From a Lawful Standpoint

It may be a relief to some of our friends assisting their wives to take up carpets and other matters pertaining to spring house cleaning and moving time to know that the supreme court has decided that plain "damn" is not swearing. The supreme court admits that it is not elegant, and might properly be omitted from ordinary conversation, but it does not come under the meaning of the statute against profane swearing.

The Trouble Over.

A prominent man in town said the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Bacon's Celery King for the Nerves she is almost entirely well." Keep your blood in a healthy condition by the use of this great vegetable compound. Call at G. H. Longs, Spring Mills, sole agent, and get a trial bottle free. Large sizes 50c. and 25c.

Clear Out!

Westminster Gazette, of London.

Spain has had for the last three years two plain alternatives before her in Cuba — to clear out or clear out. When on top of it comes the destruction of an American battleship by a submarine mine in Havana harbor can we wonder that the people of the United States are profoundly stirred, or that they should demand not a clearing up, for which the time is past, but a clearing out, for which no time is too soon?

The Best Liniment. — "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the finest on earth," write Edwards & Parker, of Plains, Ga. This is the verdict of all who use it. For rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings, and the numerous slight ailments and accidents common to every household, this liniment has no equal. With it in the house, a great deal of pain and suffering may be avoided. For sale by S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. H. Ross, Linden Hall, and H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.
