

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Sumner Hosterman and John Keller spent Sunday with friends in Boalsburg.

—Mrs. John K. Hosterman, of Wolfs Store, visited her son Dr. G. W. Hosterman on Monday.

—W. B. Rankin, of insurance fame, Bellefonte, was in town yesterday looking up risks.

—Will McCormick, of Tyrone, was in this section last week, canvassing for a picture enlarging house.

—Mr. J. H. Huff, of Lamar, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Crawford, since Tuesday.

—Wm. Bower, of Potter's Mills, transacted business in town and, as usual, gave our sanctum a call.

—Mrs. Maude Reareck, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amanda Spangler.

—Adam S. Bierley, of Penn Cave, the lumber operator, was in Centre Hall Monday transacting business.

—Clyde Smith, who is now working in a music store, in Williamsport, came home on a short visit to his parents last week.

—Miss Anna Knight, of Lock Haven, and Miss Jessica Herr, of Salona, have been the guests of Miss Tace Kreamer since Saturday.

—Squire M. L. Rishell, of Farmers Mills, and one of the foremost Democrats and leaders in North Gregg was in town yesterday.

—Miss Roxanna Brisbane left last Thursday on a visit to friends and relatives in Harrisburg and other eastern points. She expects to remain some time.

—R. M. McGee, Esq., wife and two sons, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of Mrs. McGee's sister, Mrs. George Emeric and her mother Mrs. John Harper.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Potter, left here on Wednesday, to attend the railroad picnic at Gibbons' Park, to-day, and will spend a few days with friends in Kishacoquillas valley.

—Mr. John J. Bollinger, of Hanover and Mr. H. D. Martin, of Jacksonsville, college mates and fraternity brothers of S. V. Hosterman, are spending some time with him.

—Misses Catharine and Edith Dale, of Lemont, with their friends, Miss Cassin, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Allyn, of Texas, were the guests yesterday of Emilie and Grace Alexander.

—J. Linn Harris and Ed. Harris, of Bellefonte, were in Centre Hall Tuesday looking up trade for their planing mill in Bellefonte. Centre Hall's steady building operations are attracting dealers in building materials into the town.

—Al. P. Wieland, one of our former boys, but now in charge of the Syracuse, N. Y., branch of H. J. Heinz Co., picklers, stopped in town an hour or so Tuesday evening while on his way to Linden Hall on a short visit to his parents. Al. found no little pleasure in informing his friends that he is the father of a ten-day-old bouncing boy, whom he prizes above all things now, and wouldn't swap him on the biggest gold nugget taken out of the Klondike diggings.

The Boalsburg Reunion.

Dear Reporter:—Inasmuch as you have manifested an interest in the reunion of the Boalsburg Academy, I feel free in asking a little space in your paper, to tell of the doings of the committee on arrangements, etc. We have not only been able to locate many of the students, but have also met some whom we never thought of being old students. One grizzled old fellow said: "Pshaw! Why we attended the Boalsburg Academy when you must have been a kid, and the reunion will be as much our wedding as yours, and we can scare up more guests, and of better calibre, than characterizes your list, etc." Of course, any one acquainted in this locality will readily know the above is George Koch's talk, and we are glad to know that George attended the school. We are also surprised to find so many ardent admirers of the Boalsburg Academy still among us. They are gray headed and wrinkled, but their minds are vivid with recollections of school days. All of these old veterans are enlisted, and doing all they can to make the reunion a success; such as will reflect credit upon Boalsburg and vicinity. We are sure, too, that Boalsburg will give such a welcome to all who may attend the reunion that will forever put it where it belongs on the list of benevolent towns.

For information in regard to train service and specific rates application should be made to ticket agents.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LAWS.

Some Facts Our Readers Will be Interested in Knowing.

The following laws relating to the public schools of the state were among those passed by the late legislature, according to the Harrisburg School Gazette:

The school boards may purchase flags and shall display them whenever they deem proper.

That school children shall have the use of the books of the board during vacation for a pay or select school, provided the teacher has a valid certificate.

That school directors shall be authorized to provide transportation for school children, at the expense of the district, to the public schools of the district in which they reside or to the schools of neighbor districts.

That a copy of Small's Legislative Handbook shall now and hereafter following each decennial census, be placed in each public school of the Commonwealth, and biennially a copy of the School Laws and Decisions, by the State Superintendent.

That independent school districts now existing may be abolished by the courts whenever a majority of the taxable citizens of any school district, out of which any independent district may be created, petition for action.

That school directors may establish and maintain, out of the public school treasury, free kindergartens for children between the ages of three and six years, residing in the district.

That it shall be unlawful for any industrial establishment to employ any minor who cannot read and write in the English language, unless he has attended in the preceding year, an evening or day school for a period of sixteen weeks.

That school boards shall have power to levy a per capita tax of one dollar annually on every male inhabitant who is of age.

That the compulsory school law be so amended as to increase the compulsory age to sixteen years, to require attendance continuously during at least seventy per cent of the term, which period shall begin at the beginning of the school term, or at a time to be fixed by the school board at their organization; that between the ages of 13 and 16 a child shall be excused if he has regular employment.

Yellowstone Park.

The Yellowstone National Park is unquestionably the most interesting region on the globe, for within it is displayed the greatest collection of nature's manifold wonders. Indeed, this mountain-bound plateau, high up on the summit of the everlasting Rockies, is a veritable play ground for the world's giant forces. To stand and gaze upon them in all their marvelous manifestations, the great geyser upheavals, the fierce steam blasts, the terrible leap of the river, and the awful canon, is a revelation, an experience to be had at no other point on the earth.

The personally-conducted tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which leaves New York on September 2, affords the most satisfactory means of visiting this wonderland and viewing its marvelous features. Tourists will travel by special train of Pullman smoking, dining, sleeping, and observation cars in each direction. Eight days will be spent in the Park. Stops will also be made returning at St. Paul and Chicago. The round-trip rate, $235 from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, $230 from Pittsburg, covers all necessary expenses.

The Advance in the Price of Wheat.

The New York World says: This year's wheat crop is estimated at 500,000,000 bushels. Each cent added to the price means $5,000,000 poured into the laps of the farmers. The actual advance in a year has been about 25 cents a bushel, or $125,000,000.

There was also left over of last year's crop 190,000,000 bushels to share in the enormous advance in price.

Of this year's crop only 72,000,000 bushels have been sold thus far. All of it has been sold at the advanced price, and now that the price is still higher than it was earlier in the year, with a good prospect of further advance, the farmers are themselves holding no less than 428,000,000 bushels for future sale. If they get but 50 cents a bushel on the average—and they are getting more than that—the wheat now in their barns will bring them the enormous sum of $214,000,000 with which to pay off their debts and put money into bank. What is the Klondike compared with this?
