

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mrs. Wm. Wolf spent several days last week in Brush valley.

—Postmaster J. D. Long, of Spring Mills, was in town Tuesday transacting business.

—Clyde Smith came home last Friday after being away for about four weeks in the western part of the state.

—Henry Rossman, Tusseyville's prominent undertaker and embalmer, came in to see us a few days ago while in town on business.

—Mrs. Annie Van Pelt went to Bellefonte Tuesday on a visit of several days at the home of her brother, Col. J. L. Spangler.

—Christ Hoffer, former of George Hoffer, deceased, a former resident near this place, was in town several days the latter part of last week, calling on his friends.

—William S. Musser, the accommodating and popular station agent at Spring Mills, gave us a call Monday evening. He was here attending the lodge meeting of the Masons.

—D. R. Young, of Potters Mills, favored our sanctum with a call, and reports all right side up with care over in that section; before leaving he sent his label forward into '98.

—Ex-County Commissioner John Wolf, who was taken suddenly ill while returning from church at Rebersburg on Sunday a week ago, was taken to his home last week and is slowly improving.

—Our pleasant friend, A. N. Finkle, of Georges valley, gave us a business call, and reports health good over there and corn all husked. His label was placed in the good, honest row of '98.

—Esq. Fergus Potter, over a quarter of a century a patron of the Reporter, gave us a call and reports affairs up that way moving along satisfactorily, with roads being bettered on improved plans in which the stone crusher is proving itself useful. He had his label placed out into '98 before leaving. —Miss Ada Goodhart, of Centre Hill, arrived home last week from an extended trip through the west. In company with her sister, Miss Anna they left here over four months ago and were among friends in Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois. Miss Anna did not return, but will remain several months in Freeport, Ill.

Items of Interest from Our Neighboring Towns.

The Harris township stone crusher is again at work after quite a long rest. We need solid roads now.

John Cummings transacted business in Bellefonte Monday and Tuesday of last week.

James Musser, agent of Buffalo Run, was in this vicinity Tuesday on business.

Mr. Smith, of Lewistown, was in town and out among the farmers, buying up grain a few days of last week.

On Monday Frank Weiland had a very ugly fall, which might have proved very serious. He was helping to load a car of baled hay, and when standing on the wagon, he in some way lost his footing and fell backward off the wagon, landing on his head; he was badly shaken up, but nothing serious.

Butchering is now the order of the day; big porkers are killed at every place, nothing is heard of light weight porkers.

Potters Mills.

John McClenahan and wife gave a birthday party for their daughter Cora on Wednesday evening, which was attended by the young people of this place and surrounding vicinity. She received many handsome presents.

Samuel McCoy, of this place, returned from Williamsport, where he has been for some time.

Miss Katie Wilkinson, who has been on the sick list is able to be out again.

J. W. Armstrong, of Oak Hall, is driving team for John Zettle at this place.

Fox hunting is a profitable business, and any person having an old horse to give away or sell cheap, send for the fox hunters of Potters Mills.

Butchering is still in season. W. W. Spangler killed over a ton of pork on Monday; one hog weighed over 500 pounds.
