

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Insurance agent Shires of Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller.

—Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter Grace are visiting friends in Millheim since last week.

—Our esteemed friend, Jacob Bortor, of Lemont, honored our sanctum with a call.

—Mrs. William Boal, of Tyrone, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Heckman west of town.

—Mrs. Belle Ward, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Stiver, on Church street.

—Esq. Houseman, one of the representative men of south Potter, favored the Reporter with a call.

—Mrs. Funk, wife of Dr. Funk, and son Clarence, of Harrisburg, Pa., are guests at the home of Wm. Wolf.

—Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Roberts' brother, Mr. John Krumbine.

—Miss Bertha Scott, of Tyrone, returned to her home last week, after a brief visit with her friend Miss Emily Alexander.

—Mrs. Isaac Smith went to Altoona Saturday morning to spend a couple days with her husband who is working in that city.

—Postmaster Brisbin, who is an ardent supporter of Congressman Arnold, took in the Republican convention at Bellefonte Tuesday.

—H. D. Hagan, of Farmers Mills, gave our sanctum a call, and before leaving honored his label with a push forward into the star gallery.

—Ward Rishell and family, of Philadelphia, visited at the home of his mother in this place. Ward fills a position in the P. R. R. Department, at Philadelphia.

—W. H. Fry, one of Pine Grove's leading citizens, favored the Reporter with a call. He was one of the prominent visitors at the Institute last Thursday.

—Rev. Kreider Evans, prominent as a Reformed minister, was up from Pottstown to visit his aged parents in Gregg township, and, as usual, didn't forget to cheer the Reporter with a call—his presence anywhere is cheering.

—Dr. G. H. Widder came up from Harrisburg last Friday to join his wife and little son, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jerry Miller, for two weeks. They returned to their home on Saturday, the Dr.'s urgent professional services not allowing him more than a two days' vacation.

—Our valued friend, and whilom citizen, Philip Mersinger, of Joliet, Ill., arrived here yesterday morning, to visit his brother John, near Colyer, who is not enjoying the best of health. He says times are little dull out there, and a rousing 15 foot corn crop in prospect, and that our good corn seems little to them. He declares he wouldn't do without the Reporter at any price and had his label shine out into '99.

—Our sanctum was invaded by a number of pretty young ladies from Spring Mills, who witnessed the operation of printing newspapers; they were the Misses Ida Condo, Lena Grolman, May Smith, Katie Shires, and Rena Shires; they were accompanied by the following young gentlemen: Calvin Zerby, Jerry Condo, Bert Krape, John Krape. They formed a happy group, and were attending the picnic.

Swindler Fleeces Young Women.

A man has been carrying on a swindling scheme in towns of this section. He represented himself as an agent for a millinery establishment in Lebanon. He was selling outfits to make artificial flowers and said he would forward the wax, silk, wire, thread, scissors and 100 moulds to make 150 in advance. He stated that he would be around the next day to give a lesson of an hour, and would continue for a week. The students in the art were to work one hour every day for a week and at the expiration of that time they would receive $2.00 for their labor. He succeeded in interesting a number of ladies who are still waiting for the return of the swindler, who left the same day and since then nothing has been seen or heard of him.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered from sick headache. About a year ago I began using Celery King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Celery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that what cured me will help others—Mrs. John D. Van Keuren, Saugerties, N. Y., Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys is sold in 50c. and 25c. packages by G. H. Long, Spring Mills.

Teachers' Convention.

The county teachers' convention in Centre, Clearfield and Clinton will begin December 19, this year. This will be very convenient, as a two weeks' holiday will enable the teachers to attend the institute and yet have the Christmas week free.

SPRING MILLS.

A Bold Attempt Made to Burglarize the Postoffice.

Mrs. J. N. Leitzell of our village, is at present visiting relatives and friends in Perry and Juniata counties.

The defeat of C. P. Long of our village for Assembly, by the Republican convention on Tuesday, was quite a disappointment to his many friends in this valley. These valleys have as usual been again entirely ignored.

The recent rains have caused a very decided rise in our streams. Quite a number of our fishermen can daily be seen along Penns creek, seated on her concave shores waiting patiently for the anxious nibble, which however occurs only at long intervals simply from the fact that the creek is fished to death.

Dr. P. W. Leitzell the young and popular physician of our village, reports few, if any cases of serious illness in our immediate neighborhood, of course ordinary colds prevail to some extent, but no special ailment. Professionally speaking the present healthy condition of the community is remarkably distressing.

The M. E. and Reformed Sunday schools of our village had a largely attended picnic in the park on Saturday last. The weather was beautiful and the occasion a most enjoyable one, of course all the little people were in their element and enjoyed themselves immensely. The teachers and officers are to be complimented for their skillful management.

The shoe emporium of C. A. Krape still continues to be head quarters for foot wear and general news. Frequently the store room is thronged with our people seeking war and political information, of course the war news comes first, and when that is disposed of and settled, then the political caldron begins to boil and bubble. The war evidently being about at an end, our people here are beginning to discuss politics and candidates in quite a lively manner. The general opinion seems to be that this is a Democratic year, and this year the Democracy will smash to pieces the ticket set up by the mongrel machine of Bellefonte, and sweep the county like a tornado with one of her old fashioned and not to be misunderstood majorities.

Why do some persons while in church engage in audible whisperings during nearly the entire service? And of course to the great annoyance of surrounding worshippers; is it habit, verandry, or do they merely regard a church building as a convenient place for conversation and gossip. This freedom of speech is indulged in to a very considerable and annoying extent in the M. E. church of our village, and to speak plainly is a gross violation of all sense of propriety and decorum. The parties so offending should be admonished, and if they still persist in being a nuisance, request that they make themselves conspicuous by their absence. This intolerable jargon and gabbling during church service is simply outrageous, and shows a most pitiful lack of sense in the fools who engage in it.

About two o'clock on Friday morning last, a bold attempt was made to enter and rob the postoffice by removing a pane of glass from one of the windows. The glass falling on the floor and breaking, awoke Mr. Long, our postmaster, who occupies a room directly over the office. Cautiously looking out he discovered a man tampering with one of the lower windows, and immediately discharged his revolver twice at the robber, but as far as known without effect. The burglar hastily retreated around the corner of the building and running towards the pike soon disappeared in the darkness. The morning was very cloudy and Mr. Long could not say positively whether one or more persons were engaged in the attempted robbery, but he saw only one. The bicycle office of Frank Rearick, or rather the work room was entered also by removing a large window light and evidently by the same party or parties, and at about the same time. Their object no doubt, was to secure tools, but being discovered and the report of Mr. Long's revolver caused them to make a hasty flight. Nothing was stolen.

Michael Shires of our village, the active insurance agent is always busy, and almost continually on the road, of course the companies he represents know exactly where a gentleman of his ability can be used advantageously and consequently they oblige him to be almost ubiquitous. A day or two since I remarked to him, that I believed driving a canal boat would be a more desirable position than the one he occupied, because then a man would be home occasionally, he simply smiled and observed, possibly and—but I'll see you again, hastily entering his buggy he was off like a flash. Mr. Shires is quite a politician too, the few hours he has to spare he devotes to politics, to avoid as he says, the dry rot, and to keep up with the times. He handles a question with consummate skill, is very argumentative, never descends to clap trap and bosh, always in good humor, and in fact is an opponent not very safe to underrate, but unfortunately is not a Democrat.

The position of country postmaster is certainly not a bed of roses as some people imagine it to be. To answer the many absurd and frivolous questions asked daily regarding mail matter is very tiresome. To decipher the hieroglyphic superscriptions frequently found on letters is certain headache if nothing worse. To look time and again over a package of letters for parties who visit the office daily, and often send their children too, and yet rarely receive more than one letter in a year, is surely no pleasant pastime. He must be obliging and polite under all circumstances, and at times this is very trying, for some people will be bores. The mails must be ready in time, and frequently a letter reaches the office just as the pouch is closed, the writer is so sorry and his letter so important, but of course the obliging postmaster will send it along regardless of any trouble, and notwithstanding he does all that he possibly can to accommodate the public, attends strictly to the duties of the office, inconveniences himself to do a favor, and what does he receive? A few paltry dollars in commissions and heaps of abuse.

Aluminum for Brass.

The railroad companies are beginning to use aluminum checks for baggage. The improvement is one which will be appreciated by those who travel with half a dozen trunks and who were formerly obliged to carry the old fashioned brass checks, one of which will weigh as much as half a dozen of the new ones.

Mr. A. C. Wolfe, of Dundee, Mo., who travels for Mansur & Tibbette's Implement Co., of St. Louis, gives traveling men and travelers in general, some good advice. "Being a Knight of the Grip," he says, "I have for the past three years, made it a rule to keep myself supplied with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found numerous occasions to test its merits, not only on myself, but on others as well. I can truly say that I never, in a single instance, have known it to fail. I consider it one of the best remedies travelers can carry and could relate many instances where I have used the remedy on skeptics much to their surprise and relief. I hope every traveling man in the U. S. will carry a bottle of this remedy in his grip." For sale by S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; J. H. Ross Linden Hall, and H. F.
