Whoever sincerely desires Reform, wants George A. Jenks at Harrisburg.

The Democratic county ticket, made up as it is of good and capable men, is worthy the support of all honest vote-

If Sylvester Scovel slapped Shafter in the face Shafter ought to slap Scovel into jail. That is the only way to treat that kind of fellow.

It is rumored that Admiral Cervera has decided to take up his residence in Boston, whither he will repair with his son, Lieutenant Cervera, who is also a prisoner at Annapolis, as soon as peace is declared.

General Toral, who surrendered Santiago, is the man that the United States should protect, rather than Certial and Cervera isn't. If we must be beneficiary of the feeling.

"I have been a Republican since 1860 but our party now stinks in the nostrils of any decent man. If the people are willing to uphold this corruption and dishonesty, God save the country !" - Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker.

Nothing could better illustrate the beauties of American rule in Santiago than the fact that the Cuban refugees are leaving for their farms and plantations, where they soon will be able to raise produce for their own support. Already a Danish vessel has entered the harbor in the way of peaceful

Last Thursday, 21, was Queen Regent Christina's 40 birthday, but "owing to Spain's circumstances," the usual official receptions and banquets were suppressed. The only ceremony was a private mass celebrated in the chapel of the royal palace. The royal family ics of it existing there match the worst

Maybe Spain will cease having bull fights until after she gets over the effects of this war.

Some of those basking in McKinley's sunshine urge his re-election on account of his war-with-Spain record. What he has done is simply what would be expected of any President. He has, however, been criticised by leaders of his own party for being too slow and timid. The glorious deeds of this war, are to be credited, above all others, to Dewey, Schley, Shafter, and the regulars and volunteers in the service, whose deeds of valor and heroism are the equal of any in the world's history. Don't overlook these when seeking presidential timber with genuine deeds of heroism.

Now that the American troops have entered Santiago it is discovered that the place was not so strongly fortified as had been presumed. Morro castle had little defense to offer an enemy, and the batteries that were supposed to be formidable were armed with guns of small caliber, or, as in some cases, with practically nothing. The mines in the harbor, which were not so many as were suspected, and the guns of Cervera's ships constituted two of the chief factors of the city's defenses, and the American fleet and army had the fered few difficulties, because the savplace at their mercy.

The indorsement of Mr. Jenks by the Jeffersonian Democratic party is an indication of the manner in which the Democrats will get together this things which may speedily transform fall. The Jeffersonians appreciate the fact that there is only one is ue in the in West Indian islands. present campaign-an honest administration of state affairs. They know that Quayism must not be given a longer lease of life in this state, and they believe that the election of Mr. Jenks will prove a great blessing to the people of Pennsylvania. Now if the anti-Quayites in the Republican party will join the Democrats the election of Mr. Jenks will be assured and treasury looting will cease.

The Philadelphia Record covers in a few words the whole question of the issues of this falks campaign in Pennsylvania. It says:

"In this campaign platform phrases may be dismissed as mere surplusage and irrelevancy. The essential consideration is that George A. Jenks is in himself, in his record, his life and character, a platform that is satisfactory to every friend of good government in the Commonwealth. It is this which gives meaning, consistency and purpose to the declarations and acts of the Altoona convention. All the rest is mere verbiage. Citizens of Pennsylvania who sincerely desire good government and honest legislation will not need a platform to guide them in "In this campaign platform phrases

They raved because he made unanswerable speeches in favor of coining gold and silver :

After the election they growled because he kept educating the masses as to the justice of coining gold and silver and because he drew immense crowds. When the war broke out and he announced his intention to raise a regiment and march at its head against the Spaniards, they tried to make fun of him and said he was not in earnest; When a jealous administration put hindrances in his way to speedily raise his number of men, they charged him with cowardice for not going to the front sooner;

The early rush for stamps, of course, is responsible for this showing, which is not likely to be maintained. On the other band, the returns for the period under consideration do not include any receipts from special taxes, the certificates for the payment of brokers' and other licenses not having been ready for issue until Thursday of of J last week. The taxes on legacies and other taxes in that class collectible by assessment are still an absolutely unknown quantity, and may swell the public income far beyond the amount now estimated. As a revenue producer the new law certainly presents a significant contrast with that produ-

The people of the United States were not unable to reconstruct and govern Florida though it cost some ugly wars with savages, more or less instigated and aided by Spaniards, and it took many years to establish a State. The State of Louiit cost some ugly wars with savages, establish a State. The State of Louisiana, with the parts of Mississippi and Alabama along the Gulf, was a Spanish colony, governed by Spain for thirty-seven years prior to 1800, and having the usual mixed population resulting from such settlement and government, when it was ceded to France, and only two and a half years later by France to the United States. The races were different and the languages and the institutions strangely different, but the Union was able to suppress pirates, establish order, and crepress pirates, establish order, and create a provincial government in harmony with American institutions. The vast Louisiana territory acquired at the same time, and in like manner held by Spain for thirty-seven years, made up, with the acquisitions just referred to, 1,231,199 square miles, against 827,844 covered by the United States when the Constitution was framed. Stretching from the Mississippi to the Pacific Ocean, with settlements partly French and partly Spanish, but all foreign to American speech, race and institutions, this vast territory still ofage occupants were rapidly pushed back and its alien settlers submerged by the flood of migration from the old
