

A Fortune From a Scare.

An inventive genius who suffered from attacks by stray dogs when riding his wheel, set his wits to work to devise something which would be an efficacious, and yet comparatively harmless, means of defense.

When the pot calls the kettle black it is time for the kettle to demand an investigation as to the color of the pot.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body.

The steam power of Great Britain represents the combined strength of 1,000,000,000 men.

"I'm So Tired!"

As tired in the morning as when I go to bed! Why is it? Simply because your blood is in such a poor, thin, sluggish condition it does not keep up your strength and you do not get the benefit of your sleep.

The royal British antiquarian and archaeological societies have lodged a petition with Lord Salisbury protesting against the peculiar form of prison labor in Egypt since the Khedive's penitentiaries and jails have been under English management.

THEY WANT TO TELL

These Grateful Women Who Have Been Helped by Mrs. Pinkham.

Women who have suffered severely and been relieved of their ills by Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine are constantly urging publication of their statements for the benefit of other women.

Mrs. LIZIE BEVERLY, 258 Merrimac St., Lowell, Mass., writes: "It affords me great pleasure to tell all suffering women of the benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"I took your medicine at the time my baby was born, causing me to have milk legs, and was sick in bed for eight weeks. Doctors did me no good. I was also troubled with falling of the womb. I could not eat, had faint spells as often as ten times a day."

"I suffered the tortures of the damned with protruding piles brought on by constipation with which I was afflicted for twenty years. I ran across your CASCARETS in the town of Newell, Ia., and never found anything to equal them."

THE EMINENT DIVINE'S SUNDAY DISCOURSE.

Subject: "A Glorious Rest"—This World's Wealth Can Give No Permanent Satisfaction—It Is Only in Heaven That Success From Sorrow Comes.

Text: "Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest."—Micah 2: 10.

This was the drum-beat of a prophet who wanted to rouse his people from their oppressed and sinful condition; but it may just as properly be uttered now as then.

You and I have seen men who tried to rest here. They builded themselves great stores. They gathered around them the patronage of merchant princes. The voice of the market was their music.

"Wake up, man; how can you sleep when your life is so uncertain? What about those stocks? Hang on to the top of the bell."

You and I have seen men try in another direction. A man says, "If I could only succeed in such a place of renown; if I could only gain that office; if I could only get the stand and have my sentiments met with one good round of hand-clapping applause; if I could only write a book that would live, or make a speech that would thrill, or do an act that would resound!"

"Wake up!" says a rough voice. "Political sentiment is changing. How if you could succeed in such a place of renown; if I could only gain that office; if I could only get the stand and have my sentiments met with one good round of hand-clapping applause; if I could only write a book that would live, or make a speech that would thrill, or do an act that would resound!"

was Napoleon with his heart broken. How they laughed and cried when silver-tongued Sheridan, in the mid-day of prosperity harangued the people of Britain; and how they howled at and execrated him when outside of the room where his coronation lay, his creditors tried to get his miserable bouset and sell them.

This world for rest? "Aha!" cry the wits of "no rest here—we plunge to the sea." "No rest for the weary to-morrow here—we crumble to the plain." "Aha!" cry the towers, "no rest here—we follow Babylon and Thebes, and Nineveh into the dust."

No rest for the stars; they fall, and they must work, toil, suffer, and slave. Now, for what have I said all this? Just to prepare you for the text: "Arise ye and depart; for this is not your rest." I am going to make you a grand offer. Somewhere remember that when gold was discovered in California, large companies were made up and started off to get their fortunes.

STORY ABOUT SCHLEY.

How That Eminent Naval Officer Got His First Command.

How Commodore Schley got his first command is an amusing episode in his early career. After leaving the Niagara he was promptly promoted to a lieutenant and assigned as executive officer of one of the ninety-day gunboats, the Owasco of the Gulf squadron.

One day a quartermaster of the Richmond reported to Captain Allen that the captain's gig of the Owasco was approaching. Supposing his visitor to be the captain of the Owasco, Allen put on his uniform coat, the side boys were ordered, and the boatswain's mate made ready for the three pipes at the gangway.

"I expected to see Captain Allen," said Allen, with slight surprise. "I am commander of the Owasco, sir," said Schley.

"Since when?" asked Allen. "An hour ago, sir," said Schley. "Where is Captain Allen?" "Locked up in his cabin, sir, drunk."

"Who locked him in?" asked Allen. "I did. I first put him under arrest, and then shut him up in his cabin. Then I took command of the ship, and here I am to report for orders."

Allen was fond of a joke, and he was at first disposed to laugh at the young man's summary action, but he said: "Well, the first order I'll give you is for you to lower that pennant in the gig, go back to your ship, sir, unlock that cabin door, and restore Captain Allen to duty."

While busy at work in her home, Mrs. William Sixty, corner of Taylor and Hancock Avenues, Freeport, Ill., was startled by hearing a noise just behind her.

Turning quickly she saw a creeping shadow toward her. It was a young girl, her daughter, Beatrice. The child moved over the floor with a stealthy step, but she seemed filled with joy at finding her mother. The rest of the happening is best told in Mrs. Sixty's own words.

On the 23rd of Sept., 1893, while in the bloom of health, Mrs. Sixty was suddenly and severely afflicted with spinal meningitis. Strong and vigorous before, in five weeks she became feeble and suffered from a paralytic stroke which twisted her head back to the side and made it impossible for her to move a limb.

"Busy in my kitchen one afternoon I was startled by the cry of 'Mamma!' from little Beatrice who was creeping towards me. I had placed her on an improvised bed in the parlor comfortably close to the fire-side and given her some books and playthings. She became tired of waiting for me to come back and made up her mind to go to me, so her story, 'My Pink Pills made me walk,' which she tells everyone who comes to our house, was then for the first time verified. She has walked ever since. She now takes about nine boxes of the pills and her pain and pinched face has been growing rosy, and her limbs are of great strength day by day. She sleeps all night long, while before taking the pills she could rest but a few hours at a time." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists.
