CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. SEPT. 8

The Philadelphia Ledger is working in the direction of Quay.

The only grievance some men have, is over other people's prosperity.

Clem Dale's name would have added respectability to the Republican county ticket, in the which it is lacking.

Blair county politics looks alarming for Quay, the Democrats, anti-Quayites and Prohibitionists having combined against the boss.

On the forehead of assembly nominees Daly and Townsend, you can find the four letters, Q-u-a-y, behind a thin gauze covering to deceive.

Renown achieved by disinterested deeds of a noble heart, shows unostentatious nobleness. When sought after to gain glitter and glare, it lacks purity and nobleness of heart.

Selfishness is ignoble and devoid of true manliness.

President McKinley is for Alger and for Quay, and wants them to remain in the places they so grossly abused.

Alger has neglected our brave soldiers and left them in filthy camps to die of hunger and disease.

Quay is the most corrupt manipulator of politics and plunderer of the public funds.

A great strike is predicted by Manager Young, of the M. A. Hanna coal company, who says: In the early part of next year we will have one of the greatest coal strikes this country has ever seen.

When the Chicago contract expires, or possibly before that time, the miners will be obliged to accept a reduction of fifteen or sixteen cents per ton, or fight.

The Republican nominees for assembly have not yet mustered courage to say whether they are for or against Quay. Brave fellows, Daly and Townsend! The truth is they are out-and-out for Quayism, mileage steals, raising salaries, new and useless offices for henchmen, allowing the banks to use the public funds without interest, and withholding the school funds that politicians may fatten on them while the worthy teachers are in want because their salaries are withheld for speculative purposes.

Yes, Daly and Townsend are saturated with Quayism. Let voters give them a soaking in November. The Summer of 1898, which closed August 31, will go on record and be popularly known as a warm Summer. It is not always that these two authorities agree. Often a really warm summer is popularly believed to be a cool season and a cool Summer is remembered as a warm season. The error arises in part from the difference in the number of hot spells occurring in Summers, which spells make the strongest impression on people. But these periods of high temperature are generally balanced by cool spells which in the summing up of the temperature for the month or season reduce the average so as to leave the season actually a cool one.

Ex-congressman Darlington, of West Chester, a Republican, has been forced to tell how the Quay system of putting state funds into political banks operated in the case of the broken Chester county Trust Company, one of Quay's "pet banks," of which Darlington was president. He testified that the "current expenses" charged on the books of the company were actually political contributions to the Republican State and county committees; that these contributions were made "pursuant to a sort of implied understanding with the parties who were influential in controlling State deposits," and that, "as long as the State deposit was in the trust company, there was paid in political contributions each year from 2 to 3 per cent.

THE CZAR'S GREAT THOUGHT. It does not seem likely, says the Weekly Witness, that the czar's circular letter to the governments of the civilized world urging the necessity of a reduction of the vast armies now maintained will accomplish very much directly, but it is a seed of truth scattered by a master hand, and may take root in many places and ultimately bear good fruit.

The master of the mightiest empire and most warlike people on the face of the globe was just the man to speak with effect in favor of peace. And undoubtedly other powers, Germany and France especially, would be glad to adopt the suggestion if there was any way of adjusting their relations to their mutual advantage and then guaranteeing a continuance of the arrangement.

But France cannot be satisfied while Germany holds Alsace and Lorraine and while Britain holds Egypt. Nor would Britain be content to allow Russia to retain the controlling influence in the affairs of China which she has recently acquired.

If Russia, Germany, Austria-Hungary, France, Italy, Britain and the United States could get near enough together, by arbitration or otherwise, to arrange satisfactorily their mutual relations, and then agree that any future differences between them should be submitted to arbitration; and if the Balkan question could be settled by uniting Roumania, Servia, Bulgaria and Montenegro under one government and admitting this new State as an equal member of the parliament of imperial powers—then it might be possible to prevent any great war for many years to come. But the time when any such agreement may be possible seems to be still far distant.

There is this to be said, however, that the czar's suggestion is in line with God's thought and purpose, and will therefore ultimately prevail in some way whatever may become of it at present.

MISS HELEN GOULD.

Miss Helen Gould who has done so much to relieve the distress and add to the comfort of the sick and wounded soldiers, is to crown her work of mercy and patriotism by caring personally for some of the soldiers now at Camp Wikoff. It is announced that she proposes to take 20 of the sick men to her magnificent home at Irvington on the Hudson, and provide for them with medical care and nurses. She will assume supervision of all the arrangements and pay daily visits to the poor fellows until they become well enough to care for themselves. Helen Gould's course, during and after the war, will long be one of the brightest spots in the escutcheon of American womanhood.

All honor to Helen Gould! she deserves to be possessed of wealth, she rises to the elevation of patriotic women and is unbounded in her efforts to relieve the sick and wounded defenders of our country. She heroically administers to the relief of our neglected soldiers and while those in authority are neglecting our brave boys until they settle their jealous contention as to which shall occupy the "chief place in heaven," Miss Gould unostentatiously sees that our neglected sick and hungry soldier boys receive such attention from her own purse as will render them comfortable, and does this noble work in a quiet, unostentatious way, from pureness of heart.

Secretary Alger, speaking, no doubt, by authority of the President, has announced that there will be no investigation of the conduct of the War Department, as "there is nothing to investigate," and that he will neither resign his office nor be removed from it. All which seems to be an official notification to the people that they have no influence with this Administration. And yet, despite the efforts of either the servant or the master or both, to prevent it, reckoning day will come as surely as that day follows the night.

EDITORIAL JOTS AND NEWS DOTS.

Some 45 deaths by sun stroke happened in the different cities last Sunday. Monday evening a trolley car of the Troy city railroad company was struck by a special of the Del. and H. railroad, by which 18 people were killed and a score of others injured.

Wanamaker is beginning to realize that Jenks is the right man for the anti-Quay people to support. Vote for Jenks or forever shut up about dishonesty.

Centre county, next November, will not be counted in the Quay column. It will speak for honest government and clean Democratic nominees.

Gen. Miles intends to fight for an investigation of the outrageous treatment received by our brave soldiers by Alger's incompetency and the incompetency of his political heeled. McKinley is trying to have Gen. Miles keep silent so that Alger may be white washed.

The Democrats on Monday carried Arkansas by a large majority. Quay is becoming much alarmed over the drift of things in the direction of honest George A. Jenks.

We have gone to the trouble to obtain information from all sections of our county as to the political outlook, and the Reporter's summing up shows a healthy prospect for a big defeat of Quayism. Put a pin there.

Turned in the Water.

The lower reservoir on the new boro plant has been finished and last week the water was turned in. The reservoir will hold over a thousand barrels. It was built by the council. The main reservoir farther up the mountain will not be completed for several weeks yet.

More than twenty million free samples of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba are all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossmar, Spring Mills.
