

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

John H. Bare of near Tusseyville gave us a business call.

N. B. Spangler, Esq., of Bellefonte, was in town yesterday.

W. K. Alexander, of Millheim, was a Centre Hall visitor yesterday.

J. B. Kreamer spent several days this week with friends in Rebersburg.

Miss Roxanna Brisbin was visiting with friends at State College over Sunday.

Miles Arney, of the Freshman class, State College, was home over Sunday with his parents.

Jas. E. Stover, of near Earlsytown, was a pleasant caller and has become a patron of the Reporter.

Miss Tace Kreamer was in Millheim over Sunday, the guest of her friend Miss Helen Bartholomew.

H. A. Decker, from the mountain above town, gave us a call and had his name put on the Reporter's roll.

Implement dealer Harvey I. Wise went to Altoona last Friday on a business trip, and returned on Monday.

Harvey Rossman, of Penn Cave, favored us with a call; his hand has become strong enough to do light work.

Our good-looking friend, Frank Emerick, of Pennhall, favored our sanctum with a call and had his label put into '99.

Isaac Smith, who is clerking in a large department store in Altoona, is home to spend a few days with his family.

Mrs. Eliza Stump and daughter Miss Anna, living a short distance east of Centre Hall, were pleasant visitors at this office yesterday.

W. W. Spangler, one of the representative citizens of the south precinct, gave us a call, and fixed his label for '98; he reports all healthy in that section.

Mrs. J. O. Deininger has gone on an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. James Stewart, at New Bloomfield, Pa. She was accompanied by her son Clem, who returned Wednesday.

John Meyer, of Boalsburg, who spent two years in the Pillsbury mills in Minneapolis, has come back, and gave the Reporter a call; he speaks favorably of Minnesota, but does not think he will return.

Our old Democratic friend, uncle James Runkle, of Tusseyville, gave us an half hour's call, jolly as ever and bridged his label to '98. He has lost all faith in the groundhog as a weather prophet.

Our esteemed friend and patron, Daniel Wian, of Nye bank, never misses the Reporter when he comes to see his friends here. We are glad to learn that he intends becoming a citizen of our town soon. He was accompanied by his grand-son, Harry Reish, a bright young lad.

Fred Decker, one of College township's best citizens, was here visiting his many friends, and called to give the Reporter a warm handshake, and put his label among the '98's. He is one of our prompt paying readers with a record of over a quarter of a century.

Daniel Bohn, one of Boalsburg's oldest and most esteemed citizens, now upwards of 84 years of age, is in feeble health, and with difficulty moves about the house. He has been a reader of the Reporter for upwards of forty years, and in past years a frequent visitor in this office, whom we were always glad to see.

Ex-commissioner Jas. B. Strohm gave us a pleasant call and had his label set for '98. Jim is always pleasant and never lacks the gentleman. Rumor has it that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly. If a Republican is to represent our district, which is not at all likely, that party could find no abler man on this side of the county. Jim has been a life-long Republican, and always stood by his party.

POTTERS MILLS.

Interesting Items of the Past Week Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Another fox for John Wilkinson.

Alex. McCoy was to Lemont Saturday.

A new counter-jumper in Carson's store.

Jeff Brown, of Milroy, was in town last Monday.

"McGinty" Fulse was to the Loop visiting friends last week.

A dance on the mountain last Saturday night. Better abandon.

Alexander McCoy shipped another lot of cattle and hogs last week.

Harry Fulse expects to go to Jersey Shore with Samuel McCoy this spring.

A number were to the appeal, held at Centre Hall last Saturday. Some were successful.

McCoy's procured a large English Mastiff to be put in their store as watch-dog; but his dogship took a notion to return home last Saturday and left for Howard.

One of Centre Hill's dudes was in town on Saturday night learning black-smithing. He didn't get through till after daylight the next morning. He said it rained so much during the night that he didn't like to start home.

Well, the Centre Democrat's scribe is still alive; we thought perhaps he died of his last week's illness. Any one who was at Epworth League on last Sunday night a week ago could see how much brains the scribe possessed when he came into League with his lady friend and let her close the door. We understand the scribe intends to buy up cheese; McCoy and Son have good cheese for sale, but hereafter they will only sell to such parties who pay for it. We still have some more for this scribe in the future. Well, we think "old cheese box" would be an appropriate name for you.

Emory McClintick, of Tyrone, was in town Tuesday.

The news of our town is all about the great war ship Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Seibert, of State College, are visiting friends at this place.

Miss Gertrude Spangler left for Chicago on Tuesday, where she expects to visit friends.

Emory Ripka, the Mountain school teacher, changed his boarding place for some reason.

J. W. Smith who was home on a visit, left for his place of business, at Reinsburg, on Monday.

John Slack is moving from Nittany valley to this place, where he expects to work for Ed. Allison.

The champion checker player of Pine Grove, will have to acknowledge that he is "done up" and will take home with him several skunks.

SPRING MILLS.

An Interesting Letter from Our Neighboring Town.

Miss Dunkle is home visiting her parents, Mr. George Dunkle and wife. Mr. Seibert and wife, of State College, spent Sunday with M. Shires and family.

Robert Homan, who is a student at New Berlin College, is home for a few days' visit.

Our liveryman, D. H. Ruhl, had a horse taken suddenly ill last week, but is all right again.

Mrs. Samuel Krape died on Saturday last after several weeks' illness. Interment Tuesday, at Heckman's cemetery.

There are but few public sales in this locality this spring, and those wanting a free lunch must go far from home.

Quite a few of our young men are smitten with Western fever. Some have gone and others will leave in a short time.

Rev. Brown leaves for Conference next week, and Rev. Faus a few weeks later. Both are energetic men and we trust they will be sent back.

One of Penn Hall's young men goes through town several evenings each week. They say he goes to Farmers Mills, and "don't get home 'til morning." How about it Harry?

What has become of our Literary Society and Shakespeare club? We hear nothing of either lately. Why not push a good thing along and keep them from gradually dying out?

The school pupils are showing a disposition of being tired and fatigued by their long, hard winter's work, and some are heard expressing the desire that spring were here and they would have a vacation.

The Sons of Veterans are drilling according to the U. S. Army drill regulations, and are doing fine work. They probably are anticipating some fun with Spain. Keep it up boys, you may be needed.

Fisherman McCormick takes the head of the class. He caught twelve fine suckers on Saturday. We don't know whether he used any of the new bait he was talking about using when he goes for trout or not. All we saw were the fish and fishing tackle.

Quite a few of our people attended Teachers' Institute in Millheim Friday and Saturday of last week and report a very entertaining and instructive program. Why not retaliate, and have one here before the winter session of school closes. The citizens of our town have always taken an interest in school matters, and would do all they could to help entertain, etc., the visitors, and make the Institute a success.

LINDEN HALL.

A Breezy Letter from Our Correspondent Up the Valley.
