

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Jonathan Harter, of Millheim, was in town Tuesday.

—Sheriff Cronister, the popular official, was in town Monday on business.

—Miles Arney, a member of the Freshman class at State College, spent Sunday at his home.

—Clarke Carson and Harry Gentzel, of near Bellefonte, were in Centre Hall Sunday evening.

—Wm. Harper, one of Bellefonte's financiers, was in town Tuesday visiting his brother Simon.

—Prof. George Snyder, the principal of our schools, spent Sunday at his home at State College.

—Mrs. H. G. Strohmeier returned last week from a ten days' trip to Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

—Isaac Smith went to Altoona on Monday morning where he has secured a position in one of the large stores of that city.

—Mrs. Samuel Frank and son Clarence, of Spring Mills, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Kremer.

—Mrs. Lucy Henry returned home last Thursday from Philadelphia, where she had gone to purchase a new stock of millinery.

—Wm. W. Bob went to New York yesterday morning to attend the national association of carriage makers in session there this week.

—James Clarke Kieffer, who had been visiting friends in Centre Hall for a week, returned to Philadelphia on Monday to resume his newspaper work.

—Mrs. Beulah Brisbin Boone departed on Monday morning for her home at Schenectady, N. Y., after a visit of several months with her parents here.

—Henry P. Sankey, of Potters Mills, one of our most highly esteemed citizens, gave our sanction a pleasant call and before leaving put his label in good shape. He is one of our oldest patrons.

—Capt. John Harter and wife, of Nevada, Ohio, are visiting relatives in Centre Hall, since Tuesday. He has been in the valley for several weeks at his old home at Aronsburg, and is on his way westward.

—Mrs. C. J. Schaeffer, of this place, has not been in the best of health for some time past, and it is quite probable that she will be taken in a short time to one of the Philadelphia hospitals for treatment.

—George W. Jackson, the well-known banker, who has been ill for a week or more, is in a very serious condition, at his home in Bellefonte, and a Philadelphia specialist arrived there Monday in hope of relieving him of his suffering.

—Our old friend and patron, Mr. James Sweetwood, of Centre Hill, was a caller on Monday, while transacting business in town. Mr. Sweetwood is a Democrat of the old school, and as he grows well up in years, loses none of his old-time activity.

—Miss Anna Dinges returned on Monday from Altoona, where she had gone last week to attend the funeral of Timothy G. Shuff, a young man employed by the Pennsylvania railroad. He was struck by a fast train while repairing the water troughs in Jack's Narrows, near Lewistown, last Tuesday, and instantly killed. He was married to a cousin of Miss Anna, and was a most exemplary young man.

—The oldest citizen in our town, Mr. Daniel Fleisher, is now in his eighty-sixth year, and he looks almost twenty the younger. He is daily on the streets and moves around with an agility remarkable for one of his age. He enjoys the best of health, and is good for many years to come. Mr. Fleisher was a hard worker every day of his life, but since a citizen of Centre Hall, has been taking things easier. However, he is not entirely without something to do, and every day will find him occupied in working about his residence, or looking after the farming of lots within the borough. He is still active, and only last week he was seen buckle the saddle on his horse, put his foot in the stirrup, and leap into the saddle with the ease of an every-day occurrence. And it was, too.

Don't Wish to Be a Boro Any Longer.

A strong effort will be made before the court at West Chester, next week to have the charter of Hopewell boro annulled and the town returned to the adjacent township of which it was a part prior to the act creating it a boro about a quarter of a century ago. The charge is by property owners that the taxes are so heavy as to warrant them praying for a change back into the old ways and township conditions.

Croup Quickly Cured.

MOUNTAIN GLEN, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afforded almost instant relief.—F. A. Thornton. This celebrated remedy is for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, and R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.

Sentenced For 209 Years.

Williston Palmer is the name of a white man against whom there are sentences of 209 years in the Georgia penitentiary. Palmer was originally sent up for 11 years from South Georgia for burglary. Shortly afterward, while working in the mines of Dade county, he attempted with other convicts to escape, and in the melee that followed he killed two of the guards. He was tried some time ago for the killing of the first guard and got 99 years. He was then put on trial for the killing of the other man and got 99 years more.

County Officials Haled Up.

Upon charges of misdemeanor in office, brought by the Taxpayers' Association, County Commissioners Frank Rentz, John P. Martin and Charles Meyers, Controller Severn and ex-Commissioner Charles F. Allen were arrested in Pottsville a few days ago and held under $3000 bail each. It is alleged that these officials are responsible for issuing orders on the Schuylkill County treasurer for illegal bills.

Deal for the Valentine Furnace.

A deal was consummated in Bellefonte whereby the firm of Rogers Brown & Co., of Cincinnati, become the lessees of the Valentine Iron Company's plant. The new company will begin at once making preparations for resumption and will likely be ready for operations by November 1.

We are pleased to learn this for the good it will bring to Bellefonte and other sections of our county.
