A Political Proposition.

A young man in Columbia county, who has always taken a great interest in politics, was recently ensuared by one of Fishing Creek's fair maidens, and addressed to her the following letter: "My Dear Miss E. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for your hand, and shall use all fair and honorable means to secure the nomination. I know there are many candidates in the field, and I hesitated long before entering the race, but now I am in it to stay. My views on love and matrimony have often been expressed in your hearing in an emphatic way. If you decide to confer upon me the hon- attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he you to make the convention date as ily at a time when his child's life was the date of ratification."

Twenty-Seven Cats in a Robe.

Spring township, was in town Tuesday morning, exhibiting a pretty and what appears to be a very warm robe which he made himself. The skins of twenty-seven domestic cats were used, and so nicely are they put together as to give it a very striking appearance. Alternate rows of black, maltese, white and tiger cat skins run the entire width of the robe, being so joined as to look like one piece of fur. The whole back is lined with a pretty piece of robing and the edges finished with two rows of pinked flannel.

Usual Annual School Appropriation.

Under the new school law, providing for the distribution of the annual appropriation, the president and director of each school board are required to make returns under oath to the county superintendent in November of each year, giving the actual number of paid teachers in their respective districts. A failure to make this re port is punishable by a forfeiture of one-third of the appropriation.

Organized at Spring Mills.

Penus Valley Camp Sons of Veterans held an organization meeting at Spring Mills, on Wednerday evening. All sons of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, or mariners, over eighteen years of age are eligible. Those wishing to join will correspond with Capt. elect P. W. Leitzel, M. D., Spring Mills. Camp will be mustered in on Nov. 27.
