During the past two years, Mrs. J. W. Alexander, wife of the editor of the Waynesboro, Miss. Times, has, in a great many instances, relieved her baby when in the first stages of croup, by giving it Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. She looks upon this remedy as a household necessity and believes that no better medicine has ever been put in bottles. There are many thousands of mothers in this broad land, who are of the same opinion. It is the only remedy that can always be depended upon as a preventive and cure for croup. The 25 and 50 cent bottles are for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, F. A. Carson, Potters Mills, and H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

SPRING MILLS.

What Has Occurred of Interest in This Lively Town.

Mrs. Sarah Zeigler, of our village, has been very seriously ill for several days; her condition is very precarious. However, she is reported as being slightly improved.

Rev. Faus had services in the M. E. church here on Sunday afternoon last to a large congregation. Daylight services in the M. E. church of our village is quite a rare occurrence.

A new board walk is being built in front of the M. E. parsonage, a very decided improvement. Only three or four more are now required on this street, to give us a fine walk from the postoffice to the iron bridge over Penns creek, a distance of possibly 1800 feet. Who will be the next?

An eccentric individual in Philadelphia, is amusing himself by enclosing five and ten dollar bills in an envelope and addressing them to any one he happens to think of. It is to be hoped that the gentleman will visit this neighborhood before he tires of the amusement, or his treasury becomes exhausted.

Our old friend Geo. W. Dunkle, the well known and reliable wall paper merchant of our village, informs me that he is in receipt of a few advance patterns of wall paper for spring sales. He remarked that the styles and designs for the season were entirely new and very beautiful. Mr. D. has been in the business for many years.

Holiday business in our stores was quite brisk during the last week, and no doubt will continue all this week. Some of the stores are very beautifully decorated, displaying considerable taste—in fact the skill of a masterhand. Nearly everyone now, passing to and fro on the streets carries a package or a very suspicious looking bundle; of course all the little folks—and big ones too, are on the qui vive for just such articles, now or on Christmas day.

A day or two since I met Gum Hubler, of near State College, who informed me that a week or ten days ago, he butchered two porkers, the combined weight being 1280 pounds; that is certainly "much hogs." Mr. H. thought he did pretty well, and had an idea that very few exceeded his two in weight. I guess in that point he is very correct.

A day or two since Wm. Ream, of our village, informed me that the report that he had retired from the saddlery business, and was now engaged with the Creamery Co., is without foundation. On the contrary he will continue the saddlery business on a more extended scale than heretofore, and in addition will have an apartment for boot and shoe making and for the "recovery of lost soles." Mr. Ream, besides being a good saddler is an expert surgeon to old shoes.
