

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. —Frank Fisher, of Penn Hall, was in town on business Saturday. —Witmer Wolf made a business trip to Shamokin this week. —Robert Krumbine is here on a visit to his brother John Krumbine. —Mrs. D. C. Keller, of Bellefonte, spent yesterday with friends in town. —Mrs. Robert Smith, of Spring Mills, visited with friends in town Monday. —Prof. H. F. Bitner, of the Millersville State Normal, is here on a short visit. —Prof. James Gregg, of Milesburg, made a business trip to Centre Hall on Saturday. —Miss Kate Alexander left Monday for Millheim, and will visit with friends at that place. —Charles Neff, one of our esteemed patrons, was a pleasant caller, and had his label credited to '99. —Mrs. Maggie Deibler, of Millheim, was the guest of Miss Sara McClenahan over Sunday. —Miss Phoebe Potter, of Linden Hall, has been spending the past week at the home of Harry Swabb. —Mrs. Harry Swabb has been confined to her bed the past week, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. —Shem Spigelmyer and wife stopped in Centre Hall Monday night; they were on their way from Millheim to their home in Bellefonte. —Miss Anna Dinges left last week for eastern cities, where she will select a fine stock of millinery goods, for their spring and summer trade. —Mrs. Samuel Frank and son Clarence, of Spring Mills, spent last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Kreamer, on Church street. —Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shadle drove up last week from Williamsport, and are guests at the home of Mrs. Shadle's father, Mr. John Bitner, west of town. —N. B. Spangler and wife, of Bellefonte, were in town yesterday. Mr. Spangler was attending to legal business and incidentally looking up the political fences. —Mrs. W. A. Sandoe had a growth removed from the lid of her right eye on Sunday. It had been causing her considerable pain and annoyance, but is now healing nicely. —Representative Robert Foster made a short visit in town Tuesday between trains. Bob asks of his party the customary second term, and will get it with scarce any trouble. —Julian Fleming arrived here last week on a short visit to his father-in-law, Daniel Fleisher. Julian is the general agent for a farm implement firm and had been in New York state. —Mrs. Lucy Henney and Clem Deininger returned Saturday from New Bloomfield, where they had been summoned on account of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. James Stuart. Mrs. Stuart is now improving. —Rev. M. S. Derstine arrived Tuesday evening on a short visit to his mother. He had been attending M. E. Conference at Danville, and was on his way home. He was again assigned to East Waterford, Pa.

Want Their Back Fees.

The supreme court having decided that constables are entitled to ten cents for each and every mile traversed in the discharge of official duty, those officers throughout the commonwealth are jubilant, and their state association, recently organized at Harrisburg, is preparing to institute proceedings for the recovery of back fees, and the constables are preparing to fight the matter to the end. The commissioners of several counties are now engaged in strengthening their organization, but what special purpose is not apparent at this time.

First Thunder Gust.

Saturday evening night into 8 o'clock, the first regular thunder gust passed over this county with heavy rain in some portions and more moderate in others. It was an old-fashioned gust with plenty of sharp lightning flashes and heavy peals of thunder. "Sign" people aver this was a sign of more cold weather in store for us.

Select School.

Prof. D. M. Wolf will open his spring term of school, at Spring Mills, on Monday, April 4th, 1898, to continue ten weeks. Special advantage for those preparing to enter college, or to teach. mar24-3t

From all over the country, come words of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Here is a sample letter from Mrs. C. Shep, of Little Rock, Ark.: "I was suffering from a very severe cold, when I read of the cures that had been effected by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I concluded to give it a trial and accordingly procured a bottle. It gave me prompt relief, and I have the best reason for recommending it very highly, which I do with pleasure." For sale by S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills; J. H. Ross, Linden Hall, and H. F. Jossman, Spring Mills.

POTTERS MILLS.

Interesting Items Gathered by Our Correspondent. Oscar Stover was to Milroy last week. Phillip Leister has taken out a good many props of late. McCoy's new house, opposite Phillip Leisters, is nearing completion. Farmer's sale was pretty fair; they say a fellow could have bought cheap calico. Moving time will soon be here; some of our people still have no place to move to. Michael Smith has returned from Philadelphia; glad to know they did not kill him. Wm. Sweeney will occupy the house vacated by Samuel McCoy; he will work for Alex. McCoy on the farm. Our school closed yesterday. We sincerely hope our school directors will divide our school by next fall, so that justice can be given to pupils. A newly married couple, who had made Mrs. Carson's hospitable home their retreat for the night, were serenaded by our band on Tuesday evening.

Samuel McCoy expects to move to Jersey Shore this week; he takes with him Harry Rutz, one of our bright young boys. Harry has lots of ambition for a boy of his age. The roads are drying, but are still in bad condition; the pike is something like a mountain lumber road. It is an imposition that people should be asked to pay toll on such a pike. (Colyer) was again represented in this country, in the vicinity of Egg Hill, by the same young man previously spoken of in these columns, accompanied by his chum. They went to call on two young ladies without the one lady knowing of their coming; just like them. When they went home they took a buggy box full of Sinking Creek limestones along as a sample. Stones are plenty down there; we suppose their horse would be tired till he would haul the load to Colyer.

No. 2.

Miss Linnie Evans is still on the sick list. Alexander McCoy came home from the sale on Tuesday with a fine horse. The Atlantic Refining Oil Co., made another trip through here with their tank. Green Decker has purchased a new engine, with which he expects to run his saw mill. Clayton McKinney left on Tuesday for Altoona, where he expects to get work in the shops. Emory Ripka, the mountain school teacher, closed his school on Tuesday; R. D. Foreman closed yesterday. Spring is early this season with us; the birds are building their nests already, and the peach blossoms are swelling. Several persons went a duck hunting from our town, and returned with a ducking; one of the party fell in the dam and that is all the ducking he got.

SPRING MILLS BUDGET.

What Our Alive Correspondents Have Seen of Interest the Past Week.

John Horner is making some very decided and attractive improvements to his property. The accommodating news boy of our village has labored diligently and faithfully to build up a newspaper trade, and has succeeded admirably. He is now doing quite a large business. On the 1st prox. Floyd Bowersox, of Penn Hall, will move to our village and commence blacksmithing. Mr. Bowersox is a first-class workman and thoroughly understands the business. A long distance telephone has been placed in the office of C. P. Long, and works admirably. He has also the home telephone to lower part of Penns valley; of course Mr. Long can now communicate to "all creation"—almost. On 1st prox. the mill property located at Farmers Mills, will be operated with Frank Fisher, of Penn Hall, as business manager, John C. Auman, of our village, as miller, and Albert Bradford, also of our village, as assistant.

C. U. Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, Democratic candidate for the nomination for prothonotary made us a brief visit on Tuesday last. Mr. Hoffer is well known in this valley, and is a gentleman of unquestionable abilities; he has quite a number of influential friends here who are by no means idle.

On Thursday last, David Sowers, a young man of our village, boarded a freight train to take a ride down the road, and on arriving at Glen Iron, he foolishly jumped from the car while the train was in motion, and falling dislocated his left shoulder and was otherwise considerably bruised. Professor D. M. Wolf will close his school session on the 25th inst. Miss Mabel Sankey will also close the primary department on same date; Mr. Williams closed on Monday last. On 6th prox. Miss Sankey will commence a session of ten weeks for the "little people."

On Tuesday last, a very stormy, rainy day, Fred. Schlegel, of below our village, moved to Brush valley, below Wolf's Store; I. M. Heckman will occupy the premises he vacates; Wm. Neese also moved to the John F. Heckman farm, below Penn Hall on same day; Mr. Heckman moved in with Robert Smith, of our village, known as the Duncan property.

A banquet was held in our Academy building on Friday evening last, at which the Shakespearean society of our village was largely represented. This society is composed of young ladies ranging in age from a dozen years up to their majority, and possibly a trifle over. The organization is well maintained. Miss Mabel Allison is the president, and wields the baton of authority with considerable skill, of course the object is—as its title indicates, to have nothing at their regular sessions but material of a very classical order for reading, recitations and discussions.

No. 2.

Rev. Faus will preach on this charge another year. R. A. Krape has returned from Philadelphia, and is looking well. Quite a number of flittings are to be seen the last few days, notwithstanding mud and rain.

The hotel building, occupied by Smith's furniture store, has been sold to a man in Baltimore.

Sign painting on fences is all the go now, and many handsome decorations are noticed in every direction.

We hear H. B. Miller will occupy the place vacated by Alfred Bradford at Allison's flouring mill in a short while.

The serenaders gave John Breon quite a reception last week; it would have been more but the horse-fiddle got wet.

The Penn Literary society entertained the Shakespeare club on Friday night. After the literary ceremonies were over, ice cream, cake, etc., were served.

On Saturday night a very severe storm accompanied with thunder, lightning and rain passed over this vicinity. 'Twas the worst ever known for the time of the year.

John Heckman had the best public sale that has been in this community. His horses sold high, one pair bringing respectively, $127 and $111; his cows still better as compared with other sales; other goods sold well. The day was fine and everything was in good shape.

REBERSBURG.

The Events of the Past Week as Chronicled by Our Correspondent.

W. H. Corman left for the west on a business trip. School closed on the 11th; the boys and girls seem very glad. A. L. Nearhood is housed up with a sore eye, but is improving.

Ex-Superintendent Meyer was to Bellefonte on Wednesday.

Samuel Frank, of Spring Mills, is moving home to his parents.

Misses Rilla Morris and Anna Nearhood were to Millheim Sunday.

Charles C. Bierly is putting up quite a building for himself and wife.

The Lutheran congregation expect to have an Easter entertainment.

Harry Musser, who had taken sick at State College, is slowly improving.

Our burg is fast improving, as there are quite a number of buildings going up.

On Monday morning, the 14th, Cyrus Earhart took sick very suddenly, but is slowly improving.

Mrs. Charles Bierly who has been sick for some time, is not yet able to be up; it seems there is no help for her.

Last Friday evening Harry Corman, our practical Phrenologist, lectured at Woodward. He says he had a good turn out.

Clark Gramley's sale on the 16th was quite a success; he also intends moving to our burg; we are all glad to have him come.

The summer term of school will open on the 4th of April, by Prof. Hosterman; he expects quite a number of students.

A. L. Nearhood and wife went to Bellefonte on business last Wednesday, and also to see their son, E. C. Nearhood, at Centre Hall.

George Brungard, of Rebersburg, died at the east end of Brush valley on Sunday morning, and was buried at Brungard's church yesterday.
