J. H. Ross in the store; it seems like old times to see his smiling face be-hind the counter. Mrs. William Stover and Miss Mary Carper spent Wednesday of last week at the home of Nathaniel Zeigler and could at Centre Hall. It is a great leap from the old fash-ioned doses of blue-mass and nauseous physics to the pleasant little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Ris-ers. They cure constipation, sick headache and biliousness; for sale by Smith & Crawford. MEN'S OUTFITTERS,
