finally agreed and while the process of renovation was going on it was discovered that the supposed man so dressed when taken in charge, was a buxom woman of about 165 pounds. She was allowed to tarry a day and was then furnished with one of those fabulously low priced July outfits advertised by our merchants and sent off in the direction of Harrisburg. On leaving she remarked that if her 34 cent per yard uniform held out until that city was reached she would discard it for men's attire again because dress goods won't go on freight trains. She has been on the "road" for sixteen years and had not washed in that time. Delightful Vacation Trip. Visiting Watkins Glen, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Quebec, Montreal, Au Sable Chasm, Lake Champlain and Lake George, Saratoga and the Highlands of the Hudson. Leave Philadelphia by special train August 17. The tour will be in charge of one of the company's tourist agents. An experienced chaperon will also accompany the party, having especial charge of unescorted ladies. The rate of $100 from New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Trenton, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Baltimore, and Washington covers railway and boat fare for the entire round trip, parlor car seats, meals en route, hotel entertainment, transfer charges, carriage hire—in fact every item of necessary expense. For detailed itinerary, tickets, or any additional information, address Tourist Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 1196 Broadway, New York; 860 Fulton Street, Brooklyn; or Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia. aug5-2t The Farmer's Outlook. The statements of the fiscal year just ended show that the agricultural element of the country has enjoyed a greatly improved condition during the past year, while other statements received are equally gratifying as to the prospects for the coming year. The exportations of breadstuffs during the year ending June 30, 1897, amounted to $189,838,826 in value, against $136,846,845 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, and $100,967,758 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895. This is an increase of $53,000,000 in the pockets of the farmers for the year just ended for breadstuffs alone, as compared with the preceding year, and an increase of $79,000,000 compared with the year 1895. The exportations of cattle for the fiscal year just ended amounted to about $2,000,000 more than in the preceding year, fresh beef increased about $4,000,000 and hams $3,000,000. How it is Done Out West. A western paper, with ideas of its own as to the proper method of receiving pay from those it serves, has printed the following editorial: "Persons knowing themselves to be indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All those indebted to this office and not knowing it, are requested to call and find out. All those knowing themselves indebted, and not wishing to call are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to catch them. All persons who are not indebted are requested to call and get indebted." Lost in the Mountains. About ten days ago two daughters of Thomas Ilgen, of Logan Mills, aged 17 and 9 years, went to the mountains to get berries. Failing to return in the evening, a searching party was organized to look for them. Late in the night only they were found, the youngest one asleep and her sister sitting by her side silently weeping. They had gotten lost and were unable to get righted again until night came on and enveloped them in darkness. New Post Masters. Up to date six Democratic post-masters have been made to walk the plank in this county and their places filled by Republicans, viz: Hublersburg, T. L. Kessinger. Milesburg, George Taylor. Clarence, John Madill. Madisonburg, Joseph Bierly. Feidler, J. W. Geistweit. Centre Mills, G. W. Diehl. The above Republicans undoubtedly feel happy and believe prosperity has struck 'em. The next pull will be on Centre Hall. Ribbons. Straw Hats, And Flowers. Will be sold AT COST. To make room for new stock. C. E. OSMAN & Co.
