POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

PROTHONOTORY

We are authorized to announce that H. A. Mc-Kee, of Spring township, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Prothonotory, subject to the rules and regulations of the Demo-cratic parts.

The Dingley "prosperity" tariff has knocked all the manufacturing establishments of the New England states off their feet within the past three weeks. It has not been able to set the idle iron works and other shops about Bellefonte upon their feet, with the outlook more blue than ever.

Farmer Kulp, congressman of the Northumberland district, announces that he will not be a candidate for reelection. A Republican landslide landed him in congress, and as there is likely to be a landslide the other way next fall, farmer Kulp thinks it best to slide out from under early.

The Hanna bribery investigation now going on at Columbus, has developed beyond a doubt that Hanna obained his election to the senate by bribery. Telephone messages have been produced to prove it, and representative Otis made affidavit that he was offered $5000 to vote for Hanna.

The cotton-mill strike in New England brings out the fact that the average wage paid there is only $6 a week for a grown man.

The employers want to cut this wage by 10 per cent. This is the origin of the strike.

A. E. Patton, of Curwensville, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for congress from this district, an the Republican side, to succeed W. C. Arnold, who wants to be placed on the state ticket as congressman-at-large. He is a son of the late Hon. John Patton. However, the next congressman from this district will be a Dem-

Hanna's seat, obtained by bribery is to be contested by Maj. McKisson who was the anti-Hanna choice. It is announced that notice of contest has been drawn and forwarded at once from Columbus to the proper authori-

The contest will be based on the ground that Hanna didn't receive enough legal votes to entitle him to the place.

As the result of the alliance of Mc-Kinley and Hanna with the offscouring of the dives and dance-halls of New Orleans, the Republican vote in Louisiana fell from 92,000 to 2,800, remarks the World. But what does Mr. McKinley or Hanna or any of "us" care for the Republican vote at the polls in Louisiana? It is the Republican vote in the Republican Convention that is valuable enough to buy even at the high price of public morality and public honor.

There is not much comfort in this for the chairman of the ways and means committee; and he is not to be blamed for seeking consolation in picking out a chance day when the receipts under his law run up as high as $800,000. On two points however, Dingley, of Maine, has proved a false prophet. Instead of a surplus, his tariff is creating a monumental deficiency, the greatest in the public revenues since the end of the civil war, 33 years ago. Instead of maintaining or advancing wages, they are going down in his own section of the Union that got all of the tariff legislation that it demanded.—Pittsburg Post.

The War On Quay.

A conference of Republican business men of the state has been arranged for to take place at the headquarters of the Philadelphia branch of the Republican Business Men's League, in the bourse, on Feb. 2, which is likely to have an important bearing on the con- Style, Quality, test for governor. It is expected that there will be upwards of 150 members of the Business Men's League of Philadelphia present at the conference, and while it is denied that anyone has authority to indicate in advance what will take place, leading men in the movement unhesitatingly declare that it can be depended upon that steps will be taken to wrest the control of the Republican state convention out of the hands of Senator Quay and his friends, and compel them to nominate SPRING MILLS, the choice of the Business Men's
