

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Misses Emille and Grace Alexander visited friends in Tyrone last week.

—Gross Yearick and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting among friends in Penns valley.

—Miss Helen Bartholomew has again been elected teacher of the Millheim primary school.

—Miss Grace Lee has gone on a visit to friends at Altoona and expects to remain some time.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Barber, of Milton, arrived yesterday on a visit to relatives at this place.

—Mrs. R. M. Magee and two sons, of Philadelphia, visited at the home of George Emerick, near town last week.

—Miss Martha Moore, of near Philadelphia, is being entertained by her friend, Miss Helen Bartholomew.

—Jerre Miller went to Mill Hall on Tuesday on a visit to his brother, who has been quite ill with consumption.

—Isaac Smith and son Witmer who are clerking in a large store in Altoona, were home a couple days last week.

—Prof. H. F. Bitner, of the Millersville State Normal faculty, spent part of his vacation with the family of J. D. Murray.

—Henry Gettig, of Linden Hall, was one of our callers, having taken a spin down on his bike. He is one of seven brothers.

—Mrs. Margaret Harper and Mrs. Joseph Atlee, of Tyrone, arrived last week on a visit to their many friends in this vicinity.

—Miss Alice Hazlet and sister Martha, of Williamsport, have been the guests of Miss Grace Smith the last two weeks.

—Forest Bible, for three or four years a student at the station here, has received an appointment as clerk in the freight office at Northumberland.

—Mrs. D. W. Reynolds and daughter Miss Edna, of Reedsville, and Miss Beulah Betts, of Philadelphia, were visiting among friends in town yesterday.

—R. J. Seeds, of Williamsport, a member of the 12th Pa. volunteers, located at Camp Alger, spent part of his furlough over the Fourth in Centre Hall.

—Asher Harter, of Rockford, Ill., was east on a short visit to his former home in Millheim, and friends in this place. He returned west again Tuesday morning.

—Prof. George Bible, of the Normal at Stroudsburg, was here on a vacation visit to friends and gave the Reporter a call. He looks as well and pleasant as ever.

—Miss Mary Goodhart arrived here last week and is again making her home with the family of J. S. Dauberman. She had been located in Cleveland, Ohio, since last fall.

—Mrs. Mame Kreamer Solly, of Harrisonburg, Va., arrived last week on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Kreamer. She expects to remain several weeks.

—Wallace, a son of station master Wilson, of Altoona, came hither from that city, per bicycle, on a visit to Joshua T. Potter's; he and Harry Potter went on a trip to Watsonstown, to visit friends.

—W. O. Rearick and wife returned home last Friday from a two weeks' visit to Ohio. The greater part of the time they spent with friends in Cleveland, and took in all the attractions of the city.

—S. H. Heckman of Lock Haven, gave our sanctum a pleasant call, and had his label put in good position; he and family were visiting his father-in-law, merchant Harry Kreamer, of our town.

—E. H. Shook, a leading citizen of near Penn Hall, was an agreeable caller and after an interesting chat had his label set into the roll of honest patrons; he mentioned crops being good in that section.

—Clyde Smith, of the 12th Reg., Pa. Vol., stationed at Camp Alger, came home yesterday morning on a short furlough. Clyde is one of the boys who has gone to the front and says he expects soon to see active service.

—John Rishel, eight years a Philadelphia, formerly of this place, was here last week, visiting friends and favored us with a call. His oldest brother, Ward, is also in Philadelphia, in the employ of the Penn'a R.R. John is in the real estate business.

—Miss Agnes Murray and Frank Ross went to Williamsport Tuesday morning to attend the examinations of the State Board of Pharmacy. Each has undergone the necessary course of instruction in pharmaceutical schools along with the required practice, and will successfully pass the rigid examinations for a certificate.

—Mrs. Jane Cameron Harrison, of Lewisburg, with her daughter Miss Nelle and friend, Miss Little, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Centre Hall on Saturday. They were making a tour of our county by carriage, taking in all points of scenic interest. Mrs. Harrison is a close relative of the late Gen. Simon Cameron, who was well known to our oldest residents and frequently made trips through here.

SPRING MILLS.

An Interesting Account of the Fourth Celebration.

Wm. Medara of our village, is at least two feet taller than he was last week—a daughter.

Cherries are selling at two cents per quart; down this way they are remarkably small, and nearly all more or less defective.

Hay pretty much all housed, and farmers report a good crop. They say the weevil has damaged the wheat to some extent. Potatoes are beginning to suffer for want of rain; oats looks well and gives promise of a large yield.

The Democratic nominee for Governor is well received in this community. Elect men to office of sterling worth and eminent abilities like Mr. Jenks, and our state would soon emerge from her present disgraceful and humiliated condition, caused by the vandals of the party of "great moral ideas." They are now very much annoyed at the result of the Altoona convention, and are very free with advice, and say the Democrats should have nominated Judge Gordon, anybody but Jenks. These people have a wonderful capacity for not minding their own business.

D. H. Ruhl our accommodating landlord reports business quite lively; on the Fourth the hotel was crowded from the cellar to the garret. Quite a large number of agents tarried over on account of the celebration, and other travelers arriving put our landlord to his wits end to accommodate all, but he managed to do it anyhow. Some one reported that Davy was obliged to sleep on the wood pile that night, but that's doubtful.

The school board of Gregg township has made the following excellent appointments, all being teachers of ability and capacity. Prof. D. M. Wolf the grammar school at Spring Mills; Mr. Derr intermediate, and Miss Mabel Sankey the primary department. R. U. Bitner at Decker; W. A. Brown Polk Hill; J. A. Wagner Mountain; C. E. Roper Beaver Dam; A. Duck Penn Hall; Miss Mary Guise Cross Roads; John Rearick Toll Gate; G. W. Weaver Farmers Mills, J. B. White Logan; A. J. Hazel Murray, and A. M. Brungart at Hoy.

The Fourth of July was ushered in with the booming of cannon, guns, pistols and a general fusillade of fire crackers. Our village presented a gay and lively scene, and was thronged with visitors from early morn 'til long after midnight. Flags, streamers and the National colors floated from about every building in the village; some of our dwellings were beautifully and artistically decorated, notably the residences of Michael Shires, Dr. F. H. Van Valzah, Titis Gramley and the M. E. parsonage. A very handsome and elaborate display of National colors was also to be seen at the large business establishment of C. P. Long, in fact all of our stores made handsome displays. Both young and old seemed to vie with each other in good humor and patriotism. Music, mirth and the inevitable fire cracker ruled the day and evening.

In the morning we had quite a lively and exciting game of base ball between the "Sniddefritze" nine and the "Wild cat" club—very much mixed teams of course. The score proves that they were all "expert" players being 16 to 17 in favor of the club. Immediately after noon the fun and sport commenced in earnest. A tub race was the first on the program, the first prize was awarded to Harry Ruhl, the second to Curt Shaeffer; the race was witnessed by a large number of people and created considerable merriment, after which the grand parade was formed in the following order, Dr. P. W. Leitzell Chief Marshal, Spring Mills band and drum corps, followed by ten of our village beauties, all handsomely attired in white dresses wearing elegant sashes of National colors, bearing openly a large American flag. Next to follow were the storm and war worn veterans J. I. Condo in command. These venerable warriors marched in their old military style with banners unfurled, no doubt reminding each one of all the pride, pomp and circumstance of gloriouis war once so familiar to them. Then followed the K. of G. E., W. P. Alexander Marshal; the Knights presented a fine appearance and were out in good numbers. The Sons of Veterans with G. H. Long in command came next and were largely represented; they presented a fine soldierly appearance. Next in order was quite a large company of lads attired in full trimmed navy blue uniforms, armed with guns, W. B. Krape in command. The lads looked remarkably well, attracting universal attention, and as they marched along with almost military precision were frequently applauded. Then followed citizens, etc. After marching through the village, the parade halted on the creek road a short distance above the iron bridge, to raise the flag. Here a large crowd had collected to witness the ceremony. The young ladies attached the flag to the cable and it was then thrown to the breeze amid vociferous cheering, music and a salute of musketry. When quiet was restored, the young ladies sang the beautiful song "We'll Stand by the Flag," and acquitted themselves admirably. The march was then resumed and proceeded to the beautifully located grounds north of the village selected for the celebration. Here the committee had every arrangement made for the comfort and accommodation of every body, ample provision had been provided in the way of refreshments, care of horses, etc., nothing was left undone that would conduce to the comfort and convenience of visitors. Previous to the games and contests, Dr. D. M. Wolf delivered a very able and patriotic address, giving quite a history of the American flag, and relating many interesting events connected with it. Prof. Krise, of Centre Hall, also made a few remarks. The games then commenced; the wheelbarrow, potato, bag and pie races were all very amusing and created considerable fun. Earl Bartley, a young man of our village, seems to have been in the zenith of his glory—he won all the prizes. The sham battle was decidedly good and exceedingly well maneuvered, a first rate illustration of grim visaged war. The camp fire conducted by the veterans, their mode of "housekeeping," cooking beans, etc., while on the tented field, proved quite interesting, giving us a fair insight of genuine army life. In the evening Hon. John G. Love, of Bellefonte, delivered a very brilliant and eloquent address, eliciting the closest attention from a large and enthusiastic audience and was frequently interrupted by loud and continued applause. Thomas Harter, of the Gazette, also delivered a brief address, after which the celebration was closed with a large and magnificent display of pyrotechnics; almost continuously the grounds were brilliantly illuminated from rockets, Roman candles, Bengala lights and colored fires, presenting a beautiful and fairy like scene. The sons of Veterans are to be congratulated upon their grand and complete success in everything connected with the celebration. The large number of people congregated in our village were interested at once, and the interest continued to the close; all were evidently pleased and delighted, and unhesitatingly pronounced the celebration a complete success, and unquestionably excelling all previous efforts in Spring Mills.
