

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mrs. Samuel Barr, of Tyrone, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Stiver, near Pottery Mills.

—G. W. Rumbarger, our efficient Register, gave us call and swung his label to the breeze for '99.

—Prof. G. B. Snyder went to State College Friday to attend a reception. He remained there over Sunday.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Wise returned last Saturday from a visit of over two weeks with friends in Millheim.

—Dr. Alexander and bride arrived home last Saturday evening after a ten days' wedding tour to eastern cities.

—Sam'l Long, of Penn Cave, gave the Reporter a business call; he advertises letters of adm'r on the estate of his mother.

—Perry Adams, of Millheim, and his brother, the Millinburg laundryman, were pleasant callers at the Reporter office.

—Cyrus Durst, of Linden Hall, favored us with a call and put his label into '98; he tells us he had a good sale and large attendance.

—Sam. Wagner of Kipple, near Altoona, gave us a handshake, and had his label shine to '99. He likes it out there and is doing well.

—Miss Jennie Odenkirk went to Lewisburg yesterday to attend the wedding of Warley Schoch and Miss Emma Cook, daughter of Conductor J. Harry Cook, which occurs today.

—Jerry Snavely was one of our callers the other day. At his sale on 23, there will be a fine chance for buying choice live stock. He has purchased a home at Spring Mills, whither he will move after the sale. He adv. adm'r notice of est. of Polly Royer.

—Mrs. Lucy Henney and Clem Delinger went to New Bloomfield Tuesday, owing to the dangerous illness of their sister, Mrs. James Stewart at that place, who up to yesterday showed some improvement, but is still in a critical condition.

—Supt. W. L. Malin, James Woerner, and Rush McClintick, of the Bellefonte telephone exchange, and Asst. Supt. Blush, of the Williamsport exchange, were in town yesterday for a short time, while on their way down the valley looking after their lately acquired lines from the Millheim company.

—T. Milton Osman arrived here last Thursday afternoon from Salt Lake City, Utah, on his first visit to his home since he drifted westward about six years ago. Milt is very little changed, only slightly bronzed, and this he accounts for by his being employed by a gold mining company. Along with his brother William, and his brother-in-law and our former townsman, H. E. Zerby, they compose the officials of a new company which has located and opened up a vein of the yellow metal. He tells us Horace Zerby is doing very well, being engaged in the mining stock brokerage business, and a member of the stock exchange at Salt Lake City. Milt expects to remain a short time before returning.

AARONSBURG.

Many interesting items from that Section gathered by our correspondent.

Harter, the Gazette man, was down here last week. Guess he had been visiting at "Hausa Barrick."

Frank Holloway with fifteen head of Illinois horses has arrived. Among the lot are some fancy steppers.

Will Gulsewitz was presented with twin girls last week. It was as great a surprise to Billy as it was to the community.

Mrs. Dr. Musser is ill in bed with pneumonia. Having only taken sick on Saturday afternoon, it is hard to say what the results may be.

George Korman has left the tollgate and gone back to Rebersburg, and his brother-in-law, John Hain, has taken his place at the tollgate.

Boob & Wert have erected two houses on their contemplated peach orchard, and next to follow will be the planting of the trees.

Wm. Houser, who moved to Boalsburg last fall, was in town on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, shaking hands with his many friends.

Wes. Adams the laundryman, from Millinburg, was in town last week. Wes says they are doing a rushing business, and as the season advances it will increase still more.

John Yergler bought the orchard at the western end of town from M. M. Musser for $250, and now the old man is busy nailing up fences, trimming the trees, and cleaning up generally.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., was in town over Sunday. He came down to attend his aunt's funeral, Mrs. Andrew Stover. He looks the picture of health and must be enjoying life. She was the last of George Meyer's family, her last brother, J. G. having died last fall.

SPRING MILLS BUDGET.

Our Scribes Furnish all the News from that Locality.

A. J. Graden, the village shoemaker, has purchased a building lot a short distance below the creamery, and will erect on it at once a residence for himself and family.

Last week David McCool, of Union county, formerly of our village, made a brief visit here to his parents. Mr. McCool has a well stocked farm a short distance above Hartleton, and is in a very prosperous condition.

The intense excitement caused by the Maine horror is quietly subsiding, and our villagers are now conversing on farm topics, and commenting on the unusually large number of sales to be made this spring; of course for the time being here, "grim visaged war hath smoothed his wrinkled front."

The erection of the buildings for the Spring Mills Planing Mill Company (formerly the Confer mill located at Millheim,) have been commenced and will be rapidly pushed to completion. The Company expect to be open for business and in full operation by the first proximo. Harvey Confer, an able mechanic and former owner, will act as general manager for the company.

Smith Bros, the popular furniture dealers of our village, are receiving large invoices almost daily. Their wagons are continually on the road delivering furniture, not only through Penns valley, but in all the neighboring valleys. Their motto of "quick sales and small profits" is no fancy sketch, but a solid fact, and the people have found it out.

Candidates are now on the quiver, and setting up the pins for the fall campaign. M. I. Gardner, of Bellefonte, Democratic candidate for the nomination for Prothonotary, made a flying visit to this Democratic Gibraltar last week. Mr. Gardner is a man of high abilities, of pleasing address and a very pleasant speaker. He made quite an impression, and evidently his visit here was not without good results.

D. H. Ruhl our genial landlord, has been doing an excellent business all winter, in fact a larger business than the capacity of his present quarters will accommodate. Frequently he is so crowded that he is obliged to seek sleeping apartments for his guests in the neighborhood. Of course he has provisions for the million, but the sleeping quarters sometimes puzzles "mine host of the inn" as he prefers having all guests under his own roof. Undoubtedly Mr. Ruhl will be obliged to enlarge his hotel.

Some of our gentle folks were making garden last week, but only in a small way—just for onions and salad. The weather summer like enough to complete the whole job of planting—but not a very safe risk. The weather prophets have predicted blizzards, snows, and extraordinary weather conditions for March, but up to present writing, their predictions only prove that they know nothing about it, of course its more than probable that we will have some cold weather for a day or two, possibly snow, but that we will have blizzards and unusual severe cold weather this late in the month is very questionable.

No. 2.

Miss Marion Musser is visiting in Altoona.

"Tod" Musser while climbing a fence fell and broke his arm.

Rev. Faus preached his last sermon of the pastoral year on Sunday night.

McCormick still wears the fishermen's belt. Stick to it Orris you're all right.

We hear John Breen was married Tuesday evening. Congratulations John.

Alfred Bradford intends taking possession of the Farmers Mills grist mill Apr. 1.

Wm. Burres and daughter, of Altoona, circulated among friends a few days last week.

You may have to go to Klondike for gold, but for mud come to Spring Mills. We can give you all you want and have some to spare.

David McCool spent a few days with his parents, Jacob McCools. On his returning to Union county he took a fine young Mastiff dog with him.

Rev. Brown will be with us another year, much to the satisfaction of his congregations and the community at large, as he is a general favorite.

Jacob Moyer moved his family to town last week. He is a lumber operator, having his mill at Farmers Mills. Jake is a genial fellow and knows how to fiddle.

John Breen now drives a handsome iron gray horse that his father purchased for him at the Millheim horse sale a week or more since. Let her go John.

Rev. Christine has been holding services the past few weeks. He was ably assisted by Rev. Jones and the Y. M. C. A. men of Bellefonte, and Rev. Faus, of this town.

Mr. Confer, the planing mill man of Millheim, accompanied by John Hosterman, was in town Saturday. Mr. Confer intends moving to our town but says he can't find a place to move.

COBURN.

An Interesting Account of Recent Happenings.

George Harter and wife, of Centre Hill, were visiting in town on Sunday.

Emanuel Brown, of Bellefonte, was visiting friends at this place over Sunday.

Miss Maggie Young after spending several weeks at Sunbury, came home one day last week.

Andrew M. Harter and brother Jacob S. Harter departed for the state of Illinois on Tuesday morning, where they expect to be located during the summer.

Reuben Kremer, of Middleburg, is at present visiting his sister, Mrs. Snavely, at this place. He is a cripple, and can not walk without the aid of crutches.

W. L. Hosterman, the manager of the Coburn Grain and Creamery Co's plant here, is a very happy man since the advent of that young son to his household.

J. W. Waite and family left for Smethport, McKean county, Pa., on last Saturday. They will locate there, he having secured employment in a large creamery there.

The Auditors of Penn township met on Monday to examine the accounts of the Supervisors and Overseers of the Poor respectively. They found the finances of the township in good shape.

The temperance lecture on last Friday evening in the Lutheran church, by Wm. R. Irvin, of Williamsport, was well attended by our citizens. Mr. Irvin is a very ready and forcible talker, and presented his arguments in such a plain and terse way that they were very convincing. His lecture has been very much commented upon.

Samuel Neese who had been making his home with his brother William Neese, who died a few weeks ago, and his sister, Harriet Neese, on a farm about three miles west from here, died on Saturday morning, from a complication of diseases, after several weeks' sickness. His remains were interred in Heckman's cemetery on Wednesday, Rev. Rearick, of Centre Hall, officiating. He was never married and leaves no issue.

Mrs. Mary Stover, an aged and respected lady died very suddenly at the home of her son, A. J. Stover, at this place, some time during Tuesday night of last week. She went to bed in her usual good health on Tuesday evening, and on Wednesday morning when called to get up she did not respond. Her son then went to the room to ascertain what was the matter, and found that her spirit had taken its flight. Death came apparently without a struggle, as the bed clothing was not disturbed. Her remains were interred at Wolf's Chapel, on Sunday, Rev. Brown, of the Reformed church, of which she was a consistent member, officiating. Her maiden name was Mary Meyer, sister to Hon. J. G. Meyer, who died very recently at Aaronsburg, in a similar way, and she was the last living member of that branch of the Meyer family. She was married to Andrew Stover who died about thirty years ago; this union with Mr. Stover was blessed with thirteen children, nine sons and four daughters, Julia, intermarried with Enoch Kremer, George M., Daniel M., Israel, Catharine, who was married to Frank Detwiler, of Aaronsburg, but died a few years ago, John S., Andrew J., Henrietta died without leaving any issue, Sarah E., Benjamin, Jacob S., M. J., and James. Of this number Israel, John S., Sarah E., Jacob S., M. J., and James are in the west; the five sons being in the state of Michigan. Sarah E. left many years ago for the far west, and nothing has been heard of her by any of the family for many years; the last heard of she was among the Indians. There are forty-five grand-children, and fifteen great-grand-children. She was aged 84 yrs., 1 month and 19 days. She was held in high esteem by every one who knew her.
