

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Andy Reestman was in Bellefonte Saturday on a business trip.

—Ex-postmaster Close, of Oakhill, was a pleasant caller, and reports war talk all the topic up there.

—Mrs. Dr. Jacobs, and little daughter, is on a visit to her brother and other relatives in Wilkesbarre.

—Harry Potter, son of Joshua Potter, west of town, has been ill the past week and confined to the house.

—Fergus Potter, of Linden Hall, has been summoned as a juror to United States District Court, at Pittsburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. Ray Morgan, of State College, spent Sunday at the home of S. W. Smith. They returned Monday.

—Prof. James Gregg and Mrs. Gregg, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the home of Porter Odenkirk at Old Fort.

—John Thomas, Frank Homan and Sam Kerstetter drove over to Bellefonte last Thursday to take in the big blaze there.

—James B. Frank, one of Rebersburg's leading citizens gave the Reporter a call and reports things generally level down there.

—Ex-Commissioner John Wolf and daughter, Miss Winnie Wolf, of Rebersburg, spent Tuesday in town among their many friends.

—Miss Roxanna Brislin returned home Tuesday after a visit of two weeks among friends in Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

—Miss Agnes M. Murray, of this place, graduated from the Department of Pharmacy of Buffalo, N. Y., University. The exercises took place on Tuesday evening at Buffalo.

—Mrs. Tammie Lowell, of Allegheny City, Pa., was a guest at the home of W. W. Boob Monday. She was on her way home after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Evans, at Potters Mills.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, nee Alexander, of Milroy, gave our sanctum a call. She and her family left here 29 years ago, being the widow of Jas. Alexander, and lived at Milroy four years and was married to Jas. Brown, and then moved to Kansas, where her second husband died a few years ago, in consequence of which she moved back to Milroy last June.

—Spring Mills' live merchant, C. P. Long, was in town Tuesday transacting business. During the last couple years Charley has done more towards the improvement of his town in erecting modern buildings and fostering enterprises than this town has known for a decade. Charley still has a political bee buzzing under his hat and it is rumored from reliable sources that he will ask the Republican party for its support in representing this county in the next legislature.

Spain's Waiting Game.

A military aide attached to a foreign diplomatic corps, who is a recognized authority on war strategy, pointed out the other day the two strategic moves open to the Spanish navy, one or the other of which, he believed, would be adopted. He said:

"The first, and probably the best, strategic move by Spain would be to concentrate and hold their fleet at the Cape de Verde islands and the Canaries and wait until the American fleet came to them. They would then have the advantage of position, base of supplies and ample coal. It would be a waiting game, but it would promise much better results than seeking a decisive naval engagement far away from the base of supplies and from coal."

"The only serious difficulty would be that it would necessitate the abandonment of Cuba and Porto Rico. Whether the Spaniards are willing to make so great a sacrifice as a strategic move for ultimate naval success remains to be seen."

"If not, then the Spanish navy must choose the other strategic move of making a dash to this side and risking everything on the chance of a decisive victory at the outset. It would be a desperate move, but if successfully executed it would prove inestimable value, not only in its material results, including the defense of Cuba and Porto Rico, but also the sentimental influences of encouragement, inspiring enthusiasm."

"But it would be a most hazardous move, as the Spanish ships would have the Atlantic between them and the home ports, with little or no chance of replenishing their coal supplies."

"What course the Spanish strategists will adopt, I do not know, but all things considered, it seems to me likely they will adopt a waiting game a retirement of their naval forces until the United States fleet, eager for a contest, goes in quest of them."

Wanamaker Gaining in Centre.

John Wanamaker's visit to Centre county has been attended by good results. J. G. Platt, a candidate for delegate to the State convention in the Quay interests, is now for Wanamaker. Other Wanamaker men who want to be elected delegates are: Capt. C. T. Fryberger, Philipsburg; Capt. S. H. Bension, Walker, and J. A. Aiken, of Bellefonte.

COBURN.

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Samuel Ard and F. P. Barker are on the sick list.

S. S. Wilson who works at Glen Union, Clinton county, came home to visit his family last Saturday.

Rev. Brown had communion services in the Reformed church at this place last Sunday afternoon.

When the train pulls in in the morning, there is usually a rush to get the morning papers, all eager to hear the latest war news.

The grain house, late of Luther Guisewitz was not sold on last Thursday. The assignee not being satisfied with the amount bid, which was $5700.

Mrs. James A. Kooney, Mrs. Frank Hackenberg and Jacob Platt attended the corner stone laying of the Mount U. Ev. church on last Sunday.

Constable D. B. Geary and wife visited friends at Oak Hall and Boalsburg on Saturday and Sunday, and on Monday they went to Bellefonte, where Mr. Geary is serving the county as grand juror.

Mrs. Charles Hixson after a prolonged stay at Scranton, Pa., came home on last Saturday and on Tuesday she and her husband left for Lewisburg where they will remain for the present. It will be remembered that Mrs. Hixson is the lady who left her home very abruptly some time in February last.

A very few of our people are showing their patriotism, by displaying flags. Every day now should be flag day. The school house flag is conspicuous for its absence. The pole is still standing, but no flag has been displayed for over a year. This should not be.

James Burd is here at present making some extensive improvements about his premises now occupied by J. D. Bowersox and family. On Saturday he showed your correspondent an interesting relic, in the way of an old copy of the Philadelphia Inquirer, which was dated May, 1861. The greater part of the paper is filled with war notes, of the great rebellion, then just breaking out, same as that paper now is filled with war news, between this country and Spain.

The attention of our supervisors should be called to the dilapidated condition of some of the index boards over the township; at some places the bare posts stand, with perhaps Kemp's Balsam very conspicuously advertised but no board pointing the way; at other places there is absolutely nothing to direct a traveler on the way. At one place the name of the town indicated on the hand board is spelled backwards. The neglect of supervisors to erect suitable handboards at all intersection of roads, after ten days personal notice is punishable by a fine.

REBERSBURG.

What Our Correspondent from Down the Valley Has to Say.

A. L. Nearhood had a telephone put in his hotel.

Some of our young ladies want to go to war, but have not started yet.

War is all the talk in Rebersburg, and flags are seen everywhere.

Misses Bird and Bess Stover got a wheel, have not seen them riding yet.

Dr. Hosterman wears a very pleasant smile since the arrival of a baby girl.

It is quite lively in our burg at present, there is a show about; if you need any medicine come.

Mrs. A. L. Nearhood and son were to Rock Springs on a sad errand; to attend the funeral of David Nearhood's son.

FARMERS MILLS.

What Our Neighbors in that Section of the Valley are Doing.

Hagan Bros., the boss carpenters are busy as bees, and have a great deal of work on hand for the summer.

J. H. Rishel our hustling merchant, has been getting in a large assortment of spring goods, and is selling at lowest prices.

Weaver Bros have just completed the work of setting out five thousand peach trees, also several hundred plum trees on the farm along Brush mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rishel spent Sunday last at Madisonburg, at the home of Ellis Shaffer, at which place his aged mother is very ill.

Quite a number of our sports spent a greater part of the Sabbath day out driving instead of going to church as they should have done.

Farmers are busy plowing their oats and corn ground, some have already sowed their oats; they had better wait until the ground gets warm and then sow.

John E. Rishel has been introducing the Cyclone woven wire fence in some parts of the county, and it seems to give perfect satisfaction as it is just what the farmers need, a fence that will turn all kinds of stock, and the Cyclone will answer every time.

The Union Sunday school has re-organized for the summer. The following officers were elected by the school: Supt., Samuel Homan, Assistant Supt. M. L. Rishel, Secretary, W. F. Rishel, Assistant, H. F. Hagan, treasurer, M. L. Rishel, organist, Miss Grace Grove.

LINDEN HALL.

Items of Importance from the Busy Town Up the Valley.

Joseph Garbrie and wife spent a few days recently with their children in Bellefonte.

Henry Zeigler was at Pleasant Gap last Tuesday, visiting friends and transacting business.

Lot Kimpfort and J. A. Gettig started for Altoona on Wednesday morning with a drove of cattle.

Do not forget the social on Saturday evening, April 30th. All come and have a good time socially.

L. W. Kimpfort shipped a car load of baled hay to Kipple, Pa., to his son Samuel, who is in business at that place.

Some of our people are taking advantage of the trout season and nearly all the trout streams are lined with fishers.

A. E. Zeigler was visiting friends in the lower end of Penns and Brush valleys week before last and enjoyed himself immensely.

The war is the main topic of conversation around here at present. Hale Ross' store is headquarters for information, where the brave (?) and resolute (?) gather to discuss the subject.

Mrs. J. W. Keller, one of our enterprising merchants of this place, left on Monday for Womelsdorf, where she will spend a few days with her boys, who are attending school at that place and from there she will go to Philadelphia to purchase her summer stock of goods.

Removed From Missouri.
