respondent. Mrs. Simon Rote, who fell some weeks ago and broke both bones of her right arm, near the elbow, is getting along very well for one of her age, she being in her 84th year. The doctor has hopes that the broken bones will unite and she may again be able to use her arm.

Cyrus Bright was hauling a load of coal from Coburn with his father's horse, and when in the neighborhood of what is known as the Spruce, the horse dropped to the ground as though shot. He got the harness off and tried to get the horse home, but when within a few rods of the Main street it again dropped, made a few struggles and was dead.

The Corner Stone of the United Ev. Church to be Laid Oct. 3rd.

Katie Meyers, of Boalsburg, was a pleasant caller in our community a few days ago. Anna Gettig, of Lewistown, was vistownship's intelligent school teachers, Work on very short notice, and at visited her friends Mary and Nannie Corl last week. Rev. Rhoads preached a very able sermon to a large and appreciative audience on Sunday afternoon, from Psalm 102, part of second verse.

Mr. Ripka, a very promising young man of Snyder county, was entertained at the homes of Samuel Ripka and Jonathan Tressler over Sunday.

Ezra Tressler, of this place, who was caught in the circus tent on Grange Park, Thursday evening last, had quite a thrilling experience which he will not soon forget.

Clara Rishel and Tammie Haines, two pleasant young ladies of State College, were visiting some of their many friends in the vicinity of our town a few days ago.

Our community was well represented at Grange Park last week. Your correspondent was only there one day, but in that short time we swallowed enough dust to last us until next year.

J. H. Ross, our enterprising merchant, is building a handsome portico along the front of the house now occupied by Wm. Stover. This will add greatly to the appearance of the house.

The foundation of the United Evangelieal church is about completed, and the corner stone will be laid on the 3rd of October. Rev. J. B. Reeser, of Berwick, will be present and conduct the services. Services will commence at 10 a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services as they will be interesting.

House breaking seems to have been a specialty among some worthless scamps during picnic week. On Tnursday the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Gettig was entered at a rear window by cutting out a pane of glass and opening the lock. Every room was visited, and trunks, chests, boxes, bureaus were emptied and the contents were strewn over the floor and beds. On the first floor the cupboards and writing desk were ransacked; as there was no money in the house his work was almost vain, a few small articles were missing. A few other houses are reported to have been entered, but nothing definite is known about it nothing definite is known about it. The scamp who is supposed to have done the robbing is spetted, as he was seen walking through this neighborhood; he had better make himself
