—Henry Rearich and wife, of Altoona, have been visiting among friends in the town and community. Henry is employed in the railroad shops and his visits to his old home are not frequent. They were accompanied by Mr. Rearich's sister, Miss Sadie.

—Prof. F. C. Criswell, who was principal of our schools several years ago, arrived in town last Friday on a short visit with his friends. He rode his wheel from Buffalo to Centre Hall, and had plenty of experience on his trip. During the last year he has been teaching in New York state, and is very successful in his work. He will make a return trip by wheel over another route.
The Home Paper.
Said an eminent divine: "Your home paper tells you when to go to church, to county court and probate court and when to send your children to school. It tells you who is married and who is dead, who is sick, who is born, and many other things you would like to know. It calls attention to the public enterprises and advocates the best of schools and laws in town. It records the marriage of your daughter, the death of your son and the illness of your wife free of charge. It sets forth the advantages and attractions of your town and invites immigration, and is first to welcome newcomers. Yet in spite of all these and numerous other benefits, some people say home papers are not half as good as city papers, that they have no interest in their business or success. The home papers are like the home church—too often neglected by those who are benefitted the most.

The Santiago Scandal.
General Shafter denies the charges that he is responsible for the transport scandal, and says there was lack of means and hospital facilities, and never enough medical attendance or medicines for his command.
Surgeon Munson charges General Shafter is responsible for the scandalous want of attention to the health and comfort of the soldiers at Santiago. Ships were half unloaded and ordered out of the bays, not permitting even a row boat to get supplies, and no transportation on shore.

Headache for Forty Years.
For forty years I suffered from sick headache. About a year ago I began using Celery King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Celery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that what cured me will help others—Mrs. John D. Van Keuren, Saugerties, N. Y., Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys is sold in 50c. and 25c. packages by G. H. Long, Spring Mills.

The John Thomas show, the greatest on earth, exhibited at this place on Monday and Tuesday evenings, to fair sized audiences. The singing of Miss Pearl was exquisitely delightful. Ne plus ultra.
Mrs. William Klise, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Steininger, of Hartleton, have been royally entertained by friends at this place and in Brush valley for about a fortnight; they left for Hartleton on Tuesday.
The battle of Santiago de Cuba was completely put in the shade by some of our pugilistic inclined persons at this place. The first encounter took place on Saturday afternoon, which ended in a knock down and a lawsuit later; the second broke out at a new place on Sunday afternoon and was continued until Monday forenoon, disturbing the peace and quiet of the Holy Sabbath, and keeping that part of the town in an uproar; this fight resulted in a separation, and removal of household goods, but negotiations are now pending to bring about peace between the warring factions.

Fred Bryan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Tressler died on Wednesday of last week, caused by cholera infantum, aged one year and eight months. The funeral took place on Friday forenoon, services in the United Evangelical church conducted by Rev. W. W. Rhoads. Mr. and Mrs. Tressler have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in this their hour of grief.

The funeral of Joseph Page which took place on Thursday last was one of the largest this community has seen for some time. Despite the great down pour of rain all afternoon the people from far and near came to pay their last sad respects to the beloved dead. The I. O. O. F. of Boalsburg, of which Joseph was a member, had the funeral in charge. Rev. Eisenberg of Centre Hall, conducted the services. In the death of Joseph Kuhn Page the community has lost a useful young man and one who will be missed, but our loss is his gain.
