

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Charles J. Stamm, of Oak Hall, was in town Monday.

—Lydia Foust, of Potters Mills, gave our sanctum a business call.

—Mr. M. B. Duck, one of the good citizens of Spring Mills, was in town Monday.

—Mrs. A. Lukenbach, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with friends in Centre Hall.

—Mrs. Mary A. Dinges spent several days of last week among friends in Brush valley.

—Mrs. Wm. Kreamer, of Millheim, was the guest over Sunday at the home of J. B. Kreamer.

—Miss Emma McCoy returned Tuesday, after a visit of several weeks with friends in Lock Haven.

—John Smith, the Spring Mills undertaker and furniture dealer, made a business trip to town Monday.

—J. H. Wiebly, of Linden Hall, was a pleasant caller, and enrolled his name on the Reporter's list.

—Mr. John Bitner has returned from a short visit to his daughter, Mrs. Eugene Shadle, at Williamsport.

—Miss Grace Smith went to State College Tuesday to spend several days with her friend Miss Elizabeth Stuart.

—Miss Romie Van Pelt left Monday morning for Wilson college, Chambersburg, to resume her studies after a holiday vacation.

—Newton Emerick, who is engaged in the lumbering business at Vintondale, Cambria county, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emerick, at this place.

—Our friend, Henry Stoner, Tusseyville, gave us a call, and put his label out to '99. He informed us that Mrs. Stoner spent the holidays with her brother in Philadelphia.

—Miss Kate Spangler, of Geneva, Neb., was a guest at the home of Ed. Nerhood last week. Miss Spangler is on a visit to her parents at Rebersburg and her brother Joe. Spangler, near Centre Hill.

—Rev. Laurie, D. D., of Bellefonte, filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, and delivered an able and very impressive sermon to a large audience. He was accompanied here by Mr. J. C. Weaver.

—Prof. Philip H. Meyer, the stalwart Harris township Democrat, was in Centre Hall Monday. He was on the election board of the insurance company, and with J. B. Goheen, of Rock Springs, and Jacob R. Bible, of Potters Mills, took care of the ballots cast for the officials.

—Wm. W. McCormick, of Potters Mills, was in attendance at the M. E. quarterly meeting on Monday, he representing the Spruce town church. Mr. McCormick tells us he has put in over thirty days killing hogs this year, and has several days yet to fill in.

—Mr. Samuel Ertel, of Georges valley among the oldest patrons and subscribers to the REPORTER, accompanied by Mr. John Hanna, were in town Saturday transacting some business, and included this office in making their rounds. Mr. Ertel is looking around for a young horse, heavy and a good worker, which he wants to purchase, but as yet has not found one to suit him.

MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS.

Law Regulating Same for Cities, Boroughs and Townships.

Frequent inquiries being made upon this subject, we print the law below. Study it and keep it for reference.

P. L. 1874, page 65:

"That whenever the debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, . . . shall be equal to seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property, as fixed by the last preceding assessed valuation therein, it shall be unlawful to increase the same, and all such increase shall be void, and any obligation issued for such increase, or any part thereof, shall be of no binding force upon such municipality or district; and each of the officers thereof willfully authorizing such increase, or executing any obligation therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Sec. 5. The word "indebtedness," used in this act, shall be deemed, held and taken to include all and all manner of debt, as well floating as funded, of the said municipality."

It will be observed that public officials violating the above law run the risk of heavy penalties.

Never Been Healthier.

The Centre Hall Reporter has entered upon its 71st year. It is not to be imagined because this paper is so advanced in years that it is old in appearance, or shows any signs of an enfeebled condition. We venture to say it never looked so spry, and has never been healthier.—Phillipsburg Ledger.

Our handsome lady friend, Mae Miller, of Altoona, in making a remittance putting her label to '99, has also a kind word for the Reporter, adding regards for self and mama and that they can not do without the Reporter.

POTTERS MILLS.

An Interesting Letter from Our Neighboring Town.

Sleighing is about at an end until we get more snow.

Rev. Faus held Communion services at Spruce town last Sabbath.

Miss Katie Kessler's sister, from California, is visiting here at present. Wm. Sankey is at present visiting at the home of his nephew Henry Sankey.

The Centre Democrat's scribe expects to go to Illinois by the middle of next month.

Rev. Rishel was in attendance at the protracted meeting last Wednesday night, and gave quite a fine talk.

Fox hunting has been trump since the snow has fallen, but the foxes seem to be equal to the occasion.

Forest Bible, who had been clerking in Carson's store, has gone to help start the new store at the station.

Harry B. Spangler left for Lock Haven last week, where he expects to attend Normal. Success to you Harry.

Marcellus Sankey, after a vacation spent at home, has again returned to Lock Haven to resume his Normal studies.

Will Harshbarger, the new clerk in Carson's store, had better be on the lookout; Strong is watching for him.

Rev. Faus is at present holding a protracted meeting at Spruce town. None forward as yet although prospects are fair.

Jacob Slack, formerly of this place, but now of Illinois, was here on a short visit. Jacob is an operator on the Chicago and Alton road at present.

We all hope he may have success throughout.

(Colyer) is frequently represented in this and an adjoining vicinity in the person of a young man who is not near as smart as he thinks he is. He had better go a little slow for he has dropped wonderfully in the estimation of some of our ladies. Take heed lest you fall.

Sleighing is getting thin in our vicinity.

Mrs. Davis Evans is still in Williamsport visiting her daughters.

Samuel Brown and Brown McNitt, of Milroy, had a runaway on Tuesday.

Frank Long, of Spring Mills, is in town today on business; he says Spring Mills is dull.

Frank Palmer left for Williamsport on Monday, where he expected to attend the funeral of Rev. Mortimer Crosthwaite.

COBURN.

The Events and News from this Important Business Point.

A wedding in our midst is on the tapis.

Calvin M. Hayes, of Hartleton, transacted business at this place last Saturday.

Jacob Hazel and wife and Mrs. Ellis Shaffer, of Madisonburg, were visiting friends at this place on Saturday.

William Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, called upon his many friends at this place on Saturday, and remained over Sunday.

Luther Hosterman and family, of Rebersburg, spent part of Sunday visiting at the home of his father, T. V. Hosterman.

Mrs. M. D. Rockey spent part of last week at this place, calling upon old friends; she left for her home at Tyersville on Sunday.

The Misses Lulu Earhart and Alma Gramley, of Rebersburg, spent a few hours at this place on Monday, at the home of R. F. Vonada.

Andrew Rishel would like to know who stole his beef. He says he will give the person a warm reception if he comes again on such business.

The Atlantic Refining Company has received its beautiful tank-oil-wagon, and is now ready to deliver oil to its customers, in almost any quantity above five gallons.

Quite a large number of our people are attending protracted meeting at Paradise church, which is being conducted with increasing interest. Twenty-one seekers, on Sunday evening was the sum total.

E. H. Auman, of Farmers Mills, smiling and pleasant as ever, transacted business at this place on last Saturday. He will become a citizen of Millheim in the spring, having bought the brick mill there.

Farmers are taking advantage of the sleighing and are busy hauling grain to our merchants here; on Monday morning six car loads of wheat and one car load of cloverseed were shipped from this place.

F. P. Barker has rented the store room at the station, formerly occupied by Reuben Boyer, and has started a restaurant. He expects to keep a full line of refreshments that will appease the appetites of mortal man.

Merchant J. W. Glasgow left on Saturday morning for the Quaker City, and will be gone about a week. While there he will visit his brother and sister, who are residents of that place, and will purchase a large stock of merchandise for his new store building.

SPRING MILLS.

The Important Events of the Past Week as Seen by Our Scribe.

Dwellings will be difficult to obtain this spring; we could use a dozen or more at the present time if we had them. On the new road to the station would be a fine opportunity for an enterprising builder. C. P. Long recently erected two very beautiful buildings on this avenue; who will be the next to do likewise?

Board walks are certainly a very good thing—an excellent thing in simply wet weather, but if they are allowed to remain covered with snow, of course they are of precious little account, particularly in case of a sudden thaw, the only difference being, instead of wading through mud and snow, the pedestrians wade through pure slush. We have quite an extended board walk, and it would require very little labor or trouble to keep the walks free from snow, if each family would only think so.

John Smith & Bro. the popular furniture dealers, of our village, are doing quite an extensive business in chairs and rockers; their sales were particularly large during the holidays. The firm are now making preparations for a January clearing sale of the highest grade furniture at prices verging on disaster; it must be sold to make room for an entire new spring stock.

A. J. Graden, of our village, has opened a very tidy shoemaker shop on the turnpike, a short distance above the hotel, and is meeting with remarkable success, having had plenty of repairing and considerable new work, and his shop has been in operation only about ten days. In addition Mr. Graden conducts a barber shop, and is said to handle a razor in a masterly manner.

OAK HALL.

A Digest of the News from Our Neighboring Town.

Sheriff Cronister was in town Tuesday.

Wm. Sellers killed six hogs on Monday.

C. J. Stamm intends having a public sale on the 8th of March.

The family of T. F. Gramley are all improving from their sickness.

John Shuey, of Lemont, was notified on our streets Tuesday.

Henry Potter, of Linden Hall, transacted business at this place Monday.

J. J. Tressler, of this place, took a car load of clover seed to Phillipsburg last week.

Mr. Johnson and wife, of Bellefonte, were the guests of Wm. Sellers, at this place on Saturday.

Lloyd Brown and J. Frazier, of near Linden Hall, transacted business at this place Saturday.

William Fisher and wife, of Sunbury were notified at the station on Tuesday, on their return home.

Alonza Rupp started in the huckstering business, and has made two trips to Houtzdale and other points.

Ben Yearick, of Salona, and Calvin Korman, who left for Iowa twenty-one years ago, were the guests of Daniel Korman and son on Sunday.

Our singing school was well attended on Monday evening, it was the first evening; there are forty-three scholars in the class and more are expected to attend. The class is conducted by Prof. P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg.
