Mrs. Catharine Alexander, the venerable mother of Wm. P. Alexander, the popular miller of our village, whom she has been visiting since early fall, has been quite ill for the last week or ten days. Mrs. William P. Alexander has also been confined to her bed for several weeks, but is slowly convalescing.

We will have quite a moving time this spring; about every tenth family will make a change-move somewhere. Dwellings here are just as scarce as gold dollars, and some families will be mightily puzzled where to go or what to do. Where are all our enterprising builders; why do they stand aloof now? A dozen plain, ordinary dwellings would not be vacant an hour.

Spring Mills is fortunate indeed in having Miss Mabel Sankey as teacher for her little folks. She is a young lady eminently qualified for the position, requiring as it frequently does, all the patience of a Job.
