A fellow may make it pay sometimes even in digging for fish bait. Adolph Johnson, 16 years old, while digging for fish bait on Beaver Island, Ia., in the southern part of the city, struck a metallic substance with his shovel, which proved to be an iron box. When opened the finder was nearly overpowered by finding in the box gold and paper money amounting to $50,000. It is not known when or by whom the money was buried, or if it was the proceeds of an express robbery or belonged to a Swedish nobleman who lived a number of years on Beaver Island, dying there about two or three years ago.

Maryland Officials. Dr. Harrison Wagner, the famous litigant, and his 11,000 suits were before the United States court in Baltimore on Saturday. Wagner asked judgment by default for $1,800,000 poned. against the County Commissioners of Frederick county.

Judge Morris denied the motion and ordered that briefs be filed on the demurrer of the defendants to Dr. Wagner's petition. The argument of the demurrer was set for November 13.

Wagner appeared as his own counsel, his lawyer, a Mr. Clark, of Washington, being absent. He brought the suit in the United States Court to enforce 11,000 judgments procured in a Justice Court against the County Commissioners of Frederick County. The judgments are for $100 each, with interest. The matter has been through the Courts of Maryland, but Wagner is now a citizen of Obio and the Unithe matter.
