

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Jerry Dinges, one of Boalsburg's leading citizens, favored us with a call.

Alexander Kuhn, of Boalsburg, was in town Tuesday on a business trip.

Mrs. Mary Burkholder, of Centre Hill, was a pleasant caller, and advanced her label to '99.

Wm. Shirk, formerly a citizen of this place, but now located at Atlantic City, arrived yesterday on a visit to friends here.

Mrs. Samuel Barr, and Mrs. Lide Barr, both of Tyrone, are visiting friends in Centre Hall and vicinity.

James Sando, our furloughed soldier, has been laid up the past week with an attack of malaria contracted in the swamps in the south.

Mrs. Susan Burkholder, of Centre Hill, gave us a business call, and had her label put up to date, and arranged for advertising sale of personal property.

John Emerick, of Karhouse, is here visiting his old home. He speaks of times being dull in Clearfield and all waiting for the promised good times to come around.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Kreamer left on Tuesday morning on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. David Solly, at Harrisonburg, Virginia. They will take in the points of interest in that state during their absence of three or four weeks.

Our old friend, Jerry Condo, one of the Spring Mills war veterans, favored us with a call, and showed his esteem for the Reporter by presenting us with a nice foot-rug of his own weaving. He has an improved loom, and has manufactured hundreds of yards of rag carpet and rugs.

Bernard W. Spangler and wife, of Chicago, visited at the home of his parents at Potters Mills last week. His mother was seriously ill and he came east to pay her a visit. They returned on Saturday to Chicago. Bernard is one of our young Penns valley boys who is succeeding in the Windy City.

George Dellett arrived home yesterday morning from Camp Meade, at Middletown. He has received his discharge as a faithful soldier after over three years service in the 17th Infantry, U. S. Army. During all his enlistment George was not once under arrest or confined in the guard house. A good record. He will remain here some time yet.

"The Post" Leads as Usual.

Some weeks ago a reader of the "Illustrated American" published in New York, asked the question: "Which is America's most popular newspaper?" The editor decided to leave the question to his readers, who were invited to vote by means of the coupon ballot. Last week's issue awarded the palm to the New York "Sun." "The Pittsburg Post" had the largest vote of any Pennsylvania newspaper, leading the "Press" and "Ledger," of Philadelphia, and being the only Pittsburg paper voted for.

The "American" adds: "This decision is important chiefly because the constituency of the 'Illustrated American' is generally acknowledged to be composed of conservative, intelligent and thinking people, whose views are worth something."

Death of the Queen of Denmark.

The Queen of Denmark died at 5:30 o'clock on Thursday morning. At her bedside were the King of Denmark, the Dowager Empress of Russia, the King and Queen of Greece, the Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland, the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Denmark and all the other members of the royal family.

The Kings of Denmark and Greece and the Princess of Wales, alternately, during many hours, held the hands of the dying Queen, who for a few moments recovered consciousness, but who could not speak. Her husband wept and the physicians requested him to retire to rest, but he replied: "I will stay at least while the Queen is conscious."

May Get All Cervera's Ships.

Capt. Frank Sharp, of the Merritt Wrecking Company, in charge of the expedition sent out to assist Lieutenant Hobson, writes that he is confident at least three of the Spanish vessels and possibly four will carry the American flag. He states that the Reina Mercedes can certainly be raised. When work on the Cristobal Colon is ended the wreckers will turn their attention to her. Constructor Hobson told Captain Sharp that he would ask permission of the Navy Department to be allowed to float the Vizcaya, as she would be an object of lasting interest.

A Common Danger.

If you have ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way for consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Sold by G. H. Long, Spring Mills.

SPRING MILLS.

The Happenings of Our Neighboring Town as Seen by Our Scribe.

In the REPORTER of last week, the types made me say that David Burrell, of our village had been knocked down by a reckless cyclist the Wednesday evening previous. It should have been David Barree. Mr. B. has about recovered from the injury and shock occasioned by the collision.

Miss Ida, the accomplished daughter of J. I. Condo the carpet manufacturer of our village, is quite an adept on the wheel, recently she purchased a very handsome improved bicycle, and now spins along the road with almost the rapidity of the wind and as gracefully as a goddess.

Walnuts and chestnuts seem to be abundant in this neighborhood. As the Irishman said of the oyster, they are very good vegetables. This accounts for the reason that about every second person one meets on the thoroughfares is eating and munching chestnuts.

Owing to largely increasing business the Spring Mills Planing Mill Co. were obliged to increase the number of their workmen, and are now operating the mill to its utmost capacity. Every department is systemized, and Mr. Confer the general manager, will not allow a foot of work to leave the mill unless thoroughly inspected and pronounced o. k. Of late their weekly shipments have been very large.

Apple butter boiling has commenced in earnest, and Corman's hydraulic press is squeezing out the apple juice just as rapidly as steam can accomplish it, in order to keep the kettles supplied, and also affording an opportunity for little boys and girls, and big ones too, to obtain cider from the barrel through a straw.

Both the party tickets are now complete, and yet the political atmosphere of these valleys is not of a very healthy character. The general topic is more of the Crawford county system of voting directly for the candidates instead of delegates, than discussing the present nominees. Of course every Democrat will vote for Mr. Hall for congress, and in all probability, both parties will sullenly support their county tickets. But year in and year out, having the candidates—to use a homely, like the handle of a jug all on one side, must be radically changed before we will have any particular dash and vim in politics on the Penns valley side of the mountains.

No money in store keeping, so the merchants say, yet men are entering into it every day, of course strong competition upsets profits and everything else. While possibly one merchant out of fifty will make some money, forty about keep themselves afloat, and ten out of the fifty fail. The great trouble is we have too many stores, almost every little hamlet has two or three stores, while towns with a population of a thousand or fifteen hundred are best with a dozen, of course the merchant can truthfully say there is no money in store keeping.

LINDEN HALL.

Items of Interest from Our Correspondent Up the Valley.

Linden Hall was well represented at the Union County Fair last week. S. D. Gettig, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in his home at this place.

Lot Kimport and H. C. Gettig took a drove of market cattle to Juniata last week.

Mrs. Clouds, of Atlanta, Georgia, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Swabb.

Water is getting very scarce at this place; many cisterns are dry, some people having to haul their water from springs.

Mrs. Fleisher, of Tusseyville, was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Wagner at this place this week.

Clyde Boyer who is learning telegraphy with P. B. Bradford at this place, spent Sunday at his home at Colyer.

The school at this place has fifty scholars on roll, and several have not started yet; another indication that the town is growing.

Flitting dinners are again on the program. George Weaver moved into Lot Kimport's tenant house; Mr. Lonbarger moved into Daniel Hess' house and Perry Cole will move into Mrs. Keller's new house this week.

Class No. 3 of the Rock Hill Sunday school will hold a sociable on Saturday evening, Oct. 8th, at the new United Evangelical church. Refreshments will consist of ice cream and cake. Come one, come all.

"Many have said their children would have died of croup, if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given," write Kellam & Ourren, druggists, Seaview, Va. "People come from far and near to get it and speak of it in the highest terms." This is equally true of this remedy in every community where it is known. Buy a bottle. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

Annual Reunion.

The Pennsylvania Bucktails, whose fighting qualities are famous throughout the state, and especially hereabouts, will hold their annual reunion at Kennet Square, near Philadelphia, on the 13th and 14th of October.

Sowden Scores Quay.

Ex-congressman Sowden, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, being asked whether he had retracted his charges of Quay selling postmasterhips, replied in the negative. "The statement that I retracted is a misrepresentation. I was right in the charges I made and the editors of the Quay organs need not for a moment fear that the Post Office Department, through its inspectors, will ever make an honest effort to ascertain the truth of my allegations that post offices were given in return for a money consideration.

"I am in possession of the most damaging proofs that Senator Quay is also not entirely clean in the matter of offering postoffices and other Federal positions to some of his henchmen in return for delegates all over the State.

"I positively say that Senator Quay offered to Ex-Representative John H. Pascoe, of Lehigh, the Allentown Post Office if he would secure him the Lehigh delegates. This was done at Harrisburg in the presence of a certain newspaper man, who overheard the proposal and who can be produced at the proper time if necessary.

"Senator Quay also offered a collectorship or post office to one of the conferees in the Adams district to vote against that brave soldier, Colonel Stable, and in favor of Hollar, with the result that a Democratic Congressman was elected.

"Ask Senator Quay what he knows about the sale of the Connellsville Post Office for $1,400. Does he know anything at all about this traffic of his henchmen in the distribution of the Federal patronage?"

Are in Trouble.

The grand jury at Lock Haven are in the midst of blackmailing schemes in which an alderman, a constable and an attorney are mixed up. It is alleged that they were paid heavy fines and fees if they would discontinue proceedings against keepers of houses of ill fame. They had settled two cases and were just closing the third.

Few men in this country are better or more favorably known to the drug and medicine trade than Mr. E. J. Schall, buyer in the proprietary medicine department of the Meyers Bros.' Drug Co., St. Louis. He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely; all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

FIERY FORESTS.

Horrors in Michigan Forest Fires.—Many Lives Lost.

From Rice Lake, Wisconsin: The loss of life from the disastrous forest fires will be great. Over 100 persons are missing. Many dead bodies have been found, and they are burned beyond recognition. The remains of Nelson were found at the bottom of a well, where he had gone to escape the fire. At another place a woman and two children were found in a well. The woman was so badly burned that she will die. At another place, where a man had been plowing in a field, his charred remains and the carcasses of his horses were found.

One man lost 500 oxen by the fires. Even the wild animals could not escape.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, it having pleased Almighty God, to summon to endless duration our worthy brother John W. Thomas.

We, while bowing with submission to the inevitable decree that the dust shall return to the earth as it was, and the Spirit shall return unto God, who gave it, deeply deplore the severance of a member from our school. Therefore be it Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy, and that a copy of the foregoing be presented to the family of our deceased brother.

F. A. FOREMAN.

WM. BOOZER. HOFFER DALE.
