

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Hiram Lee, of Potters Mills, was a caller yesterday.

—Miss Roxanna Brisbin has been sworn in as assistant in the post office.

—Mrs. Gottlieb Strohmer went to Philadelphia last Saturday on a visit.

—John Shreffler was spending Sunday with friends down in Aaronsburg.

—John Potter, Esq., of Milesburg, was in town a day or so the early part of the week.

—Mrs. C. M. Bower, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of her brother, D. J. Meyer, yesterday.

—D. C. Keller, the popular landlord of the Haag hotel, gave our sanctum a pleasant call.

—Mrs. Polly Moyer returned Saturday, after a visit of two weeks with friends at Osceola Mills.

—John and Will Smith, the bustling furniture dealers of Spring Mills, were in town yesterday.

—Mrs. Lucy Henney went to Philadelphia Saturday to purchase goods for her millinery store.

—Mrs. Amanda Spangler will leave today on a visit to her sister, Mrs. S. T. Lobaugh, at Millintown.

—Miss Annie Dinges returned from Philadelphia yesterday, where she had gone to purchase millinery goods.

—Mrs. E. J. Ward, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday in town; her mother, Mrs. Stiver, accompanied her to her home.

—Dr. Bright and little daughter Mary, of Rebersburg, spent Monday night with the family of J. D. Kreamer.

—Miss Ida Rhoads left this week for Shippensburg, Pa., where she will take a course of studies in an educational institution.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Rote, of Sallona, Pa., drove to this place last Saturday, and were entertained at the home of J. B. Kreamer over Sunday.

—Miss Tace Kreamer left this morning on a visit to her sister, Mrs. S. H. Heckman, at Lock Haven. She will probably spend the winter in that city.

—Mrs. Mary Welsh, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Deining, for several weeks past, returned to her home in Philadelphia last Saturday.

—Miss Emma Montgomery and Miss Emma Aikens, of Bellefonte, were the guests of Miss Jennie Odenkirk and Miss Grace Smith, a few days ago.

—Jared Kreamer went to Baltimore last Friday, returning on Tuesday morning. He was looking up the market for potatoes and other lines of produce.

—Ex-Co. Commissioner John Wolf, one of Brush valley's substantial citizens and sound Democrats, was in town yesterday calling on his many friends.

—Harvey F. Rossman, who recently purchased the mercantile establishment of Wm. Pealer, at Spring Mills, was in Centre Hall a few days ago, and dropped at this office for a few minutes.

—Mrs. Howard Spangler and children, who have been living with the family of ex-Sheriff Spangler, left last week for Harrisburg, where Howard has been employed in a printing office for several months.

—Mrs. John Rishel, who purchased the property of Wm. Floray, took possession of the property last week, and has moved in. Wm. moved into his partly-finished new house further down street.

—Robt. B. Bartges, one of Penn Hall's leading citizens, gave our sanctum a call and pleased himself and us by having his label flit forward; he reports folks in good health down that way. He adv. letters of administration on est. of John Bartges.

—H. P. Melone, of Hollidaysburg, the gentleman who was awarded the contract for trenching and laying the pipe for the borough's proposed new water plant, has been in town since Tuesday, arranging to start operations. He is accompanied by two brothers.

—Hon. Willis R. Bierly, formerly of North Dakota, had been quite ill at the home of his sister in Williamsport but is recovering. He is now engaged as traveling salesman for a big law book publishing firm in Philadelphia, and spends little time now at his former home in Rebersburg.

—Mrs. George O. Benner arrived here last week from Boston, Mass., in which city she had been making an extended visit of several months. George and his wife have again resumed housekeeping, and occupy part of the house with Mrs. Rebecca Murray, down street.

—J. W. Sweetwood, of near Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller a few days ago. Mr. Sweetwood is a bee-keeper on a large scale, probably the largest in this part of the state. He has over fifty hives and will gather nearly a ton of honey from them. He has made the business a careful study, and has been most successful in it.

—D. H. Harter, of Ohio, a native Aaronsburg, is on a visit to friends in the valley; he is a brother of Mrs. Fred Kurtz, of this place, and left here on Wednesday afternoon's train for Ohio, taking with him 100 bushels of peaches from the Weaver Orchard, near Aaronsburg. Dan is a veteran of the late war; was a member of Co. D., 148 Reg. and was severely wounded in the battle of Chancellorsville. He had the pleasure of meeting many comrades during his brief stay in the valley.

LINDEN HALL.

On Sunday last, Oct. 3rd, the corner stone of the new United Ev. church was laid. Quite a number of people were present to hear and see the impressive and interesting services.

Rev. J. B. Reeser, of Berwick, Pa., was present and delivered an excellent discourse from Nehemiah, 12:42. $215 was raised in a very short time towards the erection of the new edifice.

OAK HALL.

The Happenings from up the Valley as Reported

Our farmers are busy husking corn. Quite a number of our people took in the sights at the Lewisburg fair last week.

J. H. Weber, of Boalsburg, loaded a car of potatoes at this station this week.

J. H. Weber, of Boalsburg, loaded a car of potatoes at this station this week.

Mr. Basker, of Philadelphia, was through here this week buying apples and potatoes.

John Armstrong and sister were visiting friends near Bellefonte several days ago.

M. W. Benner and wife, of Rock, were visitors at the home of W. H. Close on Monday.

Mrs. T. F. Gramley and three children, have been visiting friends in Brush valley for some time.

Alonza Rupp and W. H. Close left on Monday for Milroy, where they spent part of the week among friends.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure.

From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. Say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.
