

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Alfred Hosterman, of Centre Hill, favored our sanctum with a call. —Miss Lou Camp, of Tyrone, is visiting friends in town and taking in the picnic. —Miss Elsie Herring, of Altoona, is spending the week with relatives in Centre Hall. —Mrs. Della Brungard, of Lewisburg, is visiting at the home of Mr. H. W. Kreamer. —Witmer Smith, of Williamsport, arrived Monday and will take in the picnic this week. —Our former citizen Wm. Lohr, of Lewisburg, came up last Saturday to attend the picnic. —Mrs. Joseph Gilliland, of New Bloomfield, Pa., is visiting among friends in Centre Hall and vicinity. —Our old friend Jacob Neese, of Farmers' Mills, gave us a call and put his label in good shape as is his way. —Mrs. Zeb. Krise and son Mayne, are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jane Love, on Church street. —Cleven Dinges and wife, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of his mother, and taking in the picnic. —Mr. Clem. Hemphill, of Philadelphia, spent a week at the home of Mr. J. R. Lawyer, at Earleystown, returning again last Friday. —D. F. Luse was down at Laurelton Monday, showing the merits of his hydrant to a new water company recently incorporated there. —Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shadle and little son, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Shadle's father, Mr. John Bitner, west of town. —Mrs. Elizabeth Barber departed this morning for her home at Milton. She had been visiting among the Boal families here for the last three months. —Mrs. C. D. Runkle, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Agnes Spangler, of Joliet, Illinois, arrived last week, and are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. George M. Boal. —Charley Dorworth, of Bellefonte, is reporting the picnic for the Philadelphia "Inquirer" and "Press." He is a keen observer and his "stories" are always bright and strong. —Rev. Bosler, an itinerant colored minister, held services in the Evangelical church basement Sunday evening. Monday evening he delivered a lecture on the colored race. —Mrs. Samuel Barr, of Tyrone, was a guest at the home of Mrs. J. C. Boal over Sunday. She will spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Stiver, at Centre Hill. —Col. James F. Weaver, one of the leading and level headed members of the Grange organization, in company with his grand-son Fred, gave the Reporter a call. He is hopeful that this week's picnic will be a great success. —Prof. George Snyder, of State College, the newly-elected principal of the Centre Hall schools, was in town several days the latter part of last week in consultation with the school directors, and becoming acquainted with our citizens and the pupils.

The Man Who Kicks.

Don't love a man who always kicks, no matter what you do, who kicks with most prodigious ease the whole long season through; who kicks if all goes right, who kicks because he likes to kick, and kicks with all his might. We know some awful kickers on this wicked mundane sphere, who came to earth by accident, and now kick because they're here; they make themselves uncomfortable and other people sick, they drive themselves to suicide and still they always kick. We know a man who kicks and kicks the blessed livelong day, and if there is naught to kick about he's kicking anyway. At times when things are going right and other men would smile he kicks on general principles and kicketh all the while.

Twins Always Thus.

The young mother whose first born started to school for the first time last Monday need not worry her brain trying to induce her hopeful to look nice, and refrain from bringing half the ink in his bottle home on his face and hands each day. The lad's father came, and did likewise, and so will his brothers, cousins, sons and nephews in the future. A boy and a bottle of ink are as hard to keep apart during the first days of school as are his brother and a green apple in June. Nature draws them together and it is always a waste of time to battle with nature's laws.

Pennsylvania Day.

The executive committee of the Pennsylvania commission to the Nashville Exposition have decided to make October 13th Pennsylvania day. The commission, with the Governor and his staff and the Supreme and Superior courts, will leave on October 8, spending two days at Chattanooga at the dedication of the Pennsylvania monuments.

Recent Union Co. Deaths.

In Mazeppa, Mrs. Sidney Forsythe, aged 81 years. In Laurelton, a son of Howard W. Harter, aged 11 months.

COBURN.

Items of Interest from Our Correspondent Down the Valley.

The festival last Saturday evening cleared over $20. Reuben Royer visited in Union county over Sunday. Jerry Kessler, of Rockford, Ill., and Mrs. Peter Kessler, of Rebersburg, visited friends here on Sunday. James Burd, who works at Lewisburg, came home on Friday and remained over Sunday with his family. Mrs. James Burd and daughters went to Centre Hall on Monday morning, and will keep an ice cream stand during the picnic. Miss Ida Weber and Miss Nerhood, two charming young ladies of Rebersburg, drove over to this place one evening last week and remained over night at P. H. Stover's. Two of our young chaps were captivated by their charms, and since their return their hearts have been going pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat.

BRUSH VALLEY ITEMS.

Our Correspondent's Usual Interesting Letter.

The Madisonburg Lutherans held a festival last Saturday eve. Mrs. Ella Erhard, of Millburg, visited relatives in this vicinity. Edward Smull and his wife, came into our valley on Monday. Steward Weaver moved his family to Woodward, where he will teach school. Our farmers who can "get a move on" themselves, as the old saying is, are cutting their corn. Harro Walker, one of Bellefonte's promising young attorneys, was in our valley last Wednesday. Charles Young, of Kansas, has been visiting friends here and in Nittany valley, and will return to Kansas soon. The general opinion is, that there is a panther in the narrows between Brush and Penns valleys, which killed some ten cattle within three weeks. The few respected soldiers of our valley, were nearly all delighted in joining in with the soldiers of our sister county to spend a pleasant day at Hecla Park last Saturday.

Stop My Paper.

After you get angry and stop your paper, just poke your finger into water, pull it out, and look at the hole. Then you will know how sadly you are missed. A man who thinks a paper cannot thrive without his support, ought to go off and stay awhile. When he comes back, half his friends will not know he has gone and the other half will not care, while the world at large kept account of his movements. You will find things you cannot endorse in every paper. The "Book of Books" is often very plain and hits some hard raps, but if you were to get mad and burn your Bible, the hundreds of presses would still go on printing it. So when you stop your paper and call the editor names, the paper will still be published, and what is more, you will read it on the sly.—Cyc.

Going for the Critters.

If Pierce Lingle remains in Poe Valley a while longer wild animals and snakes will be a scarce article. His first encounter was with a catamount, which he brought down with a well aimed blow from his hatchet. His second was when he got into a den of rattlesnakes, 30 of which he captured alive. Last Saturday he was out on the mountain looking after his cattle, when he came across a huge blacksnake. He shot at her but missed his mark, when the snake made for him in good earnest. He turned his gun into a club and in that way dispatched his snakeship.—Journal.

Wilbur F. Reeder Appointed.

Deputy attorney general Elkin having been requested to step out of the Hastings administration because of his leaning to Quay and on account of his having signed the bond for stealing $20,000 from the state treasury. Lawyer Wilbur F. Reeder, of Bellefonte, has been appointed by the Governor to fill Elkin's place. The Reporter extends its congratulations, Wilbur, and trust your party may find timber in you for its gubernatorial candidate.

ORPHAN'S COURT SALE.—THERE WILL be exposed at public sale, at the residence of William Roman, one-half mile west of Farmers Mills, on SATURDAY, SEPT. 25, 1897.

At one o'clock, p. m., the following described valuable real estate, bounded on the west by lands of Felix McChittie heirs, on the north by lands of Mrs. Samuel Raebau and M. L. Rishel, and on the south by lands of J. B. Fisher's heirs, and east of J. P. Rose heirs, containing —126 ACRES AND 153 PERCHES.—About ten acres are well timbered. Thereon erected a large stone dwelling house, suitable for two families, one large bank barn, swing house, pig stable and buggy shed and corn house combined, together with other necessary out-buildings. A choice young orchard containing the choicest varieties of fruit, together with plenty of the best of water close to the buildings. The farm is in a desirable location, being one mile north-east of Penn Cave R. R. station and 2 1/2 miles of Rising Springs station, and one of the best producing farms in the valley. Public road close to the house. Terms of sale will be made known on day of sale by M. L. RISHEL, Executor etc. of Catharine Rishel.

SPECIAL FEATURES

OF The Osborne Columbia Corn Harvester

Reciprocating feeding jaws reach well ahead of the knife and force the cut. Will not pull corn up by the roots. Machine is narrow, can drive through between the rows and open up field without running over the standing corn. Can be successfully operated with two horses. All levers in easy reach of driver. Perfectly balanced, no side draft, and no weight on horses' necks. It has two speeds of chains, front pair running fast enough to straighten up all leaning stalks and incline them a little toward the machine before they are cut off, the rear chains running at a lower speed in unison with the front conveyors. As the stalks stand on end it always makes a square baled bundle. The side extension lugs on the powerful drive wheel prevent it from slipping and give the greatest possible traction power. Gearing on binder attachment is high above the ground, well protected from dirt. The binder floor or bottom can be raised or lowered by a lever within easy reach of the driver for binding long or short corn. The Columbia Corn Harvester gathers, cuts and binds corn in a vertical position. Weeds, grass or pumpkin vines will not wind about or clog the Columbia Corn Harvester. Machine can be set to cut a low or extremely high stubble. Will bind a large or small bundle. IRA C. KORMAN, Agent, Oak Hall, Pa. Send to D. M. Osborne & Co., No. 214 Broad st., Phila., for complete catalogue describing full line of implements that are "winners." sep 24
