

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. Frank Fisher, of Boalsburg, was a visitor in town on Tuesday. Sheriff Cronister, of Bellefonte, was in town Monday evening. D. C. Keller, proprietor of the Hotel Haag, Bellefonte, was in town Tuesday. Miss Anna Gregg, of Bellefonte, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Mame Miller. Walter Kerlin is attending a Luther League convention which is in session at Renova. Pleasant Gap's amiable business man, merchant Noll, was a pleasant caller upon the Reporter. Mrs. Thomas Lingle and Mrs. Marvin Arney, were pleasant callers at the Reporter office. Mrs. Mary McClenahan who has been seriously ill for the past two months is slowly improving. Mr. Wm. Coldren, one of Pleasant Gap's good citizens, was in town Tuesday transacting business. Miss Annie Lohr, of Lewisburg, came up Monday on a short visit among friends in her old home. Cloyd Haines, of Rebersburg, a leading school teacher of that section, favored our sanctum with a call. Simon Dinges, one of Williamsport's affable insurance agents, called to give us a warm handshake. James Stewart, of New Bloomfield, Pa., came up on a few days' visit. Mrs. Stewart had been visiting her parents for some time. They returned Tuesday. W. C. Wagner, merchant of Kipple, was here last week shaking hands with his many friends, and made an our's pleasant call at the Reporter's sanctum and had his label advanced. B. Poulson, the handle manufacturer, was away several days last week to Titusville, Pa., on a business trip. Mr. Poulson expects to remove his handle factory from this place and locate elsewhere. The Reporter was favored with call from two of Middleburg's prominent citizens, Messrs. H. C. Walter and Calvin Stettler, who, with wives and children, are visiting at Rev. Reaick's, the first named being a brother of Mrs. Reaick. They will visit State College and Bellefonte before returning home. Rev. W. K. Foster and son Herbert were here a few days the latter part of last week visiting among relatives. Rev. Foster filled the pulpit at State College last Sunday. He is now charge of the Watonsontown Presbyterian church, having recently accepted the call. Sumner V. Hosterman left this morning for Lancaster, Pa., after a visit home of about three weeks. The Senior class of Franklin and Marshall College, of which he is a member, graduates next Thursday. He will at once begin reading law, having registered in the office of prominent Lancaster attorneys. Rev. J. W. Boal, a former highest-esteemed Presbyterian pastor of this place, is here visiting friends, and also called to pay his respects to the Reporter. Rev. Boal is still residing at Tappan, and we were pleased to learn from him that his family is well. It is gratifying to us to have him announce that that eminent and pure Pennsylvania jurist, Hon. Cyrus L. Renshaw, President Judge at Pottsville, requested him to bear to us his highest esteem and regard. D. F. Luse took a trip last week through New York exhibiting his water hydrant to water managers and others. He was successful in having his hydrant accepted in several towns. In Ithaca, N. Y., he met our former townsman, E. G. Van Pelt, who showed him the sights of that city. Mr. Luse was in Seneca Falls, N. Y., where he purchased a hydrant to make his patent water hydrant as we understand will be prepared to do all kinds of lathe work aside from his hydrant, having purchased one of the very best machines on the market. The Reporter Doing a Good Thing, as Ever. The daily war dispatches received at the Reporter office, are telephoned by us at once to all points on this side of the county free of charge, thus keeping all up to the hour as to the war. One reader made the remark, "There is never any thing little or mean about the Reporter."

How Memorial Day Exercises Were Observed.—Other News of Interest. C. A. Moyer has retired from business in our village, and has vacated the premises. Sorry to lose him as a citizen. G. C. King one of our active citizens opened a meat market on Monday last—a convenience long needed. The neighborhood can now obtain choice meats any day. The Ladies Mite Society of the Lutheran church held an open air festival on Tuesday evening last, which proved a decided success notwithstanding the evening proved rather cool. I understand that the veterans assisted by the sons of veterans, are quietly making preparations to celebrate the coming Fourth of July in an unusually interesting manner, camp-fires, beans, hard tack, pyrotechnics, etc. Let us all assist to make it a grand success and have a glorious time. W. G. Runkle, of Bellefonte, Democratic candidate for the nomination for District Attorney, made us a visit on Saturday last. Mr. Runkle is well known here and throughout our valley, is very affable, a gentleman of unquestionable abilities and a thorough Democrat. If nominated he would undoubtedly prove a strong candidate; his friends here are by no means idle. W. P. Alexander, head miller in the milling establishment of Allison Bros. of our village, is able to attend to business again. Ten days ago in removing from a wagon a bag containing over two hundred pounds of bran, his foot slipped and he fell, with the bran on top, receiving injuries which confined him to the house for several days. W. S. Musser our polite railroad agent, has erected and about finished a very handsome portico to his residence, besides making several other improvements to his property. Mr. Musser has been our railroad agent for quite a number of years, and has become very popular with the traveling public. Frank Hettinger his assistant, is also becoming quite a railroad man. Memorial Day was an unusually interesting event here; the weather was delightful, and our town thronged with visitors. The National colors floated from about every building in the village. Some of the residences were very handsomely decorated, the occupants displaying considerable artistic skill. Our village presented a very beautiful appearance. The parade was quite a feature and remarkably large. Promptly at 6 o'clock p. m., they moved in the following order: Drum corps followed by the old veterans—their numbers growing less day by day—the Spring Mills band, then the sons of veterans in their bright, new uniforms, presenting a particularly fine and soldierly appearance; the Sunday schools next, carrying floral tributes, followed by citizens and carriages in large numbers. At the cemetery the services were of a very interesting character. After the manual of arms and the salute of musketry by the sons of veterans, Dr. P. W. Leitze, Captain, made a few touching remarks, followed by Victor Royer, one of the members, who delivered a very beautiful address, words to the unknown dead. Next was the decoration of the graves. While the band was playing a dirge Miss Rena Shires, Miss Virna Reaick and Miss Lena Grolman, three handsome young ladies of our village, all charmingly attired in immaculate white, looking like goddesses, decorated the monument erected in remembrance of the unknown dead; it was a beautiful tribute. At the conclusion of the ceremony, appropriate addresses were delivered by Col. J. P. Coburn, of Bellefonte, Sumner Hosterman, of Centre Hall, and Dr. D. M. Wolf, of our village. Miss Bessie Brown, daughter of William Brown, leader of the band, recited in a feeling manner a very beautiful poem, eliciting prolonged applause. At the conclusion of the address of Col. J. P. Coburn, on the suggestion of C. P. Long, two large handsome silk flags were woven before the speakers and above the heads of the audience, and three cheers proposed, which created considerable enthusiasm, particularly among the old heroes, and responded to with a hearty good will by every body. The Sons of Veterans had entire charge of the services of the day, and deserve all honor and praise for the admirable manner in which everything connected with the celebration was conducted. At the Georges valley cemetery, after the exercises and decoration, a very brilliant address, in fact an oration was delivered by J. H. Keller assistant teacher in the Spring Mills Academy, Rev. Faus also made a few remarks. The attendance was quite large. At the Mountain cemetery, by the way, that little community, in which it is located, deserve to be highly complimented upon the neat and cleanly condition of their cemetery, it now presents a very beautiful appearance. After the military exercises by the Sons of Veterans, the old veterans decorated the grave of comrade Grim, the only soldier who sleeps beneath that church yard sod. The attendance here was also quite large. S. E. Parker, Sharon, Wis., writes: "I have tried De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for itching piles and it always cures them in two minutes. I consider De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve the greatest pile cure on the market." For sale by Smith & Crawford. S. M. Geary, Pierson, Mich., writes: "De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is curing more piles here today than all other remedies combined. It cures eczema and all other skin diseases. For sale by Smith & Crawford."

The Largest Flag in the County to be Swung to the Breeze. Merchant F. P. Barker made a business trip to Bellefonte on Wednesday. One of B. F. Allen's cows was struck and killed by a freight train on Tuesday. Andrew J. Rishel has gone to Mill Hall and has found employment at Mann's axe factory. Frank Bartges and wife and T. A. Meyer and wife were visiting friends in Nittany valley over Sunday. Merchant James E. Harter and wife visited at the home of John Hosterman, near Woodward on Sunday. Memorial Day passed off quietly here. Most of our people went to Millheim to witness the exercises there. Samuel Ard made a business trip to Lancaster on Tuesday. He had intended to stop off at Harrisburg on his way back. The Misses Emma and Bessie Burd, of near Lewisburg, with two gentlemen friends, were visiting friends at this place on Sunday. Scott Kerstetter, of Rebersburg, the man who was seriously hurt at that place a few weeks ago at a flag raising, was taken to the Williamsport hospital on Tuesday morning. He was brought here, and taken to the last named place on a stretcher. The citizens of this place will swing to the breeze in the near future, the largest flag in the county; it will be 24x42 feet in size, and will be fastened on a steel wire stretched from one mountain to another. Will give full particulars next week. The Oleo Decisions. The most that the Pennsylvania laws can do in the case is to compel the article to be sold for oleomargarine and not for butter, and this would seem to be all the law ought to do, even though there were no constitutional limitations to State legislation upon this subject. If sold only under its own proper title none will be deceived about what they are purchasing. Those who don't want oleomargarine will not be compelled to buy it.—Phil. Times. The decision of the United States Supreme Court affecting the oleomargarine law of Pennsylvania is practically only a reaffirmation of the decision rendered in the Iowa "original package" case of several years ago. But it will have its effect in educating public sentiment to the demand for a modification of the law that will recognize the rights of all the people and take away from the politicians the lever they have used so effectively upon the rural population of the State. Prohibitory legislation has been devised by the political class, based upon false pretenses, to secure, first, the support of the agricultural class and afterward use the threat of repeal for the purpose of bulldozing the same class into supporting the political machines.—Pittsburg Dispatch. The Philad. Record thinks the best way for the farmers of Pennsylvania to prevent the sale of oleomargarine in the State is to make such a fine quality of butter that there will be no demand for inferior substitutes. Perpetual Motion. The question of perpetual motion has been solved by a Populist genius: Rags make paper. Paper makes money. Money makes banks. Banks make loans. Loans make poverty. Poverty makes rags. Rags make—well, you stop here and commence over again, and keep on going until the cows come home.—Kansas. THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION AND COUNTY CONVENTION. The delegates chosen at the above stated time will meet in the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, June 14th, 1898, at 12 o'clock, noon, to nominate—Two candidates for Assembly, one candidate for Probationary, and one candidate for District Attorney; elect five delegates to the State convention, to be held at Altoona, June 29th, 1898; elect three conferees to the next congressional caucus or conference, of the 28th congressional district of which Centre county forms a part; elect three conferees to the next conference of the 34th senatorial district, to help select a State senatorial candidate; elect a chairman of the County Committee, to serve from January 1st, 1899, to January 1st, 1900; and to transact such other business as may appear before the convention in the interest of the party.
