Is it the calm which precedes the storm, or why the revelation of the past misdoings of Argentina, but aside from a strip near in this Democratic Gibraltar we hear precious little of a political character. All this is very remarkable. On the 27th inst. Dr. Braucht, of Milesburg, and Miss Madge Allison, of our village were married at Centre daughter of A. Allison, Esq., one of our highly esteemed citizens. After a brief visit to Philadelphia, the couple returned here on Saturday evening last and were the guests of C. P. Long. Quite a reception was held confined to the immediate family and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Long enacted the role of host and hostess in their usual agreeable manner. During the evening the Spring Mills band tendered the couple a very lively serenade, of course Mr. Longs residence was surrounded by a large assemblage. The Dr. and his bride will make Milesburg their future home.

Over a score of high-salaried offices and clerkships, none of them needed. were created by Republican legislatures in the past two years, at an expeuse to the tax payers of about one million dollars. Grain speculation is gambling, so decided the Iowa Supreme court a few days ago, namly, that contracts for grain, where the intention is merely a speculation on the chances of the rise or fall of the market, and no delivery or extraordinary expenses, but the oris intended, are gambling contracts and void.
