There is possibility of wheat going over two dollars.

Why don't Uncle Sam go and ask Spain what she'll take to settle it?

There is no parallel to Dewey's great victory—not a man of his killed and only six injured.

Gen. Frank Reeder, of Easton, has announced himself a Republican candidate for governor.

Congressman Hicks denies that he received any money from the sale of post-offices in his district.

Dewey, who made the wonderful fight in Manila harbor, is a Vermont, and now safe in history.

The Spaniards learned more United States history in the last ten days than in the last hundred years.

Spain, late so full of brag, bluster, bombast, sass, Blanco and Weyler, is now blasted, bombarded, busted and bankrupt.

John Bull was surprised over Dewey's great victory. All high authorities in Europe pronounce it a brilliant stroke. The greatest "surprise" struck the Spaniards.

Dewey cut the cable himself, no doubt to prevent interference with his plans from Washington, and when he had finished doing up the Spaniards, then he sent his report.

If Weyler is so red-hot to fight the Yankees why don't he come back to his former Havana stamping ground where there have been chances to fight, instead of making snoots at us yanks 3000 miles across the sea?

The Philippine group consists of over 1200 islands, with a population of 9 million mostly semi-civilized people. These islands are among the richest in the world. Having conquered them the United States can keep them under the law of nations.

The Archbishops and Bishops of the Catholic church in the United States have agreed upon a letter to be addressed to the clergy and laity of the country, in which all priests are directed to offer petitions daily for peace through a "glorious victory" by our arms.

If Spain is out of coal we suppose might get about 15 tons at the McCalmont coal yard, Bellefonte, which would supply what is left of her fleet. We are aware this information is contraband.

Admiral Dewey did a cool thing at the battle of Manila. When the fight was half over he stopped it and ordered his men to go to breakfast, and when the meal was over he ordered his men to finish the licking.

We heartily rejoice with the farmer over the rise in wheat. In Chicago, at the close of last week the price went up to 1.70 and in New York to 1.60. There are three causes for the rise in wheat: the crop shortage, Leiter's operations, and the war with Spain.

McKinley has nothing to do in it.

When Dewey's fleet began to pepper the Spaniards in Manila harbor, the yell went up from hundreds of our sailors, "Remember the Maine!" "Remember the Maine!" That is enough to make any American fight like a tiger.

The only foreign country that gave aid to Spain after the outbreak of the war, was Portugal, by sending 900 cases of ammunition to the Spanish fleet at Cape Verde. This little snip of a kingdom, hanging on the west side of Spain, may regret her action when Uncle Sam hauls her over his knee for a smacking.

Russia's czar is friendly to the United States. A leading Russian diplomat said in Washington, a few days ago, that the cable report from London stating that Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, was much disturbed as to the ultimate destiny of the Philippines and that some sort of immediate intervention was probable, was entirely unwarranted and placed Russia in a misleading position before the people of this country.

He says the sentiment throughout Russia, official and unofficial, is one of extreme cordiality toward the United States and it shows there will be no change in the traditional friendship existing between the United States and Russia. The friendly feeling, he pointed out, was shown by the Russian newspapers. Their comment was without exception of the most friendly character toward the United States.

Here is another reason why Europe will not combine to fight the United States—or, rather, to antagonize the United States, for there is very little danger that Europe will combine to fight anything until conditions change materially. The Powers cannot afford to incur the ill-will of this country. To use a homely but expressive phrase, they would be quarreling with their bread and butter. America does not literally feed the world, but the withdrawal of American supplies would leave a large part of it hungry. Look at the current news: Bread riots in Spain; famine in Italy; France jumping at an offer of 2,000,000 bushels of American wheat at $1.47. Great Britain cheerfully paying $1.40 for the same article—and all this in a year when there are no reports of great crop failures. Now, suppose these countries enter into either a commercial or military war with the United States—what happens? In the former case, they enact discriminating tariffs, which react on their own people and make life harder for them. In the latter case, they simply cut off their own supplies. Is it likely that any of them are foolish enough to do either.—Ledger.

SELLING POST-MASTERSHIPS.

John Wanamaker, in his recent address at West Chester, charged that a new and startling game of corruption had crept into politics to enrich bosses and their henchmen, by selling the post-masterships in the congressional districts for a fixed sum of money, depending upon the size of a town and the applicant paying the label price, gets the appointment. One office, said to be by Tyrone, was labeled at $3000. Mr. Wanamaker seems to infer that congressmen share the boodle, if these things be so. The exposure has caused a sensation throughout the state, and congress may investigate this new game of boodle—perhaps give it a coat of whitewash.

Is the charge true? The Reporter believes Mr. Wanamaker has been rightly informed, from the fact that we heard rumors last summer that post-offices in this county were disposed of in this manner, and the names of politicians in Bellefonte coupled with it, innocent or guilty, we, of course do not know, but Mr. Wanamaker having learned of the disgraceful game having been played in other counties, inclines us to believe the rumors were not unfounded.

We understood that the sum fixed for the appointment of post-masters in the smaller towns of Centre county, was from $75 to $100, and the fellow who put up the boodle got the plum—some applicants wouldn't, and others couldn't. The game, it would seem, leaked out through the applicants who considered the game dishonorable.

If you paid the price over to a certain "head centre" in a county, his recommendation chalked your hat at Washington.

Such infamous business should receive merited punishment.

There is another corrupt game that is growing, that of officials letting out contracts for building, repairs, advertising, etc., to parties who offer the officials the largest rebate. We could name several ex-officials in this kind of unlawful barter. It is dangerous business, and in Philadelphia, Schuylkill, Luzerne and other counties officials have been fined and imprisoned for accepting rebates or other things of value for contracts awarded.

Republican Primaries.

Chairman W. E. Gray has issued a call for the Republican primaries to be held on Saturday, May 21, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County convention, which will be held in the Court house on the following Tuesday, May 24. The County convention elects two delegates to the State convention at Harrisburg. The convention for nominating a county ticket will not be held until about Aug. 1. The county convention will be composed of 125 delegates.

Officers Elected.

At the fourteenth meeting of the Central Pa. Odd Fellows association held at Danville recently the following officers were re-elected: President, William H. Kiess; secretary, Joseph H. Mackey; treasurer, Charles Scheffel, all of Williamsport. Bellefonte was selected as the place of meeting next year.
